METLIFE STADIUM HOME OF THE GIANTS

In 2010, the Giants moved into a beautiful, new, state-of-the-art stadium built just a few yards from where Giants Stadium stood for more than three decades. MetLife Stadium is the nation's finest football stadium. It seats 82,500 fans and is one of the NFL's most technologically advanced stadiums.

MetLife Stadium took more than 4 million man-hours and $1.6 billion to build. The stadium features more than 9,000 club seats, 221 suites and 130,000 square feet of state-of-the-art club lounges. The first row of seats is just 46 feet from the sidelines and the sightlines are superb. The Giants' home is 2.1 million square feet, compared to Giants Stadium's 900,000 square feet. It has four 30 feet by 118 feet high-definition video screens, a 350,000 square foot outdoor plaza filled with interactive activities for fans of all ages.

On Feb. 2, 2014, MetLife Stadium hosted a historic event. It was the site of Super Bowl XLVIII, the first Super Bowl to be played outdoors at a cold weather venue. The Seattle Seahawks defeated the Denver Broncos, 43-8.

In its inaugural 2010 season, the Giants' home was known simply as New Meadowlands Stadium. On Aug. 23, 2011 the Giants, Jets and MetLife announced the signing of a 25-year agreement to name the teams' home venue MetLife Stadium.

"Our partnership with the Giants and Jets goes back to 2008 when we became the first cornerstone sponsor here at the stadium," said Steven A. Kandarian, president and chief executive officer of MetLife. "This expanded partnership provides significant benefits for both sides. MetLife secures the naming rights to a world class venue that will extend the reach of our brand to levels unmatched in the industry. And the Jets and Giants gain a sponsor with a history of financial strength and a brand as strong and storied as their own. MetLife Stadium is clearly one of the world's premier sports marketing facilities."

The NFL's premier venue opened for business in 2010. In addition to being the only stadium that is home to two NFL teams and Super Bowl XLVIII, it hosts dozens of non-NFL events each year including concerts, NCAA football and lacrosse games and international soccer matches.

The entire Meadowlands Sports Complex has been renamed The MetLife Sports Complex.

"It is truly an honor for our team to be affiliated with such a wonderful partner," said John Mara, president and chief executive officer of the Giants. "I know how much MetLife means to so many in New York and New Jersey, as an employer, as a trusted provider of financial services, and as a great corporate citizen. The company's huge presence and influence in our area makes it a natural fit for this stadium and the strength, stability and quality of MetLife matches perfectly with the characteristics that the Giants try to achieve in all aspects of our aspirations. MetLife is a true leader in its industry and brings a powerful, well-known brand that reflects very well on our stadium and what we're trying to accomplish here. For the Giants in particular, MetLife's reputation and long history are very appealing qualities that resonate with us on a very basic level. We are both organizations that value heritage and legacy."

"MetLife Stadium immediately joins the ranks of the most prestigious, high-profile sports-branded venues in the world, and that's the way it should be," said Steve Tisch, the Giants' chairman and executive vice president. "If you look at MetLife and the marketing and branding assets they have, you can understand how proud we feel that they have selected our stadium as the one they want their name on. Clearly MetLife realizes what a unique situation we have: two NFL home teams and twice as many games over the course of the season. And of course, we are very proud that MetLife has recognized just what a fantastic, one-of-a-kind facility this stadium is."

JOHN K. MARA
PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John K. Mara is in his 28th season with the Giants. The franchise's President and Chief Executive Officer, he assumed the team presidency upon the passing of his father, Wellington Mara, in 2005. He joined the Giants in 1991 as General Counsel and later added the title of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

With team Chairman Steve Tisch, Mara was at the forefront of the planning and negotiations for MetLife Stadium, where the Giants began playing their home games in 2010 after 34 seasons in Giants Stadium. In addition, Mara, Steve Tisch and Jonathan Tisch, as well as Jets owner Woody Johnson, headlined the bid committee that helped convince the NFL owners to award Super Bowl XLVIII to the new stadium. Seattle and Denver played in the game on Feb. 2, 2014. The first Super Bowl to be held in a cold-weather outdoor venue was an overwhelming success, both in the week prior to the game and on game day.

Mara, one of the NFL's most prominent and respected owners, is the chairman of the league's Management Council Executive Committee, and he played an important role in negotiating the 2011 collective bargaining agreement with the NFLPA. He also serves on numerous other NFL committees, including for the last 18 years on the influential Competition Committee, which studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs. Mara also serves on the NFL's Health and Safety, Compensation, and Workplace Diversity committees.

Mara has been affiliated with the Giants his entire life. The franchise was founded in 1925 by his grandfather, Tim Mara. Wellington Mara was one of the most influential, respected and beloved executives in NFL history. Since John Mara joined the organization in an official capacity, the Giants have reached the playoffs 10 times, won five NFC East titles and played in three Super Bowls, winning two.

Born in New York City on Dec. 1, 1954, Mara grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. Mara earned his law degree from Fordham University in 1979. He specialized in labor and employment law and litigation at two Manhattan firms prior to joining the Giants.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincent's Hospital in Harrison, N.Y. and Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, have five children and 10 grandchildren.

STEVE TISCH

CHAIRMAN AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Steve Tisch has been involved with the New York Giants since his father, Preston Robert Tisch, purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991. He joined the organization as Executive Vice President in July 2005, and after his father passed away, assumed the additional title of Chairman. Steve worked closely with John Mara on the planning and construction of MetLife Stadium and cites his father's passion for the Giants as a driving force in his efforts to complete the project. Steve and Mara were named Best Owners in Forbes Magazine's 2011 Best Owners in the National Football League for their success both on and off the field.

In May 2010, Steve joined with his brother Jonathan, John Mara and Jets owner Woody Johnson in the teams' successful bid to bring Super Bowl XLVIII to MetLife Stadium in February 2014. It was the first Super Bowl played in an open-air stadium in a cold weather region.

Outside of the Giants, Steve is a partner at Escape Artists Productions, an independently financed motion picture and television production company. For more than four decades, Tisch has successfully produced compelling stories in film and television, from the critically acclaimed television movie, The Burning Bed, to Risky Business, the sleeper hit that helped launch Tom Cruise's career. Other notable films include Forrest Gump, American History X, The Pursuit of Happyness, The Taking of Pelham 123, Hope Springs, Snatch, Lock Stock and Two Smoking Barrels, The Equalizer, The Equalizer 2 and Southpaw. Tisch is the only person with both an Academy Award and two Super Bowl rings.

Steve is also active in philanthropy, generously contributing his time and resources to a variety of organizations.

In May 2014, at a White House summit on youth and sports concussions, President Obama announced Steve's leadership gift to UCLA for the Steve Tisch BrainSPORT Program. The donation is the single largest gift from an individual to a medical center for a concussion-related initiative. The gift creates the first U.S. fellowship program to train pediatric neurologists who specialize in sports concussions, and establishes the world's most sophisticated research, prevention, diagnosis and treatment program for concussions and brain injuries with a particular emphasis on young athletes.

Recognizing the value of storytelling and its ability to increase dialogue and understanding, Steve made a transformative gift to Tel Aviv University, elevating its world-renowned Department of Film and Television into a full school, now named The Steve Tisch School of Film and Television. The major investment will help attract and expand top level talent, increase scholarships, provide new state-of-the-art equipment, enable building renovations, enhance curriculums, and bring international collaborations. It will help nurture and grow creative, talented and diverse voices from across Israel, the region and the world. Steve was awarded an honorary doctorate degree from Tel Aviv University in 2016.

Steve contributes his time to other worthwhile institutions in the arts, health and education fields. He is on the Boards of The Geffen Playhouse in Los Angeles, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and The Preston Robert Tisch Brain Tumor Center at Duke University. He is also the naming benefactor of the sports and fitness center at his alma mater, Tufts University and serves on the Dean's Council at NYU's Tisch School of the Arts.

When asked whether he would rather have his Academy Award for Forrest Gump or one of his Super Bowl rings, Steve has said he would give back the Oscar before either of the Giants' titles.

GIANTS HISTORY

POSTSEASON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Chris Mara joined the Giants as Vice President of Player Evaluation on July 29, 2003. He was promoted to Senior Vice President of Player Personnel in 2011.

This is Mara's second tour of duty with the franchise. He joined the Giants staff prior to the 1979 season and over the next 14 years Mara was a member of the club's player personnel department. Mara was a scout during the franchise's first two Super Bowl Championship seasons in 1986 and 1990.

Following his first stint with the Giants, Mara spent eight years (1994-2001) operating ProRate, Inc., an independent football scouting service contracted by as many as 15 NFL franchises. The service provided an evaluation of the free agent market in the NFL.

Mara spent 2001-02 as the President/General Manager of the New Jersey Gladiators of the Arena Football League. Mara oversaw a myriad of responsibilities including ticket sales, operations, and the arena lease. His primary focus was on player personnel and player contracts. Mara brought his extensive knowledge of professional football to the team and revived the struggling franchise in just one season.

After a difficult first season, the Gladiators posted a 9-5 record in 2002 and a first-place finish in the Eastern Division of the National Conference. Posting the biggest turnaround in AFL history, the Gladiators finished the 2002 regular season with seven more victories than the previous year and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in franchise history.

Mara graduated from Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N.Y. where he was a standout defensive back for three seasons, winning All-Catholic High School Athletic Association recognition after his senior year.

He began his collegiate career at Springfield College, where he was a defensive back on the freshman team and lettered on the varsity golf team. He then transferred to Boston College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in the arts and sciences. During his scholastic and collegiate days, Mara spent many summers working at Giants training camps. During the regular season, he worked with broadcast teams from both CBS-TV and NBC-TV, as well as with visiting and home radio broadcast groups.

Mara was born in New York City. He is married to the former Kathleen Rooney and the couple has four children - Daniel, Kate, Rooney and Conor - and four grandchildren, Judith Kailee, Wellington Rooney, Ann MacKenna, and Blaise Rooney (Daniel's children).

JONATHAN TISCH

TREASURER

Jonathan Tisch is Chairman and CEO of Loews Hotels & Co and Co-Chairman of the Board and a member of the Office of the President of Loews Corporation.

Tisch has led Loews expansion and emergence as a prominent and respected hotel company with a widely praised culture that embraces the power of partnerships — with team members, guests, communities and owners. He was voted “Hotelier of the World” by HOTELS magazine.

Recognized as a statesman for the multi-billion-dollar travel and tourism industry, Tisch is a leader both nationally and locally. He is Chairman Emeritus of the United States Travel Association, previously founded and served as Chairman of the Travel Business Roundtable and served as Chairman of the American Hotel and Lodging Association. For nearly six years Jon was Chairman of NYC & Company, the city’s official tourism agency, and was Chairman of New York Rising, established to bring back visitors and revive the economy after 9/11. Crain’s New York Business named him one of the “Top Ten Most Influential Business Leaders” and inducted him to their Hall of Fame, which recognizes individuals who have transformed the City in both their professional work and in their civic and philanthropic activities.

Tisch is a champion of corporate responsibility and civic engagement. More than 25 years ago, he initiated the Loews Hotels Good Neighbor Policy, a recipient of the US President’s Service Award. He is currently Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of his alma mater, Tufts University, where he is also the naming benefactor of the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life. He is a founding board member of The Shed, the first arts center designed to commission, produce, and present all types of performing arts, visual arts, and popular culture and last year he was honored by the NYU School of Professional Studies with the naming of the Jonathan M. Tisch Center of Hospitality, of which he has been a driving force for years.

Tisch is the author of three best-selling books: The Power of We: Succeeding through Partnerships; Chocolates on the Pillow Aren’t Enough: Reinventing the Customer Experience; and Citizen You: Doing Your Part to Change the World. He was the host of the Emmy-nominated television series Beyond the Boardroom.

Jon was instrumental in bringing the 2014 Super Bowl to the metropolitan area, serving as Co-Chair of the bid committee and then as Co-Chair of the NY/NJ Super Bowl Host Committee.

GIANTS HISTORY

POSTSEASON

DAVE GETTLEMAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Dave Gettleman, a veteran with more than 30 years of NFL experience as a scout and general manager, was introduced as the Giants' general manager on Dec. 27, 2017. He is just the fourth person to hold that position since 1979, following George Young, Ernie Accorsi and Jerry Reese.

Gettleman was the Carolina Panthers' general manager from 2013-17. In his four full seasons with the Panthers, they won three consecutive NFC South Division titles, an NFC Championship, and played in Super Bowl 50. Gettleman received The Sporting News' 2015 NFL Executive of the Year Award after the Panthers compiled a league-best 17-2 record.

Carolina's three straight division titles from 2013-15 marked the first time the Panthers earned three consecutive postseason berths in franchise history. Carolina joined Denver and New England as the only franchises with at least three consecutive division titles from 2013-16.

The Panthers' 34 regular-season victories over that time represent the team's best three-year stretch in franchise history.

Prior to his arrival, the Panthers had four consecutive non-winning seasons and had not qualified for the playoffs since 2008.

Gettleman previously spent 15 seasons with the Giants (1998-2012) — one as the assistant director of pro personnel, 13 as director, and a final season as the team's senior pro personnel analyst. Prior to coming to the Giants, Gettleman was a scout for the Buffalo Bills and Denver Broncos.

With the Giants, Gettleman was instrumental in the acquisitions of free agents Plaxico Burress, Antonio Pierce and Shaun O'Hara, among others, who helped the Giants win Super Bowls XLII and XLVI.

Gettleman has been a part of seven Super Bowl teams, including three winners, with four franchises. He was with Buffalo in 1990 and 1991, Denver in 1997, the Giants in 2000, 2007 and 2011, and Carolina in 2015. The Broncos and the 2007 and 2011 Giants won the championship. Gettleman has been associated with 16 playoff teams in his NFL career.

When Gettleman arrived in Charlotte in January 2013, the Panthers had won a total of 15 games in the previous three seasons and were in a challenging salary cap situation. Gettleman was able to keep the core of the roster together, add important pieces, and help launch their three-year division title streak. And though he did not have the benefit of a full college scouting season or the full complement of draft choices -- Carolina had just five -- he engineered a draft that produced defensive tackles Star Lotulelei and Pro Bowler Kawann Short. Short had 11 sacks and was a Pro Bowler in 2015, and Lotulelei became one of the NFL's best run stoppers. In addition, fifth-round pick A.J. Klein provided reliable depth as both a starter and reserve at linebacker behind Luke Kuechly.

Subsequent Carolina drafts under Gettleman's direction delivered outstanding players such as Pro Bowl guard Trai Turner, second team All-Pro tackle Daryl Williams, receiver Kelvin Benjamin and linebacker Shaq Thompson. Gettleman also demonstrated an aptitude for finding under-the-radar prospects who became productive players, such as guard Andrew Norwell, as well as undervalued free agents like safety Kurt Coleman, wide receiver Ted Ginn and running back Fozzy Whittaker.

Gettleman entered the NFL in 1986 as a scouting department intern for the Buffalo Bills. He became a full-time scout for Buffalo after the 1987 draft. Following a year as an area scout, Gettleman was assigned as the Bills' representative to the BLESTO scouting combine and continued in that capacity through the 1992 draft as the Northeast area scout. From June 1992 through December 1993, Gettleman worked as a regional scout for BLESTO, concentrating in the East and Midwest regions. In January 1994, Gettleman joined the scouting department of the Broncos, for whom he spent more than four years scouting the East and Southeast.

Gettleman joined the Giants in the spring of 1998 as then-director of pro personnel Tim Rooney's assistant. He was promoted to pro personnel director in the spring of 1999 upon Rooney's retirement.

After the Giants won Super Bowl XLVI in February 2012, Gettleman became the team's senior pro personnel analyst.

Gettleman began his football career as a teacher-coach at Spackenkill High School in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. As the head coach from 1973-78 and 1980-81, Gettleman led his teams to two league titles and one Section 1 Bowl berth. He spent a season as a volunteer assistant at Cal State Long Beach in 1979. Gettleman joined the faculty of Kingston High School in 1982 and became the head coach in 1984, leading his team to a Section 1 Bowl berth.

Born in Boston, Gettleman earned a bachelor's degree from Springfield College in 1972. He played offensive tackle on the freshman football team. Gettleman has two master's degrees: one in physical education from Southern Connecticut State in 1978 and another in sports administration from St. Thomas University in 1986. He and his wife, Joanne, have three children: Aaron, Sam, and Ana Jane, and a daughter-in-law Melissa.

Dave Gettleman and head coach Pat Shurmur after the Giants' 2018 first-round draft choice was announced.

PAT SHURMUR*HEAD COACH

Pat Shurmur was named the 18th head coach in Giants history on Jan. 22, 2018.

A 20-year NFL coaching veteran, Shurmur joined the Giants after a two-year stint with the Minnesota Vikings, including the last 27 games as offensive coordinator. In 2017, he was named the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers Association.

This is the second head coaching assignment for Shurmur, who led the Cleveland Browns from 2011-12.

Shurmur has been a part of teams that have qualified for nine postseason berths, won seven division titles, and advanced to one Super Bowl (he was on the Eagles' staff when they played in Super Bowl XXXIX vs. New England to cap the 2004 season).

In 2017, the Vikings were one of four teams with an NFL-best 13-3 record and won the NFC North championship. Minnesota finished 10th in the NFL in scoring (23.9 points a game), 11th in total yardage (356.9 a game), and seventh in rushing yardage (122.3-yard average). The Vikings were also third in the league in third-down conversion percentage (43.5, with 94 successes in 216 attempts).

Shurmur has long been renowned for his work with quarterbacks, including Super Bowl LII champion Nick Foles, Sam Bradford and, last season, Case Keenum, who had the finest season of his career in leading Minnesota to the NFC Championship Game. In his first four years, Keenum played for three teams and had a career passer rating of 78.4 and a touchdown pass/interception ratio of 24/20. In his only season with Shurmur, Keenum's rating was 98.3 — placing him seventh in the NFL — and he threw for 22 touchdowns and only seven interceptions. Including the postseason, the Vikings were 12-4 in games he started.

In 2016, Shurmur joined the Vikings as their tight ends coach. For the final nine games of the season, he was also the team's offensive coordinator, the title he retained last year.

The 2016 Vikings endured several injuries on the offensive line and inserted Bradford as the starting quarterback in Week 2 after obtaining him in a pre-season trade following a season-ending injury to Teddy Bridgewater. Bradford, who had previously worked with Shurmur in St. Louis (2010) and Philadelphia (2015), broke the NFL single-season completion percentage record with his 71.6% effort and set Vikings' marks with 395 completions and a 0.9 interception percentage (five picks in 552 attempts). Bradford's 99.3 passer rating was the highest of his career.

Prior to his arrival in Minnesota, Shurmur spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles, his second stint with the club. He joined the Eagles in 2013 when he was hired by first-year head coach Chip Kelly. In their first season in Philly, the Eagles set franchise records in points (442), total net yards (6,676), touchdowns (53), passing yards (4,406) and fewest turnovers (19) en route to an NFC East title.

Philadelphia also set an NFL record with 99 plays of 20+ yards and became the first team since the 1991 Buffalo Bills to lead the league in rushing while ranking last in time of possession.

Widely respected around the NFL for his ability to develop quarterbacks, Shurmur guided Foles to a breakout season in 2013, when the then second-year pro threw 27 touchdown passes and only two interceptions while posting the third-best rating (119.2) and third-lowest interception percentage (0.63%) in NFL history. Foles also became just the seventh player in league history to throw for seven touchdowns in a game (at Oakland).

In 2014, Shurmur oversaw an offense that again established a Philadelphia record by scoring 474 points. Those Eagles also set franchise team records with 54 touchdowns, 390 completions, 4,581 gross passing yards, eight 300-yard passing games and 356 first downs.

Shurmur served as the interim head coach for the 2015 regular season finale after Kelly's dismissal and guided Philadelphia to a 35-30 victory over the Giants.

Before joining the Eagles, Shurmur was the Browns' coach, the first head coaching opportunity of his career. He was the 13th head coach in franchise history, and the sixth since the franchise's revival in 1999.

In his first season, Shurmur developed a draft class in which all eight members played in regular-season games, including three who started all 16 games. Shurmur also mentored quarterback Colt McCoy, who in his second season posted career-best totals of 2,733 passing yards and 14 touchdown passes in 2011.

Shurmur took over in Cleveland after two seasons as the offensive coordinator of the St. Louis Rams (2009-10). He helped the Rams improve to a 7-9 record following a 1-15 season in 2009. Shurmur guided the Rams to improvements in nearly every offensive category, including total yards, time of possession and third-down percentage. The first overall selection in the 2010 NFL Draft, Bradford was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year after setting league rookie records for completions (354) and attempts (590), while his 3,512 passing yards were the second-most by a rookie in history at the time.

Prior to a successful season through the air in 2010, Shurmur helped running back Steven Jackson capture the NFL rushing title in 2009 with 1,416 yards.

Shurmur's NFL coaching career began in Philadelphia, where he was an Eagles assistant for 10 seasons under Andy Reid (1999-2008). He served as the team's quarterbacks coach from 2002-08 and helped develop Donovan McNabb into a three-time Pro Bowler during his tenure. In 2004, Shurmur mentored McNabb to the most productive season of his career, as the quarterback set franchise records in passer rating (104.7) and completion percentage (64.0). McNabb also became the first player in NFL history with 30-plus TDs (31) and fewer than 10 interceptions (8) in a single season. McNabb's career year helped Philadelphia advance to Super Bowl XXXIX, its first appearance in the title game since 1980.

In his first three seasons in Philadelphia (1999-2001), Shurmur was the Eagles' tight ends coach, and helped develop Chad Lewis, who was selected to three Pro Bowls. From 2000-01, Lewis combined for 110 receptions, 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. His reception total ranked fourth among all NFL tight ends during that two-year span.

Before joining the Eagles, Shurmur spent the 1998 season at Stanford University as the offensive line coach. His group helped first-year quarterback Todd Husak become only the third quarterback in school history to throw for more than 3,000 yards.

Prior to his stint at Stanford, Shurmur coached the tight ends, special teams and offensive line at his alma mater, Michigan State University, from 1990-97. Three Spartans tight ends (Ty Hallock, Duane Young and Mitch Lyons) played well enough under Shurmur's guidance to advance to the NFL, and kickoff returner Derrick Mason set a school career record with 2,575 yards.

A four-year letterman at Michigan State, Shurmur earned All-Big Ten conference honors and All-America honorable mention accolades as a senior in 1987. As a freshman, he played guard and linebacker, and in the next three seasons, he was the Spartans' starting center. Shurmur served as co-captain as a senior, when the Spartans defeated USC in the Rose Bowl.

Shurmur earned a master's degree in financial administration and was the first grad student football player at Michigan State.

A native of Dearborn Heights, Mich., Shurmur attended Divine Child High School.

Shurmur comes from a football family. His uncle, the late Fritz Shurmur, coached in the NFL for 24 years. He was the Green Bay Packers' defensive coordinator from 1994-98 and helped that club win two NFC titles and Super Bowl XXXI.

Shurmur and his wife Jennifer have four children — daughters Allyson, Erica and Claire and a son, Kyle, who is a quarterback at Vanderbilt University.

MIKE SHULA

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Shula is in his first season as the Giants' offensive coordinator. Shula is a 31-year coaching veteran. This is his 27th season as an NFL assistant, and he also served four years as the head coach at the University of Alabama. Shula spent the previous seven seasons with the Carolina Panthers, including the last five as offensive coordinator.

In 2017, the Panthers were fourth in the league in rushing yards per game (131.4), seventh in third-down efficiency (93 conversions in 222 opportunities, a 41.9% success rate), and 12th in scoring (22.7 points a game). The previous season, Shula's offense battled through injuries along the offensive line to finish 10th in the NFL in rushing. Those two seasons continued a tradition of strong ground games under Shula; the Panthers produced 30 consecutive regular-season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of the 2014 season to Week 3 in 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh had 43 in a row from 1974-77.

Shula's most memorable season in Charlotte was in 2015, when the Panthers finished 15-1 in the regular season and advanced to Super Bowl 50. He directed an offense that helped Carolina set franchise records with an NFL-leading 500 points and 59 touchdowns, as well as 357 first downs. Quarterback Cam Newton was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player and first-team All-Pro after throwing for 35 touchdowns, running for 10 more, and producing a 99.4 quarterback rating. He was the first player in NFL history with at least 30 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing touchdowns in a season. That Panthers team finished second in the NFL with 142.6 rushing yards per game, the highest ranking in team history.

Six of Shula's players from that team were selected to the Pro Bowl: Newton, center Ryan Kilgus, running back Jonathan Stewart, tight end Greg Olsen, fullback Mike Tolbert, and guard Trai Turner.

Shula was one of the few constants on offense when the 2014 Panthers won their second consecutive NFC South title. Despite injuries at quarterback, running back and on the offensive line, Carolina ranked seventh in rushing, ninth in first downs, and 12th in third-down efficiency. The Panthers' average time of possession of 31:47 set a team record for the second consecutive year.

In 2013, Shula's offense generated a 31:45 average time of possession, which ranked fifth in the NFL. The unit finished third in third-down efficiency (43.8%) and second in drives of five-plus minutes (30). That offense also tied a franchise record with just 19 turnovers, the fourth fewest in the NFL. Four players — Newton, Kilgus, Tolbert, and tackle Jordan Gross — played in the Pro Bowl.

Prior to becoming offensive coordinator, Shula was Carolina's quarterbacks coach for two seasons. He helped shape an offense that gained 12,008 total net yards from 2011-12, the most in a two-year span in team history, and compiled an NFL-high 165 plays that gained 20 or more yards.

Shula helped Newton — the No. 1 overall draft choice in 2011 — become one of the league's most productive quarterbacks. With Shula as his position coach, Newton was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year after one of the most prolific debut seasons in league history, passing for 4,051 yards and accounting for an NFL rookie record 35 total touchdowns (21 passing, 14 rushing). With Newton throwing and running, the Panthers set team records with 6,237 total yards and 345 first downs.

In 2012, Newton posted an 86.2 passer rating while rushing for more than 700 yards for the second consecutive season. He set a team record with 176 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

Prior to his stint with Carolina, Shula spent four seasons as the Jacksonville Jaguars' quarterbacks coach (2007-10). With Jacksonville, Shula mentored David Garrard, who was a Pro Bowl selection in 2009. In Shula's first year with the Jaguars, Garrard ranked third in the NFL with a 102.2 passer rating, threw an NFL-low three interceptions, and established a team record with a 64.0 completion percentage. In 2010, Garrard finished second in the NFL with a fourth-quarter passer rating of 108.3 and engineered five game-winning drives.

From 2003-06, Shula compiled a 26-23 record as head coach at Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to three consecutive bowl games.

Before returning to his alma mater as head coach, Shula coached the Miami Dolphins' quarterbacks for three seasons from 2000-02. It marked his second stint with the team, having previously served as a coaching assistant from 1991-92.

Shula was the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99. The Bucs reached the playoffs in two of Shula's four years, advancing to the NFC Championship Game in 1999. Shula helped quarterback Trent Dilfer earn Pro Bowl honors in 1997.

Shula joined the Buccaneers from the Chicago Bears, where he coached the team's tight ends from 1993-95. He broke into coaching as an offensive assistant for Tampa Bay in 1988, and was promoted to quarterbacks coach in 1990.

From 1984-86, Shula played quarterback at University of Alabama, where he was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection. He completed 298-of-552 passes for 3,881 yards and 33 touchdowns, and finished his career with a 32-15-1 record as a starter. Shula was selected by Tampa Bay in the 12th round of the 1987 NFL Draft and spent part of the season on the Buccaneers' roster. He graduated from Alabama with a degree in labor relations.

Shula is the son of Don Shula, who won an NFL-record 347 games with the Baltimore Colts and Miami Dolphins, and is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. His brother, Dave Shula, was the Cincinnati Bengals' head coach from 1992-96, and is now the wide receivers coach at Dartmouth College.

Shula and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Sam, Brooke and Ryan.

JAMES BETTCHER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

James Bettcher is in his first season as the Giants' defensive coordinator.

Bettcher comes to the Giants after five seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, the last three as defensive coordinator. In those three years, the Cards' defense was consistently among the NFL's best in yardage allowed, ranking fifth in 2015 (321.7), second in 2016 (305.2) and sixth in 2017 (310.9). Arizona was also one of the league's most effective run-stopping units each season, finishing, respectively, sixth (91.3), ninth (94.9), and sixth again (89.6).

The Cardinals also consistently harassed opposing quarterbacks under Bettcher. In 2016, they led the NFL with 48 sacks. Last season, the Cards had 37 sacks, including an NFL-leading 17.0 sacks by Chandler Jones.

Bettcher's 2017 defense was fourth in the NFL by allowing an average of only 4.9 yards per play, and third by giving up just 3.5 yards per rushing attempt. The unit was sixth in the league by limiting opponents to a 35.7% success rate on third down conversion attempts (80 of 224), and eighth in first downs allowed (283, or 17.7 a game). Cornerback Patrick Peterson and Jones, who also had a career-high 59 tackles (52 solo), were each selected to the Pro Bowl.

In Bettcher's first two seasons as defensive coordinator, he led Arizona's defense to a top-five ranking in consecutive seasons for the first time in team history. The Cardinals' No. 2 defense in 2016 was their highest ranking in franchise history.

Arizona's league-leading 48.0 sacks that season were the third-highest total in team history. Outside linebackers Markus Golden (12.5) and Jones (11.0) each had double-digit sack totals, marking just the third time in team history (1983-84) the Cardinals had multiple players with 10.0 or more sacks in a season. Tackle Calais Campbell led the defensive line with 8.0 sacks, his team-record seventh career season with at least 6.0 sacks.

During Bettcher's first season as defensive coordinator in 2015, the Cardinals ranked seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). Arizona was second in the NFL with 33 takeaways, and tied Kansas City for the league lead with six defensive touchdowns. Peterson, Campbell and safety Tyrann Mathieu were selected to the Pro Bowl and Peterson and Mathieu were both named first-team All-Pro.

Bettcher joined the Cardinals as the team's outside linebackers coach in 2013. That season, his unit helped the Cardinals finished with 47 sacks. Arizona's defense led the NFL by allowing only 84.4 rushing yards per game that season, and a franchise-low total for a 16-game season of 1,351 yards. The Cardinals were sixth in the league in total defense, allowing 317.4 yards a game. Outside linebacker John Abraham was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl — but first as a linebacker — after leading the team with 11.5 sacks in 2013.

In 2014, Bettcher tutored linebacker Alex Okafor who had a team-leading 8.0 sacks in just 13 games.

Arizona's defense gave up only 18.7 points per game, the fifth-lowest average in the league, while surrendering 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games. The Cardinals defense allowed just 299 points, the first time the team has allowed fewer than 300 points in a season since 1994 (267). In 2012, Bettcher worked as the special assistant to Indianapolis Colts head coach Chuck Pagano and 2012 NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians, who served as interim head coach for 12 games while Pagano was receiving treatment for leukemia. Bettcher worked with the Colts outside linebackers, helping Robert Mathis get selected to his first Pro Bowl at that position, and his fifth overall. The Colts improved from 2-14 in 2011 to 11-5 in 2012, tied for the third-largest turnaround in NFL history and earned a Wild Card berth in the AFC playoffs.

Prior to joining the Colts, Bettcher spent nine years in the collegiate coaching ranks. In 2011, he served as linebackers coach/special teams coordinator at the University of New Hampshire, where he coached the NCAA FCS leading tackler and 2011 Buck Buchanan Award Winner (FCS National Defensive Player of the Year) Matt Evans. He also helped the Wildcats rank in the top 20 nationally in both punt return and punt coverage.

Bettcher coached defensive ends and special teams at Ball State University in 2010, where he helped tutor Robert Eddins, who led the team in sacks and earned Mid-American Conference

From 2007-2009, Bettcher worked as a defensive assistant/defensive graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina, coaching linebackers and special teams and helped the 2009 team finish sixth in the nation in overall defense. At UNC, Bettcher worked with future NFL Pro Bowler Robert Quinn, as well as linebackers Bruce Carter and Quinton Coples.

In 2006, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University, working with the secondary and special teams units.

Bettcher's coaching career began at his alma mater, the University of St. Francis (Ind.) from 2003-05 as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach. He also worked with the strength and conditioning staff and was the head track coach (2003-04).

During his stint at St. Francis, the Cougars made three trips to the NAIA playoffs, including two national championship game appearances.

As an offensive lineman at St. Francis, Bettcher was a three-time NAIA All-America Scholar, a three-time Mid-States Football Association Scholar, a two-time NAIA Coaches All-America choice, and a two-time Don Hansen's All-America selection. He earned all-conference honors three times and was the recipient of the Silver Helmet Award for leadership, coachability and performance on the field in 2002. Bettcher was also a five-time track All-America choice for the Cougars, where he placed second in the shot put at the 2001 NAIA Championships.

Bettcher, a native of Lakeville, Ind., was inducted into the University of St. Francis Hall of Fame in 2012. He and his wife, Erica, have a son, Colton and a daughter, Addison.

James and Erica Bettcher received the City of Chandler (Ariz.) Life Saver Award after helping free a boy trapped under a vehicle in February 2017.

Tauren Meadows, Jr. was riding his bike to school when he was struck and run over by a car, becoming trapped beneath the vehicle. Needing immediate attention, the Meadows received aid from the Bettchers and another bystander. While James and the bystander used a carjack to free the boy, Erica remained by his side, keeping him calm throughout the rescue. "We really had a great 911 operator that directed us, everything to do and things to check on the young man," James Bettcher said after receiving the honor. "Our first responders, our medical service personnel, our firefighters — those men and women behind the scenes who run two things on a daily basis: to keep us safe and to protect us. That's really, for me, that's what it all represented, and for me, that's what it's really about."

THOMAS MCGAUGHEY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

This season, Thomas McGaughey begins his second stint with the Giants and his first as the team's special teams coordinator. He has previously been a coordinator for three other NFL teams.

McGaughey was the Giants' assistant special teams coach from 2007-10. Before rejoining the Giants, he was most recently the Carolina Panthers' special teams coordinator for two seasons. Initially hired as Carolina's assistant special teams coach in February of 2016, McGaughey was named special teams coordinator six months later when the late Bruce DeHaven transitioned to the role of senior advisor to special teams.

In 2017, the Panthers ranked fifth in the NFL with a 42.4-yard net punting average, and eighth by allowing an average of just 5.9 yards on 30 opponent punt returns. Kicker Graham Gano led the league with a .967 success rate on field goal attempts (29-of-30) and made 34 of 37 extra point tries.

In McGaughey's first season with the Panthers, Carolina led the NFL and tied the team record with three blocked field goals. Rookie defensive tackle Vernon Butler accounted for two of the blocks, equaling Julius Peppers' team record for the most blocked field goals in a season. Carolina's kickoff coverage unit limited opponents to an average of 18.1 yards per return, the top mark in the NFL, and ranked fifth with an average drive start on the 23.7-yard line.

McGaughey joined Carolina from the San Francisco 49ers, for whom he was the special teams coordinator in 2015. The 49ers ranked second in the league with four blocked field goals and eighth in punt coverage, allowing an average of just 6.4 yards per return.

As the Jets' special teams coordinator in 2014, McGaughey's kickoff units excelled. The Jets' kickoff return team finished fifth in the NFL with an average drive start on the 24.1-yard line, while the kickoff coverage group led all teams in tackles inside the 20-yard line and was seventh by limiting opponents to an average of 21.8 yards per return.

From 2011-13, McGaughey served as the special teams coordinator/defensive assistant at Louisiana State University, which won the Southeastern Conference Championship in 2011. During his three seasons in Baton Rouge, the Tigers scored seven special teams touchdowns, and McGaughey coached three All-Americans, including two future Giants; Odell Beckham, Jr. and Tyrann Mathieu earned honors as returners, and Brad Wing as a punter.

McGaughey coached more than 40 future NFL players, including multiple draft choices, at LSU. Prior to his tenure at Louisiana State, McGaughey spent four seasons as the Giants' assistant special teams coach. The Giants won Super Bowl in his first season with the team. In 2008, he helped produce the Pro Bowl battery of kicker John Carney, punter/holder Jeff Feagles, and long snapper Zak DeOssie as the Giants won the NFC East. That year, Carney set a team record by converting 92.1 percent (35-of-38) of his field goal attempts. McGaughey initially came to the Giants following two seasons (2005-06) as the Denver Broncos' assistant special teams coordinator.

In 2006, the Broncos held opponents to an average of 6.9 yards per punt return, the fifth-best figure in the NFL, and kicker Jason Elam set a then-franchise record with a 93.1 field goal percentage (27-of-29), which ranked second in the league. The previous year, McGaughey assisted with special teams units that contributed to the Broncos going 13-3, winning the AFC West and advancing to the AFC Championship Game.

In 2003, McGaughey returned to his alma mater, the University of Houston, where he was the special teams coordinator in 2003 and added cornerbacks coach to his responsibilities in 2004. McGaughey tutored three future NFL players — Stanford Routt, Thomas Gafford, and Willie Gaston — and recruited future All-Pro Sebastian Vollmer to the school.

After getting his start in the NFL as an intern in the Houston Texans' pro scouting department in 2001, McGaughey gained experience coaching on the professional level as a minority intern with the Kansas City Chiefs during training camp that year. He was hired as an assistant special teams coach in 2002. McGaughey worked with Hall of Fame kicker Morten Anderson and Pro Bowl punt returner Dante Hall, who tied for the league lead with three combined kick return touchdowns in 2002.

Between his internship and full-time position with the Chiefs, McGaughey spent the spring of 2002 in NFL Europe as the Scottish Claymores' defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator, helping the team rank at or near the top of the league in punting average, punt return average, kickoff return average and field goal percentage.

McGaughey began his coaching career at Houston as a graduate assistant in 1997. He handled defensive backs and special teams at Willowridge High School in Houston from 1998-2001. McGaughey (pronounced muh-GAY-hee) played safety for four seasons and was special teams captain as a senior in 1995 at Houston, where he majored in kinesiology and sports administration. He attended training camp with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1996 and spent time on the Philadelphia Eagles' practice squad later that year. McGaughey played in NFL Europe and was a member of the Barcelona Dragons team that won the World Bowl in 1997.

GIANTS HISTORY

POSTSEASON

Lou Anarumo is in his first season as the Giants' defensive backs coach, a position he held the previous six years with the Miami Dolphins.

In 2017, strong safety Reshad Jones led the Dolphins with 122 tackles and was selected as a starter on the AFC Pro Bowl team. Cornerback Xavier Howard was one of 25 NFL players with at least four interceptions, including one he returned 30 yards for a touchdown.

The previous year, Anarumo's secondary helped the Dolphins have their best season since 2008, winning 10 games and reaching the playoffs for the first time in eight years. The defensive backs helped the Dolphins string together seven consecutive games with a takeaway from Week 9 to Week 15, totaling 19 turnovers, the most in a seven-game span since 2004. Miami won nine of its final 11 games and during that stretch, Anarumo helped the passing defense rank No. 15 in the NFL (238.5 passing yards allowed per game) and force 21 turnovers, which tied for fourth in the league. Cornerback Tony Lippett led the team and tied for 11th in the NFL with four interceptions in his second NFL season, despite playing wide receiver in college.

Anarumo entered the 2015 season as the secondary coach and was named defensive coordinator on Oct. 8. Under Anarumo's direction, cornerback Brent Grimes and Jones were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking the first time since the 2003 season that Miami had two members of their secondary participate in the Pro Bowl in the same season.

In 2014, Anarumo led a secondary that allowed only 222.3 passing yards per game, good for sixth-best in the NFL and the third-straight season of improvement in that category. His group scored three defensive touchdowns (cornerback Cortland Finnegan on a fumble return at Oakland and safety Louis Delmas and Grimes on interception returns at Jacksonville), marking the first season since 2003 when the Dolphins had three different players score defensive touchdowns. Grimes recorded a team-leading five interceptions en route to his second straight Pro Bowl and Jones was one of three players in the NFL in 2014 to record 70 or more tackles, one sack and three interceptions.

Anarumo guided a secondary that in 2013 saw marked improvement in his second season in Miami, going from 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. The team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the 2012-13 seasons were the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks (31). The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. Grimes earned a Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defended.

In Anarumo's first season with the Dolphins in 2012, safeties Chris Clemons and Jones both had the best seasons of their career to date. Starting all 16 games, Clemons set a career high with 96 tackles (69 solo), while Jones recorded 95 tackles (74 solo), one sack, two forced fumbles and four interceptions.

Anarumo joined the Dolphins after spending eight seasons (2004-11) as the defensive backs coach at Purdue University. With four new starters in 2010, the Boilermakers' secondary featured true freshman cornerback Ricardo Allen, who finished with three interceptions, returning two of them for touchdowns and led the Big Ten in interception return yardage while earning freshman All-America honors.

From 2005-06, the Boilermakers rebuilt their secondary and improved from 287.3 passing yards allowed per game to 241.2 yards. Safety Bernard Pollard was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall pick) of the 2006 NFL draft, becoming the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland (47th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in 1988.

Anarumo came to the Boilermakers from Marshall University, where he coached the defensive backs from 2001-03. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. The Thundering Herd ranked 10th in the nation in passing defense in 2003, allowing 177.4 yards per game. They were sixth in 2002 at 161.5 yards after ranking No. 37 in 2001 at 198.7 yards. Marshall compiled a 30-8 record over the three seasons and won the GMAC Bowl in 2001 and 2002.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard University from 1995-2000, working with the defensive backs and coordinating the special teams. During his tenure, he helped build a pass defense that led the league in pass efficiency defense in 1999 and ranked No. 2 in interceptions in 2000.

From 1992-94, Anarumo was defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, New York. He also served as the admissions liaison to the athletics department.

Anarumo was a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse University during the 1990-91 seasons. He was assistant defensive backs coach under Phil Elmsassan — whom Anarumo replaced on the Purdue staff — and was responsible for film breakdown and organization of the scout teams.

From January to June 1990, Anarumo was a part-time running backs coach at Wagner College. He filled that same role at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from September 1989 to January 1990.

Anarumo and his wife, Fran, have three children: Madison, Louis and Christopher. His last name is pronounced aahn-UH-room-oh.

ANTHONY BLEVINS

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

Anthony Blevins is in his first season as the Giants' assistant special teams coach. He spent the previous five years as a coaching assistant/special teams with the Arizona Cardinals.

During his time with the Cardinals, Blevins helped special teamer Justin Bethel get selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls (2013-15) after leading the team in special teams tackles each season. Kicker Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for the most consecutive field goals to begin a career (17) and established a franchise rookie record with 114 points in 2014.

The following season, Catanzaro finished third in the NFL with 137 points, which was also the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. Also in 2015, David Johnson was fifth in the NFL with a 27.2-yard kickoff return average, and set a franchise record with a 108-yard touchdown.

In 2013, Dave Zastudil tied for the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line, and his 45.7-yard punting average is the third-highest in franchise history. A year later, Drew Butler tied for the NFL lead with 34 punts inside the 20.

Last season, Blevins coached rookie Budda Baker, who was selected by his peers as the NFC special teams representative in the Pro Bowl. Baker led the Cardinals with 16 special teams tackles.

Blevins spent the 2012 season as the cornerbacks coach at his alma mater, the University of Alabama at Birmingham, following three seasons at Tennessee State University (2009-11) coaching special teams and cornerbacks. He also worked at the University of Tennessee at Martin in 2008 coaching cornerbacks while serving as recruiting coordinator.

Blevins was a part of the NFL's minority summer coaching internship program with the Indianapolis Colts in 2011, the Cardinals in 2010, and the Chicago Bears in 2008.

A three-year letter winner, Blevins played cornerback at UAB from 1995-98. He played professionally for the Mobile Admirals of the Regional Football League (1999), the Birmingham Steeldogs of AFL2 (2000), and for the Birmingham Thunderbolts in the XFL from 2000-01.

Blevins began his coaching career as the secondary coach and team community liaison at Meadowcreek High School in Gwinnett, Ga. in 2003-04. From 2005-07, he served as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State University, helping coach wide receivers and defensive backs for the Bulldogs while also assisting special teams.

A native of Birmingham, Blevins graduated from UAB in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and earned a master's in instructional technology in 2006 from Mississippi State. In the fall of 2015, he earned a doctorate in instructional systems and workforce development from Mississippi State.

BOBBY BLICK

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Bobby Blick is in his second season as the Giants' defensive assistant.

Blick came to the Giants from the Army West Point Football staff, where he was the director of player personnel in 2016.

Prior to his arrival at West Point, Blick served as special teams coordinator and director of recruiting at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala.

As special teams coordinator in 2015, Blick was a part of outstanding kickoff and kickoff return units that finished first in the Southern Conference. The kickoff return team was fifth in the nation. Blick's punt and punt return units finished third in the conference.

Samford signed the Southern Conference's top-ranked recruiting class in 2016, when Blick was the school's director of recruiting.

In his first season at Samford in 2014, Blick coached the tight ends and slot receivers.

Blick went to Samford from Georgia Institute of Technology, where he served as the special teams quality control coach during the spring of 2014.

Prior to working at Georgia Tech, Blick coached at Elon University, working with the team's tight ends and running backs from 2011-13.

Blick was an offensive graduate assistant at North Carolina State from 2008-10. During his tenure there, the Wolfpack made two bowl appearances, including a 23-7 win over West Virginia University in the 2010 Champs Sports Bowl. That season, N.C. State ranked third in the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring offense, averaging 31.8 points per game, and was fourth in total offense, averaging 338.5 yards per outing. Blick was also an undergraduate assistant at N.C. State from 2004 to 2007.

Blick graduated from N.C. State in 2007 with a degree in political science and a concentration in secondary education.

JOE DANOS

PERFORMANCE MANAGER /
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Joe Danos is in his sixth season as the Giants' performance manager and assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Danos came to the Giants from Florida State University, where he spent three seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the football team. Danos joined the Seminoles' staff in January 2010, following head strength and conditioning coach Vic Voloria from Southern Methodist University, where he spent the previous three years (2007-09) serving as his top assistant.

Prior to his SMU stint, Danos spent two years as an assistant strength coach at Louisiana State University, working with football and several Olympic sports under the direction of Tom Moffitt. A graduate of LSU with a degree in kinesiology, Danos worked as a student assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Tigers from 2000-04.

Danos also worked for five years as an assistant weightlifting coach to Gayle Hatch, the 2004 USA head Olympic weightlifting coach. Before joining Hatch's staff, Danos competed on the national level for the Gayle Hatch Weightlifting Team in Baton Rouge, where he was a two-time national champion. Danos won the 1996 National Junior Championship and the 1996 AAU Junior Olympic Championship.

Danos grew up in New Orleans, where he attended John Curtis Christian High School.

GARY EMANUEL

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Gary Emanuel, a 37-year coaching veteran, is in his first season as the Giants' defensive line coach.

Emanuel spent the previous six seasons as the defensive line coach of the Indianapolis Colts. In 2017, Emanuel's group included former Giants tackle Johnathan Hankins, who recorded 44 tackles and two sacks.

In 2016, Emanuel led a group that relied on an influx of youth after veterans Kendall Langford and Arthur Jones were lost due to injury. Emanuel assisted with the development of second-year defensive tackles Henry Anderson, David Parry and T.Y. McGill, who all saw extended playing time. The unit also received contribution from rookie fourth-round draft choice Hassan Ridgeway.

The previous season, Emanuel coached one of the youngest position groups on the team. The unit was led by Langford, who, in his first season with Indianapolis, started all 16 games and had a career-high 7.0 sacks, which tied for the team lead. Emanuel was instrumental in the development of rookies Anderson and Parry, who combined for 78 tackles (54 solo), 2.0 sacks and 9.0 tackles for loss.

In 2014, Emanuel guided a unit that recorded 263 tackles and 22.5 sacks, while overcoming the loss of outside linebacker Robert Mathis to injury, who led the NFL in sacks in 2013.

Emanuel coached a 2013 defensive line that contributed with 31.0 of the team's 42.0 sacks, which tied for fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL. Mathis earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl selection after leading the NFL in sacks (19.5) and forced fumbles (eight). Emanuel also helped tutor two Colts draft choices - first-round selection Bjoern Werner and fourth-rounder Montori Hughes.

Emanuel joined the Colts following his second stint at Purdue University. He was the defensive line coach and shared the role of defensive coordinator in 2010 before fully taking over as coordinator the following year. In his first season back at Purdue, Emanuel mentored a defense that finished first in the Big Ten in both sacks (33.0) and tackles for loss (91.0), while also helping to improve Purdue's rushing defense that finished last in the conference in 2009 to sixth in 2010.

He previously was an assistant with the Boilermakers from 1997-2004, coaching defensive tackles (1997-99) and defensive ends (2000-04), and serving as an assistant head coach in 2003-04.

Emanuel was instrumental in the development of All-America Ryan Kerrigan in 2010, when the defensive end led the nation in tackles for loss, led the conference in sacks and earned Big Ten Defensive Player and Lineman of the Year honors, as well as the first unanimous All-America recognition by a Boilermaker defender in school history.

In 2005-06, Emanuel coached the defensive line for the San Francisco 49ers. He made a one-year stop at San Jose State University (2007) prior to joining the Rutgers University coaching staff as the defensive line coach from 2008-09.

As a collegiate coach, Emanuel mentored more than 20 players who went on to play in the NFL, and he was a part of 14 teams that played in bowl games, including nine at Purdue.

Emanuel was one of 26 coaches invited to participate in the NCAA's annual Expert Coaches Academy in 2007. He has had five internships/fellowships with NFL teams, including the Buffalo Bills (1992), Chicago Bears (1995), Cleveland Browns (1999), Arizona Cardinals (2000) and Oakland Raiders (2001).

Emanuel was a defensive line coach at Washington State University from 1994-96. In 1994, the Cougars ranked second in the NCAA in total defense (229.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (12.1 points per game.) From 1991-93, he served in the same capacity at Syracuse University, helping the defense rank 11th and fifth in the NCAA in 1991 and 1992, respectively.

Emanuel was an assistant coach at Dartmouth College from 1988-1991, the University of Massachusetts from 1986-88, West Chester University from 1985-86 and at Plymouth State University from 1981-84. He also served as Plymouth State's head basketball coach from 1983-85.

A native of New London, Conn., Emanuel attended Westchester Community College in Valhalla, N.Y., from 1976-78. He started at offensive guard both years, serving as team co-captain and earning first-team NCSA All-America honors as a freshman. Emanuel played in the 1977 Junior College Coastal Conference All-Star game. He then moved on to Plymouth State to earn a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1982 while playing football for two seasons.

Emanuel is married to his wife, Angela.

HAL HUNTER

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Hal Hunter, who has 35 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and professional levels, is in his first season as the Giants' offensive line coach.

Hunter's most recent NFL coaching stint was as the Cleveland Browns' offensive line coach in 2016, when left tackle Joe Thomas was selected to the last of his 10 consecutive Pro Bowls.

Before moving to Cleveland, Hunter spent three seasons (2013-15) with the Indianapolis Colts, serving as assistant offensive line coach for two years before spending his final season as offensive line coach. In 2015, the line paved the way for Frank Gore to rush for 967 yards, the most by a Colts running back since 2007. During Hunter's final two seasons, Indianapolis finished in the top-15 in sacks allowed, despite injuries plaguing the unit that forced the team to have 11 different starting lineups in 2014.

Before joining the Chargers, Hunter spent 24 years coaching at the collegiate level, including a four-year stint at the University of North Carolina as the offensive line coach (2002-05). He also spent two seasons at Indiana University as offensive coordinator (2000-01). With the Hoosiers, Hunter coached Big Ten Player of the Year Antwaan Randle El, who posted 1,783 passing yards, 1,270 rushing yards and 23 combined touchdowns in 2000.

Hunter coached at Louisiana State University, where he served as assistant head coach and later interim head coach in 1999, following four seasons as the school's offensive line coach. His other collegiate coaching stops include Vanderbilt University (1991-94), University of Akron (1987-90), Indiana University of Pennsylvania (1986), Columbia University (1985), University of Pittsburgh (1983-84) and College of William & Mary (1982).

Born in Canonsburg, Pa., Hunter was a standout in football and wrestling at Belle Vernon (Pa.) High School. He was a Dean's List student at Northwestern and graduated with honors, earning a degree in communications and economics. Hunter's football career with the Wildcats ended prematurely in 1978 due to injury, but he remained with the team, working with the offensive line and serving as the assistant strength coach.

Hunter and his wife, Tracy, have two sons, Hal T. and Andrew. His father (Hal Sr.) was involved with football for more than 50 years, including the last 25 in the NFL. He coached for the Colts, Steelers and Browns, and finished his career in pro personnel with the Panthers.

CRAIG JOHNSON

RUNNING BACKS COACH

Craig Johnson is in his fifth season as the Giants' running backs coach, his 19th coaching in the NFL, and his 35th as a football coach.

In 2017, Johnson was instrumental in the development of Wayne Gallman. A fourth-round draft choice, Gallman finished second on the team with 476 rushing yards, and fifth with 34 receptions.

The previous year, Johnson tutored fifth-round selection Paul Perkins, who was second on the team with 112 carries for 456 yards. Perkins had personal season-high rushing totals in each of the last five games: 38 at Pittsburgh, 45 vs. Dallas, 56 yards vs. Detroit, 68 at Philadelphia, and 102 in Washington, where he also had a season-high 21 carries. Perkins made his first career start vs. the Redskins, and became the first Giants back to rush for at least 100 yards since Rashad Jennings ran for 170 yards in the 2015 season finale vs. the Eagles.

In 2015, Jennings and Shane Vereen had career years under Johnson.

Jennings led the Giants with 195 carries for 863 yards (both career-high totals), and three touchdowns. Jennings' 863 yards were the highest total by a Giants back since Ahmad Bradshaw ran for 1,015 yards in 2012. Vereen was second on the team in rushing (260 yards on 61 carries), and receiving (59 catches for 494 yards and four touchdowns, all career-high totals).

In his first season with the Giants in 2014, Johnson welcomed two backfield newcomers, Jennings and rookie Andre Williams, who helped the team average 100.3 rushing yards a game, a 16.9-yard improvement over the team's output the previous season.

Williams played in all 16 games and led the Giants with 217 rushing attempts, 721 yards and seven touchdowns. He was the first rookie to lead the Giants in rushing since Joe Montgomery in 1999 with 348 yards. Williams' 721 yards are the highest total by a Giants rookie since Ron Dayne had 770 in 2000.

Prior to joining the Giants' staff, Johnson spent three seasons as the Minnesota Vikings' quarterbacks coach. In 2013, injuries led to three different quarterbacks starting at least one game for the Vikings, with both Matt Cassel and Christian Ponder playing in nine games. Cassel, in his first season with the Vikings, led the team with 1,807 passing yards, 11 touchdown passes and an 81.6 passer rating.

Ponder played the best football of his career during a four-game winning streak to close the 2012 season that enabled Minnesota to earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth with a 10-6 record.

In the regular-season finale that clinched a spot in the postseason, Ponder threw for three touchdowns and posted a career-high 120.2 passer rating in a victory over Green Bay. Ponder did not throw an interception in the final three games, completed at least 70 percent of his passes in five games, and had four games with a passer rating of 100.0 or better.

Johnson's first year with Minnesota in 2011 was also the rookie season for Ponder, the team's first-round draft choice that year. Under Johnson's tutelage, Ponder threw for 1,853 yards and 13 touchdowns in 11 games. Ponder also finished the season with eight touchdown passes and only one interception in the red zone, where he had a league-leading 114.3 passer rating.

Johnson was the Tennessee Titans' quarterbacks coach from 2002-09, when Steve McNair, Vince Young and Kerry Collins all had Pro Bowl seasons under his direction. McNair was the NFL's Co-Most Valuable Player (with Peyton Manning) in 2003 and Young was voted the 2006 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. In 2008, Collins was pressed into action after Young suffered an injury in the season opener and responded by completing 58.3 percent of his passes, leading the team to a 12-3 record as the starter and returning to the Pro Bowl. McNair earned Pro Bowl honors in 2000, 2003 and 2005.

During Johnson's tenure with Tennessee, the team won three AFC South titles and made the playoffs five times with three different starting quarterbacks. In 2010, Johnson was promoted to assistant head coach/running backs after a late-presseason staff shuffle. That year, Pro Bowler Chris Johnson ran for 1,364 yards and led the team with 44 catches.

In his first two years in Tennessee — 2000 and 2001 Johnson was the Titans' offensive quality control and quarterbacks coach.

Before joining the Titans staff, Johnson coached on the collegiate level for 17 years (1983-99) as a quarterbacks coach at the University of Maryland (1997-99), Northwestern University (1992-96), Virginia Military Institute (1989-91), and running backs coach at Rutgers University (1986-88) and Army (1985). Johnson was a graduate assistant in 1983 (University of Wyoming) and 1984 (University of Arkansas). He coached the Maryland quarterbacks and was the team's offensive coordinator in 1997-98. During his five seasons at Northwestern, Johnson helped the Wildcats win consecutive Big Ten titles for the first time in school history in 1995-96. The 1995 Wildcats posted the school's first winning season since 1971 and earned their first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1949. Johnson's pupil, QB Steve Schnur, was a first-team All-Big Ten honoree and the Big Ten Most Valuable Player runner-up in 1996.

Johnson came to Northwestern from VMI, where he was quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator and helped the school lead the nation in rushing in 1991. Johnson coached the running backs at Rutgers for three seasons after a one-year stint at Army as a part-time assistant working with the fullbacks. Johnson broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, University of Wyoming, in 1983.

Johnson and wife, Darlene, have two daughters, Shelby and Sydney.

ROB LEONARD

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS COACH

Rob Leonard is in his sixth season on the Giants' coaching staff, and his first as the team's assistant linebackers coach.

Leonard was the team's assistant defensive line coach in 2017. He spent his first four seasons with the Giants as a defensive assistant.

In 2016, Leonard was part of a staff that coached the most-improved defense in the NFL. The unit allowed 158 fewer points and 1,290 fewer yards than it did in 2015. The Giants allowed an NFL-low 25 offensive touchdowns and surrendered less than 20 points eight times, their highest total since 2008, when they also did it eight times. They also had 35 sacks, 12 more than they had in 2015.

Leonard came to the Giants from North Carolina State University, where he was a graduate assistant the previous three seasons.

Leonard began his coaching career in 2009 as a defensive assistant at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, N.C.

Leonard played three seasons at N.C. State after playing the 2004 season at Division III Washington & Jefferson College. The following year, he walked on with the Wolfpack and earned a scholarship while redshirting. In 2006, Leonard played in all 12 games on special teams and was second on the team with 13 special teams stops.

Leonard saw action from scrimmage in eight games at free safety and played on special teams in the other four contests in 2007. He ranked third on the team with 219 special teams snaps and second with 10 special teams tackles.

In 2008, the former walk-on was the Wolfpack's starting strongside linebacker and leading tackler with 95. His 801 snaps were the highest total on the team. Leonard tied for third in the ACC in fumbles recovered with three. He led the team with a season-high 13 tackles vs. Florida State and tied for the team lead with 11 against Miami. He got his first career interception, which he returned 23 yards, vs. North Carolina. Leonard was the recipient of the team's Mike Hardy Award, given to the player who plays beyond his capabilities.

Leonard was a four-year letterman at Moon High School in Moon Township, Pa. As a senior, he gained more than 1,500 all-purpose yards and scored 14 touchdowns. Leonard had a team-high seven interceptions and was a unanimous first-team all-conference selection after playing running back, defensive back, kick returner and punter. He was a second-team all-state cornerback.

Leonard and his wife, Anna, have two young sons, Bo and Luke.

POSTSEASON

BILL MCGOVERN
LINEBACKERS COACH

Bill McGovern, who has more than three decades of coaching experience, is in his third season as the Giants' linebackers coach, and his sixth year in the NFL.

In 2017, he helped develop young backers B.J. Goodson and Calvin Munson, who together accounted for 108 tackles despite missing a combined 11 games because of injuries. In 2016, the linebackers contributed significantly to the NFL's most-improved defense. Jonathan Casillas, voted the Giants' defensive captain by his teammates, finished second on the team with 92 tackles (59 solo).

Prior to joining the Giants, McGovern spent three seasons as the Philadelphia Eagles' outside linebackers coach. In 2015, starters Connor Barwin and Brandon Graham were two of Philadelphia's most productive and consistent defenders. Barwin started all 16 games and finished with 54 tackles (44 solo), including 7.0 sacks, the team's second-highest total. Graham played all 16 games and had 51 tackles (39 solo), and was right behind Barwin with 6.5 sacks.

In 2014, Barwin was the first Eagles linebacker selected to the Pro Bowl since 2005 (Jeremiah Trotter). Barwin earned second-team All-Pro honors with an NFC-leading 14.5 sacks.

McGovern joined the Eagles in 2013 after a 13-year stint — his second at the school — as Boston College's linebacker coach, including the last four as defensive coordinator. He coached two linebackers who were named ACC Defensive Player of the Year: Mark Herzlich, who has played for the Giants since 2011, and Luke Kuechly, who was also the recipient of the Bronco Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player.

Under McGovern's guidance in 2010, Boston College led the nation in rushing defense (82.8 yards per game) and led the ACC in total defense (309.7 yards per game). Nationally, the unit ranked 13th in total defense, and 19th in scoring defense (19.5 points per game).

In 2009, McGovern's first season as coordinator, the Eagles' defense ranked second in the ACC, and 14th in the country, by allowing 103.2 rushing yards a game. That defense also ranked 19th in the nation in points allowed (19.8 per game).

McGovern arrived at Boston College in 2000 after spending the previous three seasons at the University of Pittsburgh as the defensive backs coach — a position he held at BC from 1994-96.

McGovern also coached on the collegiate level at Pittsburgh, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, and his alma mater, College of the Holy Cross, which was 11-0 when he was on the staff in 1991.

A four-year starter in the secondary at Holy Cross, McGovern set the single-season (11), and career (24) records for interceptions for Division I-AA at the time. As a senior captain, he was a consensus All-America. McGovern was elected to the Holy Cross Hall of Fame in 1996.

McGovern is one of nine children, including seven brothers, of Howard and Terry, who are both enshrined in the Hall of Fame at Bergen Catholic High School, where Bill was a star. The school is located about 20 minutes from MetLife Stadium. McGovern was elected to the Bergen County All-Century Football Team.

McGovern and his wife, Colleen, have three daughters: Amanda, Delainey and Mackenzie.

PRATIK PATEL

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE NUTRITION/
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pratik Patel is in his second season as the Giants' Director of Performance Nutrition/Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Patel came to the Giants from the University of Oregon, where he was the Athletic Department's Director of Sports Nutrition since October 2014. Patel's job was to develop and direct the Sports Nutrition Department and manage the daily nutrition needs for 18 athletic teams and sports.

Prior to his arrival at Oregon, he acted as the Sports Dietitian to the Michigan State University Athletic Department serving 23 teams and 720 athletes.

Patel is originally from Shawnee, Kansas and went on to receive his undergraduate degree in Dietetics and Master's in Kinesiology from Kansas State University, where he also acted as the Sports Dietitian for the Men's Basketball team. He began his career in sports as an intern learning from the staff at the Houston Texans, Kansas City Chiefs and Royals, and at the University of Kansas.

Patel is a Registered Dietitian and board Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics (CSSD) through the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (AND) as well as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

TOM QUINN
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Tom Quinn is in his 13th consecutive season as a member of the Giants' coaching staff. This year he is an assistant special teams coach, the position he held in his first season with the team in 2006. In 2007, Quinn became the Giants' special teams coordinator, a position he held through the 2017 season.

Last year, first-year kicker Aldrick Rosas made 18 of 25 field goal attempts, 20 of 23 extra point tries, and led the Giants with 74 points. Rosas made all three of his attempts from 50 or more yards, succeeding from 50, 51, and 52 yards. His three field goals of at least 50 yards put him in a five-way for the most by a Giants kicker in a single season. Josh Brown holds the record with four in 2014.

In 2016, the 11-5 Giants received significant contributions from several of Quinn's special teams players.

Kickers Brown and Robbie Gould combined to make 21 of 22 field goal attempts, a team-record 95.5 percent success rate. The previous mark of 93.8 percent was set in 2015.

Gould joined the team on Oct. 20 and made all 10 of his field goal attempts in the regular season, increasing his streak to 17 in a row dating back to 2015, when he played for the Chicago Bears. He also hit both of his field goal attempts (from 26 and 40 yards) in the NFC Wild Card Game in Green Bay to improve to a perfect 12 for 12 with the Giants and eight for eight in his postseason career.

In his second season with the Giants, Brad Wing punted 93 times for a 40.9-yard net average that was a single-season Giants record. He broke the former mark of 40.2 yards, set by Jeff Feagles in 2008.

The Giants' net punting average of 40.9 yards was their highest since it became an official statistic in 1976.

Wing was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for Weeks 14 and 15 for his outstanding play in victories vs. Dallas and Detroit. He was first Giants player to win back-to-back Special Teams Player of the Week awards since they were instituted in 1984.

In a 10-7 victory against the Cowboys, Wing tied his season high with nine punts and had a 43.2-yard gross average and a 42.9-yard net average, with a long punt of 57 yards. Five of his kicks were downed inside the 20-yard line. Dallas totaled 3 yards on 3 punt returns.

One week later, in a 17-6 victory vs. the Lions, Wing was honored again after he had a 41.0-yard net average on seven punts, including one that was partially blocked and travelled only 18 yards. With the Lions trying to mount a comeback in the second half, Wing booted three consecutive punts that forced them to take possession at their own three, four, and 19-yard lines. Detroit totaled just 11 punt return yards, and scored three points on seven possessions following Wing's punts.

Wayne Harris was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the Giants in kickoff and punt returns for the second straight season. He finished fifth in the NFL with a 24.2-yard average on 22 kickoff returns, and he averaged 5.9 yards on 29 punt returns.

In two seasons with the Giants, Harris has a 26.5-yard average on 44 kickoff returns. That places him fourth on the franchise's career list (minimum 40 returns), behind Rocky Thompson (27.2), Joe Scott (27.2), and David Wilson (26.6).

Harris and long-snapper Zak DeOssie tied for the team lead with 7 special teams tackles.

The Giants blocked two field goal attempts in 2016. Pro Bowl cornerback Janoris Jenkins was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his game-turning play in a victory against New Orleans on Sept. 18, when Johnathan Hankins blocked a 38-yard try by New Orleans' Wil Lutz. Jenkins picked up the ball and returned it 65 yards for a touchdown. Jason Pierre-Paul blocked Caleb Sturgis' 40-yard field goal attempt with 1:07 remaining in the second quarter vs. Philadelphia on Nov. 6.

In 2015, Quinn's units finished second in the Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive ranking of the NFL's special teams. The Giants were seventh in the league with a 10.2-yard punt return average, and 10th with a 24.9-yard kickoff return average. They were fifth in the NFL in kickoff coverage, allowing just 20.3 yards per return.

In his first season with the Giants, Harris finished third in the NFL with a 28.7-yard average on 22 kickoff returns, including a 100-yard runback vs. Dallas on Oct. 25. Harris was seventh in the NFL with a 10.0-yard average on 34 punt returns, including an 80-yard touchdown against the Jets. Harris was the third player in Giants history with kickoff and punt return touchdowns in the same season, and the first to do it since 1955.

Brown played in his first Pro Bowl after scoring 134 points, the highest total of his 14-year career. Brown made 30 of 32 field goal attempts in 2015, a franchise-record 93.8 percent success rate.

Wing, obtained in a trade with Pittsburgh prior to the season, placed 33 kicks inside the 20-yard line, tying the team record set by Brad Maynard in 1997 and 1998.

In 2014, the Giants' kickoff coverage team ranked second in the NFL, holding opponents to an average return of just 18.3 yard. Brown made 24 of 26 field goal attempts, a 92.3 percent success rate that was the highest in Giants history until he topped it last season.

Quinn's special teams finished seventh in the Dallas Morning News' rankings in 2012. That season, the Giants led the NFL with five special teams takeaways. Their average drive start following a kickoff was at the 25.2 yard line, which led the NFL. Rookie David Wilson set a franchise record with 1,533 kickoff return yards.

Quinn's special teams underwent significant changes in the Giants' 2011 championship season. Steve Weatherford became the team's punter. Aaron Ross was the most frequently-used punt returner and Devin Thomas and rookies Da'Rel Scott and Jerrel Jerinigan combined for 47 kickoff returns. The three leading special teams tacklers — rookies Jacquan Williams (17) and Tyler Sash (15) and veteran Derrick Martin (12) — were newcomers.

In 2010, Zak DeOssie, the snapper on both punts and placekicks, was selected to his second Pro Bowl in three seasons. The Giants' kickoff coverage unit was ranked fourth in the NFL, allowing an average return of only 19.7 yards.

The Giants benefited from outstanding play by Quinn's special teams in 2009. Lawrence Tynes led the Giants and was fifth in the NFL in scoring with 126 points. With Domenik Hixon doing the bulk of the work, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with a 10.9-yard punt return average. On Oct. 18 at New Orleans, Hixon had 303 total yards, shattering Joe Scott's 61-year-old franchise record by 24 yards. The total included 230 kickoff return and 51 punt return yards. Opposing teams averaged only 21.0 yards per kickoff return, the NFL's eighth-best figure.

In 2008, three of the Giants' special teams players — kicker John Carney, Feagles and DeOssie — played for the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Carney was signed just prior to the season because Tynes was sidelined with an injury. Quinn quickly integrated Carney into the kicking unit and the veteran succeeded on 35 of 38 field goals attempts (92.1 percent). Carney's 35 field goals tied the team single-season record, which he shares with Ali Haji-Sheikh (1983) and Jay Feely (2005).

That season, Feagles had a gross average of 44.0 yards and a career-high net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards all season and were ranked third in the NFL in punt coverage, giving up an average of only 5.9 yards a return.

The special teams overcame adversity and performed well in Quinn's first season as coordinator in 2007, when the Giants won Super Bowl XLII. Long-snapper Ryan Kuehl suffered a season-ending injury in training camp, and the Giants used rookie snappers Jay Alford (on placekicks) and DeOssie (for punts) the entire year. Tynes made 23 of 27 field goal attempts (85.2 percent), plus a game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay.

Quinn employed three kickoff returners — Ahmad Bradshaw, Reuben Droughns and Hixon — and the Giants finished seventh in the NFL with a 23.9-yard average. The coverage teams were also strong; Giants opponents averaged only 6.2 yards on 28 punt returns.

Quinn, 49, coached in the collegiate ranks for 15 years before joining the Giants.

He grew up in Southern California, where he played at Foothill High School in Tustin. From 1986-90, Quinn was a linebacker at the University of Arizona, where he played on three bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 1990 and a master's in education the following year.

Quinn and his wife, Alison, have a son, Shane, and two daughters, Logan and Riley.

RYAN ROEDER

QUALITY CONTROL/OFFENSE

Ryan Roeder is in his sixth season as the Giants' offensive assistant coach.

Roeder came to the Giants from Princeton University, where he served as tight ends coach and directed the kickoff return and punt return units. In 2012, he helped tight end Mark Hayes earn All-Ivy League honors.

In 2009, Roeder coached the wide receivers at the University of Rhode Island, assisting Shawn Leonard in leading the Colonial Athletic Association in touchdown receptions and earning All-CAA League honors.

From 2006-08, Roeder was the offensive graduate assistant at Temple University. Prior to his position at Temple, he served as running backs coach at the University at Albany (2005) and assistant offensive line coach at the College of the Holy Cross (2004).

As a player, Roeder was named first-team All-Northeast Conference quarterback (2002) and served as team captain leading Albany to the 2002 NEC and Eastern College Athletic Conference championships. He passed for 1,366 yards as a senior with eight passing and eight rushing touchdowns. Roeder ranks third on the career passing list and fifth in total offense in the school's record books.

Roeder received his undergraduate degree in a dual major of communications and psychology in 2002, and earned a master's degree in educational administration from the University at Albany in 2009.

THOMAS STALLWORTH

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Thomas Stallworth is in his first season as the Giants' assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Stallworth came to the Giants from Western Kentucky University, where he spent the 2017 season as the football program's head strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to his stint at WKU, Stallworth spent one season as the head strength and conditioning coach at Fresno State University. Prior to Fresno State, Stallworth spent time at Texas Tech University after a season at North Carolina State.

Stallworth was the associate strength and conditioning coach for three seasons at Mississippi State. That included the best season in the program in 2014, when the Bulldogs rose to No. 1 in the Associated Press poll behind the play of quarterback Dak Prescott and earned their first Orange Bowl berth since 1941.

While Stallworth was at Mississippi State University, 12 Bulldogs were drafted into the NFL, seven of them in the first three rounds, including 2012 Jim Thorpe Award winner Johnathan Banks and 2016 NFL second-team All-Pro Bernardick McKinney. It was there that Stallworth coached former Giants linebacker Deonte Stallworth.

From the 2015 N.C. State team Stallworth worked with, three players were drafted, including quarterback Jacoby Brissett and defensive tackle B.J. Hill, one of the Giants' third-round choices this year.

Stallworth previously worked as the head strength coach at FCS schools Grambling State (2008-11) and South Carolina State University (2004-08). One of his players at Grambling State was former Giants tight end Larry Donnell.

Stallworth was a linebacker at the University of Tennessee from 1997-2001, a period in which the Volunteers played in five bowl games and won the 1998 national championship.

Stallworth earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Tennessee in 2001 before earning his masters from the school in sports administration in 2004. He is currently pursuing his doctorate degree in sport psychology and sports science from the University of the Rockies. Stallworth is married to the former Ingrid Garvin, and the couple has two children, India and Thomas III.

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Tyke Tolbert, a 15-year NFL coaching veteran is in his first season coaching the Giants' wide receivers, a position he previously held with Arizona, Buffalo, Carolina, and Denver.

Tolbert spent the previous seven years with the Broncos, who won Super Bowl 50 in February 2016.

From 2012-16 one of Tolbert's Denver standouts, Demaryius Thomas, had at least 90 catches and 1,000 receiving yards in every year to join Pro Football Hall of Famer Marvin Harrison (5) and Torry Holt (6) as the only players to reach those marks in at least five consecutive seasons. Thomas was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of those seasons. Last year, Thomas was tied for 11th in the NFL with 83 receptions, for 949 yards and five touchdowns.

Tolbert was also instrumental in the continued development of Emmanuel Sanders, who signed with the Broncos in 2014 and then made his first two Pro Bowls (2014, '16) and produced the first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons of his career.

Thomas and Sanders formed one of the best wide receiver duos in the league during the previous four seasons. In 2016, Thomas (1,083) and Sanders (1,032) each topped 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive year to become just the seventh pair of wide receivers in NFL history to accomplish that feat as teammates.

In 2015, Thomas (1,304 yards) and Sanders (1,135) turned in a productive year despite the Broncos using multiple starters at quarterback. Denver's receiving group also featured veteran Jordan Norwood (22 receptions, 207 yards) and first-year Pro Bennie Fowler (16, 203) to the passing attack finish 14th in the NFL in a season that ended with Denver's championship.

Tolbert coached the NFL's top wide receiver tandem in 2014, when Thomas (111-1,619, 11 touchdowns) and Sanders (101-1,404, nine touchdowns) combined for the most receptions (212) and receiving yards (3,023) by an NFL duo. Thomas' 1,619 receiving yards set a franchise single-season record as the fifth-year player earned his third career Pro Bowl selection and joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Jerry Rice and Harrison as the only receivers in NFL history with three consecutive 1,400-yard, 10-touchdown seasons. Thomas' 2014 campaign included a team-record seven consecutive 100-yard receiving games and a 226-yard output against Arizona in Week 5 that represented the highest single-game total in club history.

Sanders was named to his first Pro Bowl in 2014 after posting the fourth-most receiving yards (1,404) and fifth-most catches (101) in league history by a player in his first year with a new team.

In 2013, Tolbert coached a unit that produced three players with 10-plus touchdowns (Thomas — 14; Eric Decker — 11; Wes Welker — 10) along with two 1,000-yard performers (Thomas — 1,430; Decker — 1,288) as Denver set the NFL's single-season scoring record with 606 points.

Thomas, whose 14 receiving scores in 2013 tied a franchise record, earned his second career

Pro Bowl honor and was named a second-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press. Thomas and Decker became just the second pair of teammates (Cris Carter/Randy Moss, Minn. — 1998-99) to post 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns each in consecutive seasons. Welker set a career high with 10 touchdowns, including at least one in an NFL-record six straight games to begin a season with a new team.

Denver's 2012 wide receiver group helped Denver's fifth-ranked passing offense score at least 30 points in a team-record 11 games. Third-year wideouts Decker and Thomas became the youngest tandem in NFL history to record 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns each in a season, while veteran Brandon Stokley became one of 10 players in league annals to post 40 receptions and five touchdowns after the age of 36.

Thomas and Decker emerged as solid targets under Tolbert's instruction in 2011, combining for 76 receptions for 1,163 yards (15.3-yard avg.) and 12 touchdowns in Denver's run-heavy offense led by quarterback Tim Tebow.

In Buffalo, Tolbert helped wide receiver Lee Evans become one of the most productive receivers in Bills history. Evans led all NFL rookies in 2004 with nine touchdown receptions and a 17.6-yard average per catch.

In Tolbert's only season with the Cardinals in 2003, Anquan Boldin earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and set an NFL-rookie record with 101 catches for 1,377 yards, the second most by a rookie in league history.

Tolbert's first professional coaching experience was in the NFL's Minority Internship Program with the Detroit Lions during training camp in 1997, and again in the Cardinals' camp in 2001.

Tolbert began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Louisiana State University in the spring of 1994 and Northeast Louisiana that fall. He coached wide receivers at Ohio in the spring of 1995, before returning that fall to Northeast Louisiana University, where he tutored the team's tight ends for three seasons.

After coaching tight ends at Auburn in 1998, Tolbert spent the next three years (1999-2001) as the wide receivers coach/recruiting coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette. He served as the tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator at Florida in 2002, before making the jump to the NFL the following season.

A wide receiver, Tolbert was a three-year letterman at LSU. The Conroe, Texas native graduated from LSU with bachelor's and master's degrees.

Tolbert and his wife, Linda, have two daughters, Morgan and Madison.

DESHEA TOWNSEND

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Deshea Townsend, a former 13-year NFL player, is in his first season as the Giants' assistant defensive back coach and his fifth season as an NFL coach.

Townsend spent the previous two years as the Tennessee Titans' secondary backs coach. In 2017, Titans safety Kevin Byard tied Detroit's Darius Slay with an NFL-best eight interceptions. Byard was also third on the team with 87 tackles (62 solo).

The previous season, Townsend's secondary intercepted 10 passes and had 71 passes defended as multiple players earned significant playing time.

From 2013-15, Townsend was the cornerbacks coach at Mississippi State. In 2014, Townsend helped the Bulldogs defense lead the nation in passes defended (89), passes broken up (73) and were ranked 15th nationally in interceptions with 15. In 2013, the Bulldogs defense ranked fifth in the SEC in passing defense, allowing only 205.2 yards through the air.

Townsend was the Arizona Cardinals' assistant defensive backs coach in 2011-12.

Townsend played 191 games with 80 starts for Pittsburgh (1998-2009) and Indianapolis (2010), tallied 21 interceptions, 428 tackles, 15.5 sacks, three touchdowns, five fumble recoveries and four forced fumbles. He was on the Steelers teams that defeated Seattle in Super Bowl XL and Arizona in Super Bowl XLIII. Townsend played six seasons (2004-09) with Pro Football Hall of Famer Dick LeBeau as the defensive coordinator.

Townsend won two Super Bowls (XL and XLIII) as a player with the Steelers.

Townsend was a four-year starter and a captain at the University of Alabama and was a fourth-round draft choice by the Steelers in 1998.

Born in Batesville, Miss., Townsend played quarterback for South Panola High School and as a senior led his school to the 5A state championship game in 1992.

LUNDA WELLS

TIGHT ENDS COACH

Lunda Wells is in his seventh season on the Giants' coaching staff and his first as the team's tight ends coach.

Wells spent the previous five seasons as the team's assistant offensive line coach, first under Pat Flaherty and then Mike Solari. In 2017, Wells helped tutor a line that was constantly in transition. The Giants used 10 different starting combinations, their highest single-season total since the 1970 merger. That was the NFL's third-highest total in 2017 behind Detroit and Green Bay, which each used 11.

In 2016, the Giants allowed 22 sacks — five fewer than the total surrendered in 2015 — the third-lowest total in the league after Oakland (18) and Pittsburgh (21).

The previous year, the line helped the Giants finish eighth in the NFL with an average of 372.3 yards per game, despite using seven different starting combinations. The team was seventh in the NFL with 271.7 passing yards per game. The Giants scored 420 points in 2015, the fifth-highest total in franchise history, and their 5,956 net yards were the third-highest total in their history. With the line providing consistent protection, Eli Manning set a single-season franchise record with 387 completions, and his 4,432 yards and 35 touchdown passes were both the second-highest totals in Giants history.

In 2014, the line helped the Giants gain an average of 367.2 yards a game, a 59.7 yards per game improvement over their 2013 average of 307.5.

Wells helped the line overcome a series of injuries in 2013, when the Giants were forced to use seven different starting line combinations, the second-highest total in the NFL; Oakland used eight.

Wells joined the Giants in 2012 as an offensive quality control coach. He also helped coach the wide receivers that season. In 2012, the Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history.

Before joining the Giants' staff, Wells spent four seasons at Louisiana State University. In 2008-09, he was an offensive line assistant. In addition to his practice and game day duties working with the offensive line, Wells' administrative responsibilities included self-scouting, breaking down tape of opponents and developing scouting reports.

In his final two years at LSU, Wells was an assistant to the head coach and an assistant to special teams coach Thomas McGaughey, who was a member of the Giants' coaching staff from 2007-10. Wells worked with LSU head coach Les Miles on game day responsibilities, practice preparation, administrative tasks and recruiting duties, and with McGaughey on self-scouting, breaking down tape of opponents, assisting with the game plan and scouting reports.

In 2010, Wells was an offensive line intern in the Dallas Cowboys' training camp, where he worked alongside coach Hudson Houck.

Wells was the offensive line coach, run game coordinator and head strength and conditioning coach at Scotlandville High School in Baton Rouge, La. in 2006-07. He coached the offensive line and devised the offensive run game plans.

An offensive lineman, Wells played in the Arena Football League for the Grand Rapids Rampage, South Georgia Rampage and Louisiana Swashbucklers.

Wells was a four-year starter at guard at Southern University (2002-05). He was voted to the All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first team in 2002 and 2005. Southern won the 2003 SWAC championship. Wells blocked for two quarterbacks who were named SWAC Player of the Year. In addition to his conference title ring, Wells earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and, in 2007, a master's degree in criminal justice at Southern.

Wells is a native of Baker, La., just outside Baton Rouge. He was a Class 5A first-team all-state offensive line selection at Baker High School. Wells was recruited by powerhouses Alabama and Nebraska.

Wells is married to Tiffany. They have two daughters, Adanya Neema and Zalika Nia.

AARON WELLMAN

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Aaron Wellman is in his third season as the Giants' strength and conditioning coach and third in the NFL following a 20-year career at the Division I collegiate level.

When he arrived in 2016, Wellman significantly changed the Giants' offseason and in-season training regimens, and the result was a substantial decrease in the number of season-ending injuries suffered by Giants players.

Prior to joining the Giants, Wellman was an assistant director of strength and conditioning coach for the University of Notre Dame in 2015.

Wellman spent the previous four years (2011-14) as the director of strength and conditioning at the University of Michigan. He was responsible for the yearly programming of strength, speed and football-specific conditioning. Wellman performed movement screenings to evaluate mobility and stability deficits along with subsequent programs to mitigate individual injury risk. He implemented athlete-monitoring systems including GPS and neuromuscular fatigue assessments.

Prior to his tenure at Michigan, Wellman held similar director positions at San Diego State University (2009-11) and Ball State University (2004-09).

Wellman began his strength and conditioning career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University (1996-98). He then spent three years as a full-time assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Hoosiers, and was primarily involved with the football, baseball and softball teams, as well as developing individual nutrition programs for student-athletes.

Wellman also worked for three years at Michigan State University (2001-03). He was involved with all aspects of the strength and conditioning program for football and assisted with men's and women's basketball and ice hockey.

Wellman is a registered master strength and conditioning coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA), a certified strength and conditioning specialist and personal trainer by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and a specialist in performance nutrition by the International Sports Sciences Association (ISSA).

A native of Ligonier, Indiana, Wellman was a four-year member of the Manchester (Ind.) University football team. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1996. Wellman added separate master's degrees from Indiana University in applied sport science (1998) and nutrition science (2009). In May 2018, he received a doctorate from Bond University (Queensland, Australia), Faculty of Health Sciences and Medicine.

Wellman and his wife, Shellie, have a son, Grant, and a daughter, Grace.

BEN WILKERSON

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Ben Wilkerson is in his first season as the Giants' assistant offensive line coach, the same position he held the previous three seasons for the Chicago Bears.

Wilkerson helped coach an offensive line that paved the way for Jordan Howard to rush for 2,435 yards and 15 touchdowns in the 2016-17 seasons. Last year, the Bears ranked 11th in the NFL with a 4.2-yard average per carry.

In 2016, Howard gained 1,313 yards on the ground, the second-highest total in the NFL that season, and the most by a Bears rookie in franchise history. The Bears offense also ranked third in club single-season history in gross passing yards (4,139) and net passing yards (3,969), and second in passing first downs (212). In his second season, the Bears also saw improvement in yards per game (356.5), yards per play (5.9), rushing yards per play (4.57), passing yards per game (248.1) and sacks per pass attempt (5.01%).

Prior to joining the Bears' coaching staff, Wilkerson had five years of coaching experience at the collegiate and high school levels, as well as three years playing in the NFL.

In 2014, he taught physical education and was an assistant football and track coach for North Shore Senior High School in Houston.

Before his time at North Shore High, Wilkerson spent two seasons as the offensive line coach at Grambling State University (2012-13). He coached with the Pittsburgh Steelers during their 2012 training camp as a part of the Bill Walsh Minority Internship program.

Wilkerson began his coaching career at his alma mater, Louisiana State University, as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010, and then as an offensive administrative intern in 2011.

The Port Arthur, Texas native played in 32 games over three NFL seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals (2006) and Atlanta Falcons (2007-08) after entering the league as an undrafted free agent with the Bengals in 2005. He was also with the Florida Tuskers of the UFL (2009) before beginning his coaching career.

Wilkerson started 41 games at center for LSU over the course of four seasons (2001-04), as the Tigers compiled a 33-8 record during his career. As a senior, he was a co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy, awarded to the top center in college football. During his junior season, the Tigers captured the BCS National Championship as Wilkerson started all 14 games and was one of six finalists for the Rimington Trophy.

KEVIN ABRAMS

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Abrams is in his 20th season with the Giants and his first as the team's vice president of football operations. He remains the team's assistant general manager, a title he has held for 17 years. Abrams was previously the Giants' salary cap analyst for three years.

In 2017, Abrams was the Giants' interim general manager for the final four weeks of the season, a position he assumed after Jerry Reese was relieved of his duties.

Abrams is the team's primary negotiator for player contracts, works with the college and pro personnel departments to evaluate players in preparation for the NFL Draft and free agency, and is responsible for managing the Giants' salary cap, football data analytics, player engagement, related strategic planning for football operations and compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement.

In July of 1999, Abrams was hired to fill the newly-created position of salary cap analyst. He came to the Giants from the NFL Management Council, where he helped to monitor the league-wide salary cap and analyzed all new player contracts with respect to the rules and regulations of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Prior to working at the Management Council, Abrams completed internships and graduate work in player personnel, recruiting, public relations and corporate relations with the Washington Redskins, the Ohio University football program, the Buffalo Bills and the London Monarchs.

Abrams was raised in Toronto, Canada. He completed his undergraduate degree at the University of Western Ontario, and earned his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, where he is currently a member of the Sports Administration Advisory Board.

Kevin and his wife, Sarah-Jane, live in New York City with their three children, Joseph, Grace and Cormac.

MARK KONCZ
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Mark Koncz is in his first season as the Giants' director of player personnel. Koncz first joined the Giants as a personnel consultant prior to the 2018 NFL Draft.

Koncz was a member of the Carolina Panthers' organization from 1994-2017, and was their director of pro scouting from 2000-17. He worked under Giants general manager Dave Gettleman, who held the same position with the Panthers for the four seasons prior to 2017.

Koncz and his pro scouting staff helped the Panthers win three consecutive NFC South titles from 2013-15, and the conference championship and a berth in Super Bowl 50. He and his department evaluated NFL, Canadian and Arena League players in preparation of a need both during the season and in the offseason. When an injury created a need during the season, it was their responsibility to be ready with a list of recommended players to fill that need. Koncz and his staff also recommended veteran players to sign as unrestricted free agents and reserve futures when the roster size increases to 90 players at the end of the season. The pro scouting department helped the Panthers coaches during the season by providing in-depth scouting reports for the Panthers' upcoming opponents.

Koncz began his Carolina career as an intern in the ticketing office in 1994 and moved to football operations the following year. In October 1995, he was promoted to manager of football operations, overseeing the team's travel, budgets and day-to-day activities.

Koncz moved to the pro scouting department in 1998 and was named the director of pro scouting two years later.

Koncz attended Barrington High School in Illinois and was a 1990 graduate of the University of Kansas, where he was a three-year letterman and a three-year starter for the Jayhawks, serving as team captain his senior year. He earned a master's degree in sports administration in May 1994 and joined the Panthers three months later.

Koncz has a daughter, Milena, and son, Nolan.

KEN STERNFELD
DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Ken Sternfeld is in his seventh season as the Giants' director of pro personnel, a position he assumed in 2012 after a 10-year stint as the team's assistant director. Sternfeld and his staff are responsible for scouting the Giants' upcoming opponent and presenting weekly reports to the coaching staff, as well as continually evaluating NFL personnel, including active players and free agents.

Sternfeld joined the Giants on May 12, 2002 after spending 21 years with the New England Patriots in a variety of capacities, primarily in scouting. Prior to joining the Giants, he served as a college scout on the East Coast.

The Giants have made seven playoff appearances and won two Super Bowls during Sternfeld's tenure with the franchise. Sternfeld has more than 20 years of pro and college scouting experience and has contributed to 11 playoff teams and three Super Bowl champions.

Sternfeld has participated in five Super Bowls, and in all of them he either worked for the Patriots or played against them. The first was Super Bowl XX, when the Patriots played Chicago. Sternfeld was also a member of the Patriots' organization when they played in Super Bowl XXXI in January 1997, and won Super Bowl XXXVI five years later. Sternfeld has participated in two Super Bowls with the Giants, winning the championship in 2007 and 2011.

Sternfeld joined the Patriots as an intern in 1981. The following year, he began a two-year stint as an administrative aide. In 1984, Sternfeld was named the Patriots' ticket office manager, a post he held for three years.

In 1987, he joined the scouting department for five years before returning to the ticket office, where, during his second tenure, franchise tickets sales reached record highs.

Sternfeld returned to the scouting department in January of 1995 and remained there for the rest of his tenure in New England.

Sternfeld is a native of Long Island. He attended Locust Valley (N.Y.) High School before earning a business degree at Northeastern University. Sternfeld and his wife Anne have two children, Anna and Tim.

MATT SHAUGER
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PRO PERSONNEL

Matt Shauger is in his 16th year in the NFL and his 14th season with the Giants in 2018, serving as the club's assistant director of pro personnel. He was promoted to his current position in 2013 after spending the previous seven seasons as a pro scout. He originally joined the club in 2005 as a pro personnel intern.

Shauger's primary duties include film study of active NFL players and evaluation of free agents, coordinating the schedule of the team's pro scouting department and management of the club's pro scouting database. During the season, he assists the coaching staff with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, including their personnel and tendencies. He contributed to both the Super Bowl XLII and XLVI championship teams.

Shauger began his pro football career in Europe in 2003 as an assistant in the former NFL International Player & Football Development department. Based at the league's overseas headquarters in London, Shauger aided in the identification and development of non-U.S. playing talent while researching and formulating strategies for globally expanding American football. He helped launch the International Practice Player Program, which was in place from 2004-08 and reestablished in 2017 as the NFL International Player Development Program.

Shauger earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and sport management from Seton Hall University in 2002. He and his wife, novelist Lisa Van Allen, have a daughter, Evelyn, and reside in Wayne, N.J.

CHRIS PETTIT
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Chris Pettit is in his first season as the Giants' director of college scouting after spending the previous 13 years as an area scout. He joined the Giants' scouting staff in 2005 after spending the 2004 season as a scouting intern for the team. Pettit first worked for the Giants as a training camp pro personnel intern from 1998-2000.

Prior to joining the Giants, Pettit was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Huntington High School on Long Island, which won division championships in 2001 and 2003, and was the runner-up in the Long Island championship in 2003.

Pettit spent the 2002 football season as an offensive assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin, where he worked with the running backs and assisted in the preparation of scouting reports for upcoming opponents, as well as recruiting. Wisconsin defeated Colorado in the 2002 Alamo Bowl.

Pettit attended the University of Maryland on a lacrosse scholarship. He played on teams that reached the national finals in 1997 and 1998. Pettit graduated from Maryland with a bachelor's degree in sports management.

Pettit is a native of Huntington, N.Y. He and his wife Jill have two children, Chris and Jessa.

D.J. BOISTURE
AREA SCOUT, WEST

D.J. Boisture is in his third season as a member of the Giants' scouting staff.

Boisture was a Giants pro personnel intern from June 2013-15, a position he also held in training camp in 2012.

In his previous Giants stint, Boisture performed numerous scouting duties, including creating reports for special teams charts, stats, roster changes, depth chart, and participation chart that are distributed to coaches, scouts and front office personnel.

Boisture has a bachelor's degree in business and sports management from Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Conn., where he was a four-year starter on the baseball team.

JEREMY BREIT
REGIONAL SCOUT

Jeremy Breit is in his 14th year in the NFL and 13th with the Giants. The 2018 season is his eighth on the college scouting staff.

Breit previously served in the Giants' pro personnel department, including two years as a pro scout. His primary responsibilities included assisting the coaching staff in scouting the Giants' upcoming opponents, as well as evaluating potential free agents.

Breit began his career as a pro scouting intern with the Houston Texans in 2005.

A graduate of the University of Tennessee, Breit assisted the Director of Football Operations for both the 2002 and 2003 seasons in Knoxville. He has also earned a MBA from Dowling College.

Breit, a native of West Islip, N.Y., resides in San Diego, Calif.

AREA SCOUT, SOUTHEAST

Marcus Cooper is in his first season as a Giants area scout. Cooper spent the previous seven seasons with the Buffalo Bills. In 2017, he was the Bills' scout in the BLESTO Scouting Combine. Cooper was a college area scout focusing on the northeast for Buffalo from 2015-16. Cooper spent his first four seasons with the team as a player personnel assistant (2013-2014) and as personnel intern (2011-2012), where he provided support to all levels of scouting and player engagement departments.

Prior to joining the Bills, Cooper worked on the football staff at Alcorn State University, where he served as a defensive graduate assistant.

Cooper finished his playing career in 2008 as a starting linebacker for the Alcorn State Braves, earning two letters (07-08). He joined Alcorn from Copiah-Lincoln Community College, where he helped lead the Wolves to 2006 Golden Isle Bowl Classic Championship, and a No. 6 ranking in the final NJCAA Poll.

Cooper graduated from Alcorn State in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. The following year, he earned a master's degree in secondary education guidance counseling. A Mississippi native, Cooper played fullback and linebacker at Laurel High School.

Cooper resides in McComb, Miss., he has a son, Rylan.

JEREMIAH DAVIS

EXECUTIVE SCOUT

Jeremiah Davis is in his 31st year as a member of the Giants organization, his 29th as a full-time member of the team's scouting department, and his 11th as an executive scout. He joined the Giants in 1988 as a part-time scout after a career as a collegiate coach. Two years later, Davis became a full-time Giants scout.

Davis graduated from Montclair (N.J.) High School, which is located about 20 minutes from the Giants' headquarters. He began his collegiate football career at Washington State University before receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in criminal law from the University of Wyoming in 1978. Davis subsequently earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State University in 1981.

Davis began his college coaching career at the University of Wyoming as a graduate assistant and strength coach and served in the same capacity at the University of Washington and at Grambling, where he also worked with the linebackers. He then moved to the University of Northern Iowa and the University of Central Florida as an assistant coach, followed by a stint as a recruiter at Purdue University in 1985. Davis was also an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for two years at the University of Tennessee-Martin.

Davis is married to the former Marie-Line Jasor. They have a son, Jeremiah Pascal Emanuel Davis, and a daughter, Chloe Marie Eulalie Catherine Davis.

STEPHEN DEVINE

AREA SCOUT, MIDWEST

Stephen Devine is in his 18th season as a member of the Giants' scouting department. Before beginning his career with the Giants, Devine spent 28 years as a coach, including 19 seasons at the collegiate level, and nine in the high school ranks. Just prior to joining the Giants in 2001, he was an athletic administrator and coach in the Marysville (Ohio) school system.

From 1990-94, Devine was the assistant head coach and an offensive assistant for Ohio University. He arrived there after spending the 1988 and 1989 seasons as the offensive line coach at San Diego State University.

In 1983 Devine was named as an assistant coach at Ohio State University. He spent his first year there focused mainly on recruiting. From 1984-87 he was the Buckeyes' guard and center coach.

Prior to his stint with Ohio State, Devine worked for three seasons as the offensive line coach at Bowling Green State University. He went there after spending a year as a graduate assistant football coach at Ohio State in 1979. He was a graduate assistant at the University of Washington in 1977 and 1978, when he worked with the Huskies' offensive line.

Devine's first college coaching experience came as a student assistant football coach for the University of Toledo in 1976.

Devine earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Heidelberg College and master's degrees in educational administration from the University of Toledo and Ashland University. He and his wife, Suzanne, have three children, Stephanie, Paul and Connor.

DONNIE ETHERIDGE

AREA SCOUT, SOUTHWEST

Donnie Etheridge is in his 18th season as a member of the Giants' college scouting department.

Etheridge joined the Giants after spending the 2000 football season as the offensive line coach at Westside High School in Houston, Texas.

From 1997 until his appointment at Westside, Etheridge coached at Santa Fe High in Edmond, Okla. Etheridge was the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Langston University from 1992-96.

Etheridge coached at Union City (Tenn.) High School from 1989-91. He began his coaching career in 1986 as a student coach and graduate assistant for the football program at the University of Tennessee at Martin, where he spent three seasons.

Etheridge is married to the former Jennifer Boatright of Norman, Okla. They have two sons, Jackson and Tim.

PATRICK HANSCOMB

AREA SCOUT, MID-ATLANTIC

Patrick Hanscomb is in his first season as an area scout after spending the previous 10 seasons in the pro personnel department. Hanscomb now focuses on scouting college players, primarily in the Mid-Atlantic states.

Hanscomb served as the season-long pro intern his first two years and joined the organization as a full-time employee in the spring of 2011. Prior to joining the Giants, Hanscomb worked as an administrative assistant for the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League. His primary responsibilities with the Giants include evaluation of unrestricted free agents, the Canadian and Arena football leagues, practice squad players and the advance scouting of Giants opponents. Hanscomb was a two-sport athlete at SUNY Brockport, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports management.

Hanscomb and his wife, Marie, have a son, William Lief.

RYAN JONES

AREA SCOUT, NORTHEAST

Ryan Jones is in his 18th season as a member of the Giants organization. He joined the Giants in 2000 following nine years as a collegiate coach.

Jones became a coach following a successful playing career as a defensive back at the University of New Hampshire, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. He also holds a master's degree in administrative science from Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Jones began his coaching career in 1991 as a graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota, where he served as the assistant defensive backs coach. He then spent two seasons at the College of the Holy Cross (1992-93), where he was responsible for the strength and conditioning of the entire Crusaders athletic department, and served as the assistant defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator for the football team.

Jones was named defensive backs coach at New Hampshire in 1994 and remained in that capacity for six seasons before joining the Giants' scouting department.

As a defensive back, Jones garnered All-Yankee Conference first-team honors and finished his career with 143 career tackles and 15 interceptions at UNH.

Jones is a 1986 graduate of South Plainfield (N.J.) High School, where he lettered in football, track and basketball. He and his wife, Sophia, have two daughters, Riley and Raina.

NICHOLAS LA TESTA

PRO SCOUT

Nicholas La Testa is in his second season with the Giants, and his first as a pro scout. In 2017, he was a pro personnel assistant.

La Testa first worked with the Giants as a pro personnel training camp intern in 2015. He was a full-season pro personnel intern in 2016.

Prior to joining the Giants, La Testa worked as a player personnel assistant for Rutgers University football program in the 2015 season.

La Testa earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Yale University in 2015. He was a four-year varsity letterman on the Bulldogs' football team. La Testa was the recipient of the Every Play Every Day Award, presented to the player who best demonstrates accountability to his teammates both on and off the field.

A native of Wood-Ridge, N.J., La Testa was a 2011 graduate of Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, N.J., where he was the team captain of the football team.

TIM McDONNELL

PRO SCOUT

Tim McDonnell is in his sixth season as a pro scout for the Giants. His primary responsibilities include evaluating active NFL players and free agents and the advance scouting of Giants opponents.

Before joining the Giants, McDonnell spent eight years working in the University of Notre Dame football program, the last two as director of player personnel, when he organized and administered the Irish recruiting efforts. He previously served as the director of football personnel for four years. McDonnell covered a variety of football-related matters, served as a liaison between the Irish and NFL personnel, assisted with recruiting efforts, helped to coordinate the walk-on program, and assisted in managing the roster.

McDonnell is a 2005 graduate of the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass., and a three-year football letterman as a receiver. He was the inaugural recipient of the Daniel Allen Sportsmanship Award in 2005, presented to the Holy Cross varsity athlete who best exemplifies the qualities of sportsmanship that coach Daniel Allen exhibited throughout his life. He also received the 2004 Unsung Hero Award as the player who supported the team spiritually, emotionally and physically for the good of the team.

A native of Harrison, N.Y., McDonnell graduated from Iona Prep before starting his collegiate career at Holy Cross. McDonnell is the grandson of Wellington Mara, the Giants' late and much-loved former president and a Pro Football Hall of Famer, and the late Ann Mara.

McDonnell is married to the former Marisa Meister. The couple has three young sons, Jack Wellington, Conor Timothy, and Timothy John.

MICHAEL MURPHY

AREA SCOUT, WEST

Michael Murphy is in his third season on the Giants' scouting staff.

Murphy, 53, has 20 years of NFL experience as a scout and in other positions for four different franchises. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent the 2015-16 season as the director of player personnel for the University of Colorado football program. Murphy went to Colorado after spending one year in private business (real estate).

From 2008-14, Murphy was a regional scout for the Miami Dolphins. He entered the NFL as a pro personnel assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs from 1996-99. Murphy was a Midwest scout with the Seattle Seahawks from 2000-04, and a national scout with the Dallas Cowboys from 2005-08.

Before beginning his scouting career, Murphy coached on the professional and collegiate levels. He was a graduate assistant at Iowa State (1990-91), while pursuing his master's degree in higher education. Murphy also coached at Arizona Western (1992), Bethel College (1993-94), and with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1995-96).

Murphy earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1989 from William Jewell College, where he lettered two seasons in football as a strong safety. He then worked as a student assistant in the football office during the 1989 season.

Murphy was born in Vancouver, B.C., and graduated from St. Francis Xavier High School in Edmonton, where he played football, basketball and soccer and was also on the swim team. His father, Cal, was inducted into the CFL Hall of Fame in 2004 following a 26-year career as both a coach and general manager in the CFL. Cal Murphy was part of nine Grey Cup championships.

Murphy is married to the former Camille Walker. They have two daughters, Tyler and Morgan.

MARQUIS PENDLETON

BLESTO SCOUT

Marquis Pendleton is in his second season as the Giants' scout in the BLESTO scouting combine. He succeeded Chris Watts, who is now a scout.

Pendleton first worked with the Giants as a public relations intern in training camp in 2014. He was a full-season pro personnel intern in 2015.

Prior to joining the Giants, Pendleton spent four years at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sport management, and Bachelor of Business Administration degree in marketing. At UMass, Pendleton worked for three years as a football operations assistant in recruiting, scouting, and game day operations.

A native of Hackensack, N.J., Pendleton was a 2011 graduate of Hackensack High School, where he played football for three years.

STEVE VERDEROSA

REGIONAL SCOUT

The 2017 season is Steve Verderosa's 30th with the Giants since he joined the organization's scouting staff in 1988, and his 10th as an executive scout. Verderosa came to the Giants after serving in the scouting department of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Verderosa began his collegiate career at Central College in Pella, Iowa as a wide receiver and punter after graduating from Melville High School in Setauket, N.Y. He then moved to New York Institute of Technology, where he continued his dual roles.

After receiving a bachelor's degree in general architecture and a design award in his senior year, Verderosa had a tryout with the Washington Redskins as a wide receiver and punter in 1977. He also had a stint with the Cleveland Browns as a punter in the 1978 preseason.

Verderosa worked for one year as an architectural draftsman before getting the urge to return to football and began a coaching career as an offensive assistant at his alma mater, New York Tech. He then spent two seasons as a coach at St. Anthony's High School before landing a spot as defensive backfield coach at Columbia University. From there, he moved on to C.W. Post (now Long Island University Post) for four years as secondary coach and then joined the Buccaneers' scouting department.

Verderosa was born in Roslyn, Long Island. He is married to the former Lori Ann Felicetti. The Verderosas reside in Apex, N.C. They have two sons, Alex and Matthew, and one daughter, Mikala, and a grandson, Archer Steven, the son of Alex and his wife, Christine.

CHRISTOPHER WATTS

AREA SCOUT, MIDLANDS

Christopher A. Watts is in his third season as a Giants scout after spending the previous nine seasons as the team's scout in the BLESTO scouting combine. He was first affiliated with the team as a training camp intern in 2005.

Before joining the Giants, Watts spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coaching the offensive line at Langston University in Oklahoma. From 1998-2004, Watts worked in the corporate world. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration-management in 1998 and a master's degree in education in 2006, both from Langston.

Watts attended Langston on a football scholarship and earned four letters as an offensive lineman. He was elected a first team NAIA All-America and an Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference (OIC) first team tackle in 1996. Watts, who threw the shot put, also lettered once on the track team. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Watts is a graduate of M.B. Smiley High School in Houston, where he lettered four times in football, twice in track, and once in baseball. He was an All-District 21-5A honorable mention as a tackle in 1994.

Watts is married to the former Myeshia Jones of Pauls Valley, Okla. He has two daughters, Carrington and Maileigha, and a son, Chris, Jr.

SAFETY

COLLEGE: CONNECTICUT

HIGH SCHOOL: WOODWARD ACADEMY (COLLEGE PARK, GA.)

HOW ACQUIRED: FREE AGENT (2016)

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally signed as a rookie free agent by the Giants on May 6, 2016...Waived on Sept. 3, 2016...Signed to the Giants' practice squad on Sept. 4, 2016...Signed to the Giants' active roster on Sept. 24, 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Adams has played in 30 regular-season games with 17 starts, and in 1 postseason game...His career totals include 73 tackles (59 solo), 7 passes defended, 1 interception, and 1 forced fumble.

- In 2017, Adams played in all 16 games with 4 starts, 3 as an extra defensive back and 1 at strong safety...Contributed 28 solo tackles, 2 passes defended, 1 forced fumble, and 6 special teams tackles.

- Had 2 solo tackles and his first career forced fumble at San Francisco (11/12)...Started and had 5 solo tackles vs. Kansas City (11/19)...Started as an extra defensive back vs. Philadelphia and had 6 tackles (12/17), and at Arizona, where he had 5 tackles (12/24)...Opened the game at strong safety in place of the injured Landon Collins vs. Washington (12/31) and registered 6 solo stops.

- As a rookie in 2016, Adams played in the last 14 regular-season games, starting the final 13 at free safety...He played in but did not start the NFC Wild Card Game in Green Bay (1/8)...Adams joined defensive end Romeo Okwara and wide receiver Roger Lewis, Jr. as undrafted rookies to start for the Giants in 2016. That was the highest number of rookie free agents to start for the Giants in a non-strike season since 1980, when they had 7 such starters...When Okwara and Adams started together vs. Dallas on Dec. 11, it was the first time the Giants started 2 undrafted rookies on defense since 2005, when linebacker Chase Blackburn and safety James Butler each started.

- Finished the season with 45 tackles (31 solo), 5 passes defended, and 1 interception...Made his NFL debut vs. Washington (9/25) and had a special teams tackle...Started for the first time at Minnesota (10/3), and had 6 tackles (2 solo), and 1 pass defended...Had 4 solo tackles at the Rams in London (10/23)...Contributed season-high totals of 9 solo tackles and 2 passes defended, including his first career interception when he picked off a Carson Wentz pass and returned it 19 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/6)...Tallied 4 tackles (3 solo) at Pittsburgh (12/4) and 3 solo tackles vs. Dallas (12/11) and vs. Detroit (12/18).

COLLEGE:

- Played in 44 games with 33 starts at UConn, where he tallied 263 tackles (164 solo), including 9 interceptions and 15 passes defended...As a senior in 2015, played in 13 games and led the Huskies with 103 tackles (7.9 per game)...Had a career-high 17 tackles vs. Navy...Named 2nd-team All American Athletic Conference...In his junior season, led the team with 4 interceptions, and tied a program record with 3 interceptions in a win over UCF.

JERELL ADAMS

TIGHT END

COLLEGE: SOUTH CAROLINA

HIGH SCHOOL: SCOTT'S BRANCH (SUMMERTON, S.C.)

HOW ACQUIRED: 2016 DRAFT (6TH ROUND)

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 6th-round (184th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Adams has played in 29 games with 3 starts... Totals include 24 receptions for 214 yards (8.9-yard avg.), with a long catch of 38 yards and 1 touchdown.

- In 2017, Adams played in all 16 games with 1 start and caught 8 passes for 92 yards... Had a career-high 4 receptions, for 31 yards, at Arizona (12/24)... Caught 1 pass vs. Detroit (9/18), but it went for a career-long 38 yards... Caught 1 pass vs. the Chargers (10/8), at Denver (10/15), and vs. Kansas City (11/6)... Made his only start of the season at San Francisco (11/12).

- As a rookie in 2016, Adams played in 13 games with 2 starts... Did not play in 2 games, and was inactive at Washington (1/1)... Inactive for the NFC Wild Card Game at Green Bay (1/8)... Finished with 16 receptions for 122 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown against Cincinnati... Joined wide receivers Sterling Shepard and Roger Lewis, Jr. as Giants rookies to catch a touchdown pass in 2016... The Giants and Tennessee Titans were the only teams to have 3 rookies catch touchdown passes in 2016... The last season in which the Giants had at least 3 rookies with touchdown receptions was 1987, but that was because 3 strike-replacement games were played. The previous non-strike season in which at least 3 Giants rookies with touchdown catches was 1948. That year, 6 first-year players accomplished the feat: John Atwood, Bruce Gehrke, Joe Johnson, Anthony "Skipper" Minisi, Joe Scott, and Bill Swiacki. From that group, only Scott and Swiacki played more than 1 season for the team.

- Made his NFL debut in limited action at tight end and on special teams vs. New Orleans (9/18)... Had his first 2 career receptions for a season-high 27 yards, including a 14-yarder, at Green Bay (10/9)... Caught 3 passes for 24 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/6), and 3 for 18 yards, including a 10-yarder for the games and his first career touchdown vs. Cincinnati (11/14)... Had at least 1 reception in 4 consecutive games: 1 for 10 yards at Pittsburgh (12/4), 2 for 11 yards vs. Dallas (12/11), 3 for 18 yards vs. Detroit (12/18), and 1 for 9 yards at Philadelphia (12/22)... Made his first career start vs. the Lions, and started the following week vs. the Eagles... Inactive due to a shoulder injury at Washington and for the NFC Wild Card Game in Green Bay (1/8).

COLLEGE:

- Played in 47 games with 15 starts at South

Carolina... Finished his career with 66 receptions for 977 yards and 7 touchdowns... Also contributed on the coverage teams, recording 8 tackles (7 solo)... As a senior in 2015, played in 12 games with a career-high 9 starts... Was South Carolina's 2nd-leading receiver, with a 28 catches for 421 yards and 3 touchdowns, all career-high totals... Had touchdown receptions vs. Kentucky, LSU and Tennessee... Caught a career-high 6 passes for 105 yards vs. the Citadel.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Joined teammates to distribute 1,500 turkeys to the Community Food Bank of N.J. to support families in the local community for Thanksgiving... Attended the Giants' annual Jingle Jam holiday party for 600 New Jersey foster children, who each received winter coats, clothes, athletic equipment, and enjoyed a night of dancing and fun activities... Attended the 2018 Giants Draft Party, thanking season ticket holders for their support and celebrating the new rookie draft class.

PERSONAL:

- Graduated in December 2015 with a degree in public health... Two-time member of the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll... Named the recipient of the prestigious Dr. Harris Pastides Outstanding Student-Athlete Representative of the University of South Carolina at the 2015 spring game... Attended Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy in the fall of 2011... Played quarterback, tight end, linebacker, defensive end and punter at Scott's Branch High in Summerton, S.C., graduating in 2011... Led the Eagles to the 1A Division II state title as a senior... In 2 years at quarterback he threw for 689 yard and 12 touchdowns in a run-dominated offense... Also caught 21 passes for 581 yards and 8 scores in his career... Contributed 96 tackles, 5 interceptions and a sack as a junior... Was the first player from his school to play in the Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas, where he caught 3 touchdown passes... Also played in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl in Myrtle Beach... The Eagles were the 2008 1A Division II state champions and the 2009 state runners-up... Was also a power forward on the basketball team, averaging 19 points and 13 rebounds as a junior.

WIDE RECEIVER

COLLEGE: LSU

HIGH SCHOOL: ISIDORE NEWMAN (NEW ORLEANS)

HOW ACQUIRED: 2014 DRAFT, 1ST ROUND

NFL EXP: 5TH YEAR

GIANTS EXP: 5TH YEAR

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a first-round (12th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2014.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Beckham has played just 4 years — including an injury-shortened 2017 season — but is already one of the most productive receivers in franchise and NFL history... On the Giants' career lists, Beckham's 313 catches place him 10th, his 4,424 yards are 11th, and his 38 touchdown receptions leave him 5th.

- Beckham had the best 3-season start by a wide receiver in Giants history, and one of the best ever in the NFL. His totals of 288 receptions, 4,122 yards, and 35 touchdowns, all shattered the previous Giants records for a player in his first 3 seasons (Beckham had the 3-year touchdown receptions record with 25 — in his first 2 seasons)... Beckham and Cleveland's Jarvis Landry — his good friend and former LSU teammate — share the NFL record for the most receptions in the first 3 seasons of a career with 288 each. Cincinnati's A.J. Green held the former mark with 260 from 2011-13.

- Beckham's total of 4,122 yards left him 41 yards short of tying Pro Football Hall of Famer Randy Moss' record for the highest yardage total in the first 3 seasons of a career. Moss also owns the 3-year touchdown record with 43.

- Beckham's 35 touchdown receptions were the NFL's highest total from 2014-16.

- Beckham had 12 touchdown catches as a rookie, 13 in 2015, and 10 in 2016. He was the 5th player in history with double-digit touchdown receptions in each of his first 3 seasons, joining Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Hayes, John Jefferson, Moss, and New England tight end Rob Gronkowski, who did it from 2010-12.

- Beckham was the first player in NFL history to record at least 80 catches and 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first 3 seasons... He was also the only player in history with at least 80 receptions and 10 touchdown catches in each of his first 3 seasons.

- Beckham was 1 of 3 players in NFL history with at least 1,000 receiving yards and 10 touchdown catches in each of his first 3 seasons, joining John Jefferson (1978-80) and Moss (1998-2000).

- Beckham was the only player ever to begin a career with 3 consecutive seasons of at least 85 receptions, 1,000 yards, and 10 touchdowns.

- From 2014-16, Beckham had 13 games with 125 or more receiving yards, the highest total by a player in his first 3 seasons in NFL history. Moss had the previous record with 12.

- Beckham was the first Giants player to make the Pro Bowl in each of his first 3 seasons since Hall of Fame linebacker Lawrence Taylor from 1981-83, and the first to make it in 3 consecutive seasons since offensive linemen Shaun O'Hara and Chris Snee from 2008-10.

- Caught his 300th career pass in his 45th game, at Philadelphia on Sept. 24, 2017. That set an NFL record for fewest games needed to reach 300 receptions. He needed 2 fewer games than the previous record-holder, Anquan Boldin.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Beckham has played in 47 regular-season games with 44 starts, and started the 1 postseason game in which he played... His career totals include 313 receptions for 4,424 yards and 38 touchdowns... Beckham caught at least 2 passes in all 47 games in which he's played, and at least 3 in every game but 1... Also has 10 rushing attempts for 55 yards, 33 punt returns for 263 yards (8.2-yard avg.), 1 20-yard kickoff return, and he has been sacked once... In his only postseason game, Beckham caught 4 passes for 28 yards, and returned 2 kickoffs for 48 yards.

- In 2017, Beckham played in 4 games with 2 starts... Inactive in the season opener at Dallas (9/10), because of an ankle sprain he suffered in a preseason game in Cleveland (8/21)... Fractured his left ankle vs. the Chargers (11/8), underwent surgery, and was placed on injured reserve.

- Finished the season with 25 receptions for 302 yards and 3 touchdowns... Beckham's first appearance of the season was as a reserve vs. Detroit (9/18). It was the first game in which he played as a reserve since he made his NFL debut vs. Atlanta on Oct. 5, 2014... Caught 4 passes for 36 yards.

- Had a season-high 9 receptions for 79 yards and 2 touchdowns at Philadelphia (9/24)... Increased his career total to 301, in his first 45 games, an NFL record for the fewest number of games needed to reach 300. Anquan Boldin held the old record of 47 games.

- Beckham did not have a 100-yard receiving game in 2017, keeping his career total at 19. Since he entered the NFL in 2014, Beckham's 11 games of 140+ yards rank third; his three games with 160+ yards rank tied for fifth; and his two games with 180+ yards are tied for fourth.

- Scored 2 touchdowns in the 4th quarter on 10 and 4-yard passes from Eli Manning, enabling the Giants to tie the score at 14-14... It was the 10th game in which Beckham had at least 2 touchdown catches, a Giants record. Beckham had been tied at 9 with Joe Morrison (1959-72) and Homer Jones (1964-69).

- Beckham caught 7 passes for 90 yards at Tampa Bay (10/1)...Prior to fracturing his ankle vs. Los Angeles, Beckham had 5 receptions for a season-high 97 yards, and scored a touchdown on a season-long including a season-long 48-yard catch.

- In 2016, Beckham played and started in all 16 games for the first time in his career. And for the 3rd time in as many pro seasons, he led the Giants in receptions (101), receiving yards (1,367), and touchdown catches (10), and was selected to the Pro Bowl.

- Beckham's 101 catches were the 3rd-highest total in the NFL and the 2nd-highest total in Giants' history, behind Steve Smith's 107 receptions in 2009. Beckham, who caught 91 and 96 passes in his first 2 seasons, has 3 of the 4-highest single-season totals in franchise history.

- Beckham's 1,367 receiving yards were also 3rd in the league, the 2nd-highest total of his career, and the 3rd-highest in Giants history. Victor Cruz set the franchise record with 1,536 in 2011, and Beckham had 1,450 in 2015. Beckham has 2 of the top 3, and 3 of the top 5, single-season receiving yardage totals in Giants history.

- The Giants have had 24 1,000-yard individual receiving seasons in their history; Beckham has 3 of them.

- In 2016, Beckham had 10 touchdown receptions, which placed him 5th in the NFL (2 receivers had 14 and 2 had 12), but was the lowest total of his 3-year career (he had 13 in 2015, and 12 as a rookie).

- Beckham had 2 receiving touchdowns in 3 different games in 2016, increasing to 9 the number of games in his career in which he's caught multiple scoring passes. That tied the Giants record also shared by Homer Jones and Joe Morrison. The 9 multi-touchdown games left Beckham tied for 4th among NFL players in their first 3 seasons. Rob Gronkowski had 12, Jerry Rice 11, and Bill Groman 10. Bob Hayes, John Jefferson, and Moss had 9 apiece.

- Beckham has 4 career touchdown receptions of 75 or more yards. Jones owns the Giants' record with 6.

- Beckham has 9 career touchdown catches of at least 60 yards, the 2nd-most by a player in his first 3 NFL seasons. Harlon Hill recorded 10 touchdowns of 60 or more yards in his first 3 seasons with the Bears from 1954-56.

- For the 3rd time in as many seasons, Beckham led the Giants in total yards with 1,442. The total included 9 rushing and 66 punt return yards. Beckham had team-high totals of 1,511 and 1,479 yards in 2014, and 2015, respectively.

- Beckham's 60 points led the Giants by 10 points over kicker Robbie Gould. He was the first non-kicker to lead the Giants in scoring since 1992, when running back Rodney Hampton finished with 84 points (14 touchdowns). The last wide receiver to lead the Giants in scoring was Jones in 1967 (also 84 points; he had 13 touchdowns receiving and 1 rushing).

- With 7 receptions for 121 yards vs. Washington (9/25), Beckham set NFL records for the fewest career games to 200 receptions and 3,000 receiving yards. His first catch vs. the Redskins was a 26-yarder on the opening play of the 2nd quarter. It was his 200th career reception, in his 30th game. That was the fewest number of games a player needed to reach 200 catches in NFL history. The former record of 33 was set in Week 1 by Miami's Jarvis Landry.

- Beckham's 121 receiving yards vs. Washington increased his career total to 3,035 yards in 30 games, which was also an NFL record. The previous record for fewest games to reach 3,000 receiving yards was 31 by Charley Hennigan, whose career began in 1960.

- All 5 players on the receptions list were active in 2016. Beckham was the only active player on the receiving yards list.

- Beckham passed Hakeem Nicks' team records for the highest catch and receiving yardage totals by a Giants player in his first 3 NFL seasons (not first 3 seasons after first playing for another team, as Plaxico Burress did). Beckham then had 206 receptions and 3,035 yards. Nicks' marks were 202 catches and 3,034 yards.

- Beckham became the 23rd player in Giants history with at least 200 receptions.

- Beckham was targeted 9 times and caught 3 passes at Minnesota (10/3), ending his streak of consecutive games with at least 4 receptions at 28. He had last caught fewer than 4 passes on Oct. 12, 2014, when he had 2 receptions in Philadelphia in his 2nd NFL game... Beckham's 23 receiving yards vs. the Vikings were a career-low. His previous low was 28 yards in that 2014 game in Philadelphia... Beckham's longest reception in Minnesota was 10 yards, ending his streak of having at least 1 catch of 15 or more yards at 15 consecutive games.

- Beckham caught 5 passes for 56 yards at Green Bay (10/9), and he ended a career-long 5-game streak without a touchdown that dated back to the 2015 season. He made an acrobatic catch in the back of the end zone for an 8-yard score, the Giants' only touchdown of the game, with 2:54 remaining in the 4th quarter... Beckham was sacked by safety Micah Hyde as he looked for someone to throw to by safety Micah Hyde in the 3rd quarter. He was the first Giants player other than a quarterback to be sacked since running back David Meggett vs. Cincinnati on Dec. 11, 1994... With Dwayne Harris in the locker room getting his jaw X-rayed, Beckham was deployed as the punt returner for the first time in 2016 on 1 kick in the 3rd quarter. He had to fair catch the punt.

- Beckham earned his first NFC Offensive Player of the Week award by catching 8 passes for a career-high 222 yards, including 2nd-half touchdowns of 74 and 66 yards, in a 27-23 victory vs. Baltimore (10/16)... The 222 yards were the 2nd-highest total in Giants history, exceeded only by Del Shofner's 269 yards vs. Washington on Oct. 28, 1962. Gene (Choo-Choo) Roberts had owned the 2nd-highest total of 212, which he accomplished at Green Bay on Nov. 13, 1949. Beckham's previous career-best was 185 yards vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 28, 2015, the last game of his Rookie of the Year season.

- Beckham became the first Giants receiver with 2 touchdown catches of 66 or more yards in a game since Jones scored on receptions of 75 and 98 yards in a season-opening 34-34 tie at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966.

- Beckham's 200-yard receiving game was the first by a Giants player since Oct. 2, 2005, when Plaxico Burress had 204 yards on 10 catches vs. St. Louis. Burress also scored 2 touchdowns and was named Offensive Player of the Week for his 200-yard game... Beckham's 222 yards from scrimmage were the 8th-highest total in franchise history.

- Against Baltimore, Beckham had 6 catches for 211 yards and 2 long touchdowns... in the 2nd half. Beckham's 211 yards were the most in a 2nd half since Miami's Irving Fryar had 211 vs. New England on Sept. 4, 1994... Before Beckham's performance vs. Baltimore, the last player with 200+ receiving yards and at least 2 touchdowns in a second half was Baltimore's Qadry Ismail at Pittsburgh on Dec. 12, 1999 (210 yards, 3 scores)... Beckham was the first Giants player with two 60+ yard touchdown receptions in the 2nd half of a game in 67 years. The last to do it was Roberts, who had scoring catches of 62 and 85 yards vs. the Chicago Bears on Oct. 23, 1949.

- Beckham had another 2-touchdown game while catching 4 passes for 46 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/6)... He scored both of his touchdowns - from 26 and 1 yards - in the first half... Beckham's 2 touchdown receptions increased his career total to 30 and made him the 6th player in NFL history with at least 30 touchdown catches in his first 35 career games, joining Pro Football Hall of Famers Lance Alworth and Bob Hayes, and Cloyce Box, Bill Groman and Harlon Hill.

- Beckham had a game-high 10 receptions for 97 yards in a Monday night victory vs. Cincinnati (11/14)... The 97 yards were a career-low for Beckham in a 10-catch game. The previous low was 130 yards on 11 receptions at Tennessee on Dec. 7, 2014... Beckham's 97 yards increased his career total to 3,538, in 36 games. He set the NFL record for the fewest number of games to reach 3,500 receiving yards. The former record of 37 games was held by Alworth.

- Beckham was deployed as a defensive back on the final play of the first half, when the Giants line up 5 defenders across the goal line. The play, which began from the 50-yard line with 3 seconds remaining, was a long Andy Dalton pass to A.J. Green that was batted down by Beckham and Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie. Beckham was the first NFL player with a reception and a pass defended in the same game since Atlanta's Julio Jones on Sept. 18, 2014.

- Beckham led the Giants with 6 receptions for 96 yards and 2 touchdowns, on catches of 32 and 4 yards, at Cleveland (11/27). The 2nd score was set up by Beckham's 41-yard catch-and-run, the Giants' longest play of the game... It was Beckham's 9th career game with at least 2 touchdowns, tying the franchise record also shared by Jones and Morrison.

- Beckham tied his season-high with 10 catches for 100 yards at Pittsburgh (12/4), to increase his season totals to 75 catches for 1,015 yards and 8 touchdowns. Beckham is the only player in Giants history to begin his career with 3 consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. He was the 5th player in NFL history with at least 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first 3 NFL seasons, joining A.J. Green, John Jefferson, Randy Moss and Mike Evans, who accomplished the feat when he passed the 1,000-yard mark the week before Beckham.

- Beckham caught 4 passes for 94 yards, including the game-winning 61-yard touchdown, in the Giants' 10-7 victory vs. Dallas (12/11)... Beckham's touchdown was his 34th on a pass from Eli Manning. That is the most by any receiver. Beckham had been tied with Burress, who played for the Giants from 2005-08.

- In his 40th career game, Beckham scored his 10th touchdown that covered 50 or more yards, and his 9th of at least 60 yards. Both figures were NFL highs since he entered the league in 2014... Beckham sailed past the previous Giants' 3-year records of eight 50-yard touchdowns (which was held by Jones) and seven 60-yard scores (Jones and Victor Cruz)... In addition, Beckham's 9 career touchdown catches of at least 60 yards were the 2nd-most by a player in his first 3 seasons in the league. Harlon Hill scored 10 touchdowns of 60 or more yards in his first 3 seasons with the Bears from 1954-56. Three of the 5 players on the list for longest touchdown receptions in the first 3 seasons of a career played for the Giants:

Victor Cruz	Giants	2010-12	7
Homer Jones	Giants	1964-66	7
Charley Taylor	Washington	1964-66	7

- Beckham led the Giants with 6 receptions for 64 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown with 5:47 remaining, in a 17-6 victory vs. Detroit (12/18). The touchdown was his 10th of the season, and the 3rd time in as many seasons he had double-digit scoring catches... Beckham is the only Giants player with at least 10 touchdown receptions in 3 different seasons... Beckham also had a 9-yard run on a reverse, and a spectacular 63-yard punt return touchdown that didn't count because Eric Pinkins was penalized for a block in the back.

- In Philadelphia (12/22), wide receivers Beckham (11), Victor Cruz (8), and Sterling Shepard (7) combined for 26 receptions, the highest total of the season for the Giants' three leading wideouts. Their previous high was 20 catches vs. New Orleans (9/18)... Beckham and Cruz had season-high receptions totals. It was Beckham's 7th career double-digit catch game.

- Beckham's 150 yards were his 2nd-highest total of the season, after his 222-yard performance vs. Baltimore. It was his 4th 100-yard game of the season and the 19th of his career, tying Randy Moss for the most by an NFL player in his first 3 seasons... It also broke a tie with Cruz and moved Beckham into sole possession of 2nd place on the Giants' career list. Amani Toomer is first with 22. The Giants are 7-12 when Beckham has at least 100 receiving yards.

- Beckham had 5 catches for 44 yards in the regular-season finale in Washington (1/1), and 4 receptions for 28 yards in the NFC Wild Card Game at Green Bay (1/8)... He also had the first 2 kickoff returns of his career against the Packers, totaling 48 yards.

- In 2015, Beckham started all 15 games in which he played. He did not play at Minnesota (12/27) while serving an NFL suspension... Beckham finished the season with 96 receptions for 1,450 yards, both the 2nd-highest totals in Giants history. Steve Smith holds the franchise record with 107 receptions in 2009, and Victor Cruz owns the yardage mark with 1,536 in 2011... Beckham caught 13 touchdown passes, tying the franchise single-season record set by Homer Jones in 1967.

- Beckham was selected to the Pro Bowl after each of his first 2 seasons, the first Giants player to accomplish that feat since tight end Jeremy Shockey in 2002-03. He was the first Giants wide receiver selected in consecutive seasons since Jones in 1967-68.

- Beckham's 96 receptions were the NFL's 8th-highest total, his 1,450 yards ranked 5th in the league, and his 13 touchdown receptions were 4th (the Jets' Brandon Marshall, Jacksonville's Allen Robinson, and Seattle's Doug Baldwin all had 14).

- Beckham had at least 100 receiving yards in a Giants-record 6 consecutive games from Nov. 1-Dec. 14. The streak ended when he had 76 yards vs. Carolina (12/20)... The previous NFL player with such a streak was Denver's Demaryius Thomas, who had 7 straight 100-yard games in 2014... Beckham concluded the 2014 season with 4 consecutive 100-yard games. He was the first Giants receiver with 4-game streaks of at least 100 receiving yards in back-to-back seasons, and the first NFL receiver since Detroit's Calvin Johnson in 2011-12.

- Beckham averaged 96.7 yards per game, the 2nd-highest figure in Giants history. He holds the record with a 108.8-yard average as a rookie, which topped Victor Cruz's previous Giants record of 96.0 yards, set in 2011.

- Beckham had 13 touchdown catches in 2015 after finishing with 12 as a rookie. He was the 7th player in NFL history with double-digit touchdown receptions in each of his first 2 seasons, and the first since New England tight end Rob Gronkowski did it his first 3 years from 2010-12.

- Beckham was the 2nd player in Giants history with double-digit touchdown catches in back-to-back seasons; Burrell had 10 in 2006 and 12 in 2007.

- Beckham had touchdown receptions of 87 yards vs. New England (11/15) and 84 yards at Miami (12/14) to become the first player with two 80+-yard scoring catches in a season since Pittsburgh's Martavis Bryant in 2014.

- One week prior to his 84-yard score vs. the Dolphins, Beckham scored on a 72-yard pass from Eli Manning vs. the Jets. He is 1 of just 2 players in Giants history with a touchdown reception of at least 72 yards in back-to-back games. Victor Cruz scored on a 99-yard catch-and-run vs. the Jets on Dec. 24, 2011, and on a 74-yarder the following week vs. Dallas... It was the 2nd time in Beckham's career he had long touchdown receptions in consecutive games. On Dec. 21, 2014 in St. Louis, he scored on an 80-yard play, and a week later, on a 63-yard catch vs.

Philadelphia.

- Beckham's career totals of 187 catches, 2,755 yards, and 25 touchdowns were all Giants records for a player in his first 2 Giants seasons.

- Had 7 catches for 146 yards, including a 67-yard touchdown, vs. Atlanta (9/20)... Caught his 100th career pass in his 14th game, an NFL record... Followed with 7 receptions for 79 yards, and scored on a 30-yard pass, vs. Washington (9/24).

- Caught 7 passes for 121 yards and a touchdown vs. San Francisco (10/11), and 7 for 61 yards and the Giants' only touchdown at Philadelphia (10/19).

- Scored a season-high 3 touchdowns (on receptions of 2, 1 and 50 yards) while catching 8 passes for 130 yards at New Orleans (11/1)... Finished with a season-high 9 receptions, for 105 yards at Tampa Bay (11/8).

- Had 4 receptions for 104 yards, including a career-long 87-yard touchdown catch, vs. the Patriots... Tied his season high with 9 catches for 142 yards, including a diving 21-yard touchdown reception, at Washington (11/29)... The following week, he had 6 catches for 149 yards, including a 72-yard touchdown, vs. the Jets.

- Caught 6 passes for a season-high 166 yards, including touchdowns of 6 and 84 yards, at Miami (12/14)... Contributed 6 catches for 76 yards, including a game-tying 14-yard touchdown, vs. Carolina (12/20).

- In 2014, Beckham had the greatest season by a rookie wide receiver in NFL history, despite playing in only 12 games (he missed the season's first 4 games with a hamstring injury)... His season totals of 91 catches for 1,305 yards and 12 touchdowns were all franchise rookie records... He set NFL records for most catches and yards in the first 12 games to start a career... Beckham was the first wide receiver in NFL history to reach 1,000 yards after missing the season's first 3 games (he missed the first 4).

- Beckham also led the team with 21 punt returns for 171 yards (8.1-yard avg.), with a long return of 25 yards and 11 fair catches... Had 7 rushing attempts for 35 yards, with a long run of 13 yards.

- Beckham was named the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year, the only Giants player to be so honored in the now 62-year history of the award. He was the franchise's first Rookie of the Year since Pro Football Hall of Fame linebacker Lawrence Taylor won the defensive award in 1981. Beckham was the first wide receiver to be named Offensive Rookie of the Year since 2009, when Percy Harvin, then with Minnesota, won the award.

- Beckham was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month in both November and December.

- Rookies Andre Williams and Beckham led the Giants in rushing and receiving yards, respectively. It was the first time rookies led the Giants in rushing and receiving yards in a full season since 1950, when Eddie Price ran for 703 yards and Bob McChesney had 380 receiving yards... The previous NFL team with rookies leading in both rushing and receiving yards was the 2012 Cleveland Browns. Trent Richardson rushed for 950 yards and Josh Gordon had 805 receiving yards.

- Beckham was the Giants' lone representative in the Pro Bowl and the first Giants rookie to play in the game since tight end Shockey in 2002. Beckham was the team's first wide receiver in the game since Victor Cruz in 2012. Beckham was the first Giants rookie wide receiver ever selected to the Pro Bowl.

- Beckham provided the most spectacular moment in the NFL's 2014 season with his leaping 1-handed, 43-yard touchdown catch against Dallas (11/23), which made him a national sensation. The incredible catch was selected as the Bridgestone Performance Play of the Year from 20 moments voted on by NFL fans.

- Beckham's 91 catches were then the 2nd-highest total in franchise history, topped only by Steve Smith's 107 receptions in 2009...The 91 receptions led all NFL rookies in 2014. Miami's Jarvis Landry, Beckham's former LSU teammate, was 2nd with 84 catches...Beckham and Landry were the first rookies from the same college to lead their team in receptions in the same season since the 1970 merger.

- Beckham's 91 receptions were tied with Denver's Eddie Royal (2008) for the 2nd-highest total in NFL history for a rookie; Arizona's Anquan Boldin caught 101 passes in 2003.

- Beckham's 1,305 yards were then the 3rd-highest total in Giants history, surpassed only by Victor Cruz's 1,536 yards in 2011 and Amani Toomer's 1,343 yards in 2002...The 1,305 yards topped all NFL rookies in 2014 and were 254 yards more than runner-up Mike Evans of Tampa Bay. Beckham played 3 fewer games than Evans...Beckham's 1,305 receiving yards surpassed Billy Howton (1,231 with Green Bay in 1952) for the most receiving yards in a player's first 12 career games in NFL history.

- Beckham joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Michael Irvin as the only players in NFL history with at least 90 receiving yards in 9 consecutive games. Irvin accomplished the feat in 1995.

- Beckham led all players in receiving yards in each of his last 6 games, the longest streak ever by an NFL rookie. The previous record was 4 straight games by San Diego's John Jefferson in 1978.

- In the Giants' last 4 games, Beckham totaled 130, 143, 148 and 185 yards to become the first player in franchise history with 4 consecutive 100-yard games. Beckham was the first NFL rookie to accomplish the feat since Pittsburgh's Jimmy Orr in 1958. The 4-game streak was not the NFL's longest in 2014; Denver's Demaryius Thomas had 7 consecutive 100-yard games from Oct. 5-Nov. 16.

- Beckham totaled seven 100-yard games, the most by a rookie since Houston's Bill Groman had 9 in 1960. The previous record for 100-yard games by a Giants rookie was 3, by Byron Williams in 1983.

- Beckham averaged 108.8 yards a game, topping Cruz's previous Giants record of 96.0 yards, set in 2011. Beckham's 108.8-yard average is also an NFL rookie record, topping the old mark of 105.2 set by Groman in 1960.

- Beckham was then just the 4th player in franchise history with at least 12 touchdown receptions in a season. Homer Jones set the record with 13 in 1967. Plaxico Burress (2007) and Del Shofner (1962) also had 12...Beckham and Evans each had 12 touchdown catches, the highest total by an NFL rookie since Minnesota's Randy Moss had 17 in 1998...Beckham's 12 touchdown catches were a Giants rookie record and he tied the franchise total rookie touchdown mark set in 1943 by Bill Paschal (10 rushing, 2 receiving).

- Beckham scored 2 or more touchdowns in 4 games, the most multiple-touchdown games by a Giants player since Brandon Jacobs had 5 in 2008.

- Beckham scored 7 touchdowns in the season's final 4 games, the highest 4-game total by a Giants player since Joe Morris scored 10 from Dec. 1-21, 1985.

- In November, Beckham set Giants records for receptions (31) and receiving yards (503) in one calendar month. He then broke both records in a nearly unprecedented December, when he caught 43 passes for 606 yards. Only 2 other players in NFL history gained at least 600 receiving yards in December of one season, and both did it in the previous 2 years: Detroit's Calvin Johnson in 2012 (707) and Cleveland's Josh Gordon in 2013 (658).

- Beckham also set an NFL record for receiving yards by a rookie in one calendar month, December or otherwise. The previous mark was 596 yards by Groman, which had stood since November 1960. After Groman held the record for 54 years, Beckham fell 3 yards short of tying the mark in November before breaking it in December. The only other players to post back-to-back months of 500 or more receiving yards in one season were Calvin Johnson and Andre Johnson (both in 2012).

- Beckham had the league's highest receiving yardage totals in Week 15 (143 vs. Washington 12/14/14) and Week 16 (148 at St. Louis 12/21/17). The only other NFL rookie to lead the league in consecutive weeks was Philadelphia's Joe Don Looney, who had a streak of 3 consecutive weeks in September 1940...Beckham ranked 2nd in receiving yards in Week 17 with a Giants rookie-record 185 vs. Philadelphia. The Jets' Eric Decker had 221 yards on 10 receptions.

- Beckham had at least 10 catches in a game 4 times, the 1st rookie in NFL history to do that. Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown also had four 10-catch games in 2014...Only 6 rookies have had 10 or more receptions in 2 games, and two of them are Giants. In addition to Beckham, they are LaDainian Tomlinson (2001), Giants tight end Jeremy Shockey (2002), Anquan Boldin (2003), Marques Colston (2006), and Michael Thomas (20-16).

- Beckham had 4 games in which he caught at least 10 passes and gained at least 130 yards. Only 1 other rookie in NFL history has even 2 such games, Thomas in 2016.

- Beckham was the first rookie in NFL history with at least 130 receiving yards and a touchdown catch in each of 4 consecutive games.

- In the Giants' final 2 games — at St. Louis and vs. Philadelphia — Beckham had touchdown receptions of 80 and 63 yards. He was the first Giants player to have a touchdown catch of at least 63 yards in consecutive games since Cruz on Dec. 24, 2011 and Jan. 1, 2012. Beckham was the first NFL rookie with such long touchdown catches in back-to-back games since Cincinnati's Isaac Curtis on Dec. 9 and 16, 1973 (70 and 77 yards). Since 1973, rookie receivers Jerry Butler (1979) and Eddie Kennison (1996) had 2 long touchdowns in 1 game, but not back-to-back contests.

- Beckham's 1,043 receiving yards over the final 8 games were the 4th-most ever in the 2nd half of a season. The top 3 are Calvin Johnson 1,197 (2012), Jerry Rice 1,083 (1995) and Josh Gordon 1,064 (2013).

- Beckham was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month in both November and December. He was the first Giants player to win the award twice and just the 2nd wide receiver to be so honored; Arizona's Boldin was twice named Offensive Rookie of the Month in 2003.

But Beckham was the first wide receiver to be honored in consecutive months.

- The Offensive Rookie of the Month Award was won by a wide receiver in all 4 months of the 2014 season. Carolina's Kevin Benjamin (September) and Buffalo's Calvin Watkins (October) were the other winners.

- After missing the first 4 games with a hamstring injury, Beckham made his NFL debut in MetLife Stadium vs. Atlanta (10/5). He tied the team high with 4 receptions, for 44 yards, including the go-ahead 15-yard touchdown with 10:02 remaining. Beckham was the last of the NFL's 32 first-round draft choices to play in a game in 2014.

- Beckham was the first player since Don Herrmann on Sept. 21, 1969 to score a game-winning, 4th-quarter touchdown for the Giants in his NFL debut. Herrmann caught a 10-yard pass with 59 seconds remaining to defeat Minnesota in Yankee Stadium, 24-23.

- In addition to Beckham's touchdown, Williams scored on a 3-yard run. They were the first Giants rookies to score touchdowns by receiving and rushing, respectively, in the same game since George Adams and Mark Bavaro did it twice in 1985: Oct. 20, 1985: Adams scored on a 2-yard run, Bavaro on a 29-yard reception in a 17-3 win over Washington; Nov. 24, 1985: Adams scored on a 37-yard run, Bavaro on a 12-yard reception in a 34-3 win against the Cardinals in St. Louis.

- Beckham started for the first time at Philadelphia (10/12) and had 2 receptions for 28 yards...Started at Dallas (10/19) and had 4 catches for 34 yards, including touchdowns of 9 and 5 yards. He was the first Giants player to score exactly 2 touchdowns in a game since Brandon Jacobs rushed for 2 scores at Chicago on Oct. 10, 2013. Rueben Randle had been the last Giant to catch 2 touchdown passes in a game, on Oct. 6, 2013 vs. Philadelphia. Tight end Larry Donnell had 3 touchdown receptions at Washington (9/25)...Beckham was the first Giants rookie with at least 3 receiving touchdowns through his first 3 games since Bobby Johnson in 1984... In Dallas, Beckham's first career rushing attempt gained 13 yards on the opening play of the 2nd quarter. He also returned 2 punts for 21 yards.

- Beckham caught 8 passes for 156 yards vs. Indianapolis (11/3), his first career 100-yard game. That total included a 59-yard catch...At Seattle (11/9), Beckham caught 7 passes for 108 yards.

- Beckham finished 7 yards shy of his 3rd consecutive 100-yard game, catching 6 passes for 93 yards, vs. San Francisco (11/16)...He had 10 receptions for 146 yards and 2 touchdowns vs. Dallas (11/23). He was the first Giants player to score 2 touchdowns in a game since... Beckham, at Dallas on Oct. 19, when he caught scoring passes of 9 and 5 yards...Beckham closed the month with 7 catches for 90 yards at Jacksonville (11/30).

- Beckham led the NFL with 593 receiving yards in November. He had 38 catches in the month, the 2nd-most in the league behind Denver's Demaryius Thomas' 41, and the most by a rookie...Beckham had at least 90 receiving yards in every game during November and was the first rookie in NFL history with at least 90 receiving yards in 5 games in a calendar month.

- Beckham had three 100-yard games in November and averaged an NFL-best 118.6 yards per game...His 38 catches and 593 receiving yards were both the most ever by a Giant in a calendar month—until he broke both marks in December...Beckham had at least 6 catches in every November game and Beckham and Thomas were the only 2 players in the NFL to have at least 6 receptions in 5 games during the month.

- Beckham joined Hakeem Nicks (October 2009) as the only wide receivers in franchise history to be named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month.

- Beckham had 11 catches for 130 yards at Tennessee (12/7) where he became the 2nd rookie in NFL history with at least 700 receiving yards in a 6-game span (he had 723). The other was Houston's Bill Groman in 1960... Against the Titans, Beckham threw a long pass to Randle on the Giants' first offensive series, but the receiver was double covered and it fell incomplete. It was the first pass thrown by a Giants wide receiver since Sept. 21, 1998, when Amani Toomer threw 1 at St. Louis. It was also incomplete.

- Beckham's 11 catches at Tennessee increased his 6-game total to 49 receptions, the highest total in a 6-game span by a rookie in NFL history. Beckham shattered the previous record of 42, set by...Beckham, in the 6 games prior to the victory over the Titans.

- Beckham was both the first Giants player ever and the first rookie in NFL history with 6 consecutive games with 90 or more receiving yards.

- In addition to his 11 receptions vs. the Titans, Beckham had a 9-yard run and threw a pass. He was the first Giants player to catch, run and throw in the same game since Dec. 24, 2005, when Tiki Barber rushed for 80 yards, caught 6 passes and, like Beckham, threw an incomplete pass.

- In that game, Beckham didn't just catch, run and throw. He also returned 4 punts for 49 yards. The last Giant to do all 4 in a game was David Meggett on Nov. 21, 1994. The coincidence is that was the last game before Dec. 7, 2014 in which the Giants defeated the Oilers/Titans franchise. It was also the last time the Giants played a game with a 7-game losing streak against a team with a 6-game losing streak. To end both the 7-game and 20-year streaks, they needed a multi-dimensional performer. In the 13-10 victory in the AstroDome, Meggett rushed for 17 yards, caught 1 pass, threw an incomplete and returned 2 punts. He had 45 all-purpose yards. Beckham had 188.

- In Tennessee, Andre Williams rushed for 131 yards while Beckham had 130 receiving yards. It was the first time in Giants history the team had rookies with 100 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards in the same game. The Giants were the first team in NFL history to have rookies with at least 130 rushing and receiving yards in the same game.

- Against Washington (12/14), Beckham caught 12 passes for 143 yards and scored all 3 of the Giants' touchdowns. The 12 receptions were the most ever by a Giants rookie wide receiver (he tied that mark 2 weeks later). Beckham had set the record the previous week with 11 receptions at Tennessee. The 12 receptions tied the record for all Giants rookies set by tight end Mark Bavaro at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985.

- Beckham became both the first Giants player and the first NFL rookie with at least 12 catches, 140 receiving yards and 3 touchdown catches in a game. The last NFL player to match and/or exceed those numbers had been Kansas City's Dwayne Bowe, who had 13 catches, 170 yards and 3 scores in a victory at Seattle on Nov. 28, 2010...While Beckham had 12 receptions vs. Washington, the other 7 Giants to catch passes totaled 11 receptions.

- Beckham's 12 receptions tied the highest total by a wide receiver in franchise history and was the 6th time a Giants player caught at least 12 passes in a game. Nicks had been the last to accomplish the feat, with 12 receptions at Houston on Oct. 10, 2010. Toomer was the only other Giants wideout with 12 catches in a game (Sept. 17, 2006 in an overtime victory in Philadelphia). Tight ends Bavaro and Shockey were the others. Barber owns the team record with 13 catches at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000.

- Beckham increased his season receiving yardage total to 972, a Giants rookie record. The old mark of 894 was set by Shockey in 2002. Beckham broke the record in 10 games; Shockey played in 15 games in his debut season.

- Beckham was the first rookie in Giants history to catch 3 touchdown passes in a game. The last Giants rookie to score 3 times in a game had been David Wilson, who rushed for 2 touchdowns and returned a kickoff for another against New Orleans on Dec. 9, 2012.

- Beckham became the first rookie with 3 touchdowns in a game since Detroit tight end Joseph Fauria had 3 at Cleveland on Oct. 13, 2013.

- Beckham had 23 combined receptions vs. Tennessee and Washington, the highest 2-game total in Giants history. The previous record belonged to Barber, who had 21 catches (8 vs. Minnesota on Dec. 26, 1999 and a team-record 13 at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000).

- In a 37-27 victory at St. Louis (12/21), Beckham had 8 catches for 148 yards and 2 touchdowns, including an 80-yarder, while Rueben Randle added 6 receptions for a career-high 132 yards and a touchdown. It was the first time the Giants had multiple 100-yard receivers since Sept. 8, 2013, when they had a franchise-record 3 at Dallas (Cruz, 119; Nicks, 114; and Randle, 101).

- Beckham's 8 receptions increased his season total to 79, the most in NFL history for a player in his first 11 career games...His 79 receptions were a Giants rookie record. He broke the former mark held by Shockey, who caught 74 passes in 2002.

- Beckham was the 11th different Giants player with at least 1,000 receiving yards in a season. Those 11 players had then accomplished the feat a total of 22 times.

- Beckham's 2 touchdowns in St. Louis increased his season total to 11, which broke Bill Swiacki's Giants rookie record for scoring receptions, which had stood since 1948 (when Swiacki caught 10).

- Beckham's 80-yard touchdown reception in the 3rd quarter was the Giants' longest play from scrimmage since Sept. 16, 2012, when Eli Manning and Cruz hooked up for an 80-yard touchdown pass...Beckham's 80-yard score was the longest-ever reception by a Giants rookie. The previous long was a 78-yarder by Harry Newman in 1933.

- Beckham and Williams (110 rushing yards) each exceeded 100 yards in the same game for the 2nd time. Before 2014, Giants rookies had not had 100 rushing and 100 receiving yards in the same game even once.

- In St. Louis, Beckham had 148 receiving yards and Randle, his former LSU teammate, added 132. It was the first time 2 players from the same team and the same college each had at least 100 receiving yards in the same game since Sept. 23, 2007, when Oregon State's and the Cincinnati Bengals' T.J. Houshmandzadeh (141) and Chad Johnson (138) did it.

- Beckham concluded his extraordinary rookie season with 12 catches for 185 yards and a touchdown vs.

Philadelphia (12/28). It was his second 12-catch game of the season. Beckham was the first rookie in NFL history and the first Giants player with two 12-catch games in a season.

- Beckham was also the first NFL rookie with 4 consecutive games with at least 130 receiving yards and a touchdown. He was the first rookie with 3.

- Beckham's 185 yards vs. Philadelphia established a Giants rookie record. The former record of 176 was set by Bavaro at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985. The team rookie wide receiver record had been 169 yards, set by Earnest Gray vs. San Francisco on Oct. 14, 1979.

- Beckham and Randle each exceeded 100 yards in the final 2 games, the first time the Giants had two 100-yard receivers in back-to-back games since Oct. 6 (Lionel Manuel/Bobby Johnson) and Oct. 13 (Manuel/Bavaro), 1985.

- Beckham was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month in December, the 2nd month in a row he received the award. He was the first Giants player to win the award twice and just the 2nd wide receiver to be so honored; Arizona's Anquan Boldin was twice named Offensive Rookie of the Month in 2003. But Beckham was the first wide receiver to be honored in consecutive months.

- Beckham led the NFL in receptions (43), receiving yards (606) and touchdown catches (7) in December.

- His 606 receiving yards were the most by a rookie in any calendar month in NFL history.

- Beckham was the 3rd player — and only rookie — to gain at least 600 receiving yards in a single December, joining Calvin Johnson (707 in 2012) and Josh Gordon (658 in 2013). Both Johnson and Gordon played in 5 December games while Beckham played in 4.

- Beckham had at least 8 catches, 130 yards and a touchdown in all 4 December games.

- In each of his last 6 games, Beckham led all players in receiving yards. That is the longest such streak by a rookie in NFL history.

- Beckham led the NFL with 593 receiving yards in November and joined Calvin Johnson (2012) and Andre Johnson (2012) as the only players in NFL history with back-to-back months with at least 500 receiving yards. Beckham is the only rookie to accomplish the feat.

- Beckham (91) and Randle (71) became the first Giants duo to record at least 70 receptions each since 2011 (Cruz, 82 and Hakeem Nicks, 76).

COLLEGE:

- In 3 years at LSU, Beckham played in 40 games with 34 starts at split end and recorded 143 receptions for 2,340 yards (16.4-yard avg.) and 12 touchdowns...Returned 42 kickoffs for 1,044 yards (24.9-yard avg.) and 62 punts for 557 yards (9.0-yard avg.) with 2 scores...Added 77 yards on 7 carries...Attempted 1 pass, assisted on a tackle and recovered a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown... Beckham ranked 7th in school history with 2,340 yards receiving and his 143 catches placed him 9th...His 1,044 kickoff return yards were the 6th-highest total in school history, while his 557 punt return yards ranked 10th... Finished 5th on the all-time chart with 4,118 all-purpose yards... Beckham never missed game action due to an injury...In 2013, Beckham started all 13 games and compiled career-high totals of 59 receptions for 1,152 yards and 8 touchdowns... LANDON COLLINS

HT: 6-0 WT: 222
COLLEGE: ALABAMA
HIGH SCHOOL: DUTCHTOWN (GEISMAR, LA.)
HOW ACQUIRED: 2015 DRAFT 2ND ROUND
NFL EXP.: 4TH YEAR
GIANTS EXP.: 4TH YEAR
FIRST TEAM ALL-PRO: 2016; PRO BOWLS: 2016, 2017

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd-round (33rd pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2015.

GIANTS NOTES:

- In 2016, Collins was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team. Collins and defensive tackle Damon Harrison were the first Giants selected first-team All-Pro since defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul in 2011... Collins was the first Giants safety to play in the Pro Bowl since Antrel Rolle in 2013.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Collins has started all 47 regular-season games and 1 postseason game in which he's played since joining the Giants in 2015... Two-time Pro-Bowler and 2016 first-team All-Pro... Led the team in tackles in each of his first 3 seasons... Career totals include 332 tackles (254 solo), 8 interceptions, 28 passes defended, 2 forced fumbles, 3 fumble recoveries, and 14 special teams tackles... Collins is the only safety in Giants history with three seasons of 95+ tackles.

- In 2017, Collins started each of the first 15 games... Fractured his forearm at Arizona (12/24), and was placed on injured reserve 2 days later... When he did not play in the season finale vs. Washington (12/31), it ended his team-long starting streak at 47 games (plus 1 playoff game). Before the injury, Collins had started every game in his 3 year career.

- Collins led the Giants in tackles for the 3rd consecutive season, with 99 (74 solo), 23 more than runner-up Damon Harrison. He finished with 108 and 125 tackles in his first 2 seasons.

- Chosen as a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team, his 2nd straight selection to the game. He was the only Giants player elected... Collins is the first Giants defensive back to be chosen for 2 Pro Bowls since safety Antrel Rolle (2010, 2013), and the first to be selected in consecutive years since Mark Haynes went to 3 in a row from 1982-84... Collins did not play in the game due to injury.

- Contributed 9 tackles (6 solo) and forced a fumble by Zach Ertz that was recovered by Eli Apple at Philadelphia (9/24)... Had 8 solo tackles vs. the Chargers (10/8)... Intercepted a Trevor Siemian pass and returned it 21 yards at Denver (10/15).

- Earned his 3rd career NFC Defensive Player of the Week Award after registering 14 tackles (10 solo) and an interception in a 12-9 overtime victory over Kansas City on Nov. 19... Followed with another 14-tackle game (season-high 12 solo) at Washington (11/23)...

Contributed 7 tackles (6 solo) at Oakland (12/3) and vs. Dallas (12/10).

- In 2016, Collins started all 16 games and the NFC Wild Card Game and led the team in tackles for the 2nd consecutive season, with 125 (100 solo)... The 125 tackles were the most by a safety in Giants history.

- Collins also had 5 interceptions, 4.0 sacks, and 13 passes defended... He is the only player in NFL history to have 100 or more solo tackles, and at least 2.0 sacks, 5 interceptions, and 12 passes defended... Collins was the first NFL safety with 100+ tackles, at least 5 interceptions, and at least 3.0 sacks since Rodney Harrison, then with San Diego, in 2000... He was the only NFL player in 2016 with at least 5 interceptions and at least 4.0 sacks.

- Collins was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performances in Week 7 against the Rams in London (2 interceptions, including 1 he returned for a touchdown, plus 8 solo tackles), and in Week 9 vs. Philadelphia (12 tackles and an interception). The Giants had a bye in Week 8. He was the first Giants player to be named NFC Defensive Player of Week in consecutive games, the first player in the NFL to do it since Charles Tillman in 2012, and first safety since Troy Polamalu in 2010. At the time, Collins was the only NFL player to lead his team in tackles, sacks and interceptions. Collins was the first Giants player with at least 4 interceptions and 3.0 sacks in the same season since cornerback Jason Sehorn in 1996.

- Collins was also named the NFC Defensive Player of the Month in November, when, in 4 Giants victories, he had 30 tackles (23 solo), including 1.0 sack, and 3 interceptions... Collins was the first Giants player to win an NFC Defensive Player of the Month Award since Jason Pierre-Paul in December 2011. He was the first Giants safety to be honored. The only other Giants defensive back to win the award was Sehorn in December 1997.

- Collins opened the 2016 season with 6 solo tackles and 1 pass defended in a victory in Dallas (9/11)... The following week vs. New Orleans (9/25), he had his first career sack, a 5-yard takedown of Drew Brees that ended the Saints' second possession... Collins was the first Giants safety to register a sack since Craig Dahl tackled New England's Tom Brady for a 5-yard loss on Nov. 15, 2015.

- Collins recorded a 10-yard sack of quarterback Joe Flacco and led the Giants with a then career-high 12 tackles (10 solo), including 2 for losses, vs. Baltimore (10/16).

- Against the Rams in London (10/23), Collins scored the Giants' first defensive touchdown of the season when he intercepted a Case Keenum pass that was tipped by wide receiver Tavon Austin and reached the end zone after a spectacular 44-yard return. It was the Giants' first touchdown by a defensive player since cornerback Trevin Wade scored on a 5-yard fumble return on the game's final play at Tampa Bay on Nov. 8, 2015. It was the Giants' first interception return for a touchdown since Trumaine McBride's 63-yard return at New Orleans on Nov. 1, 2015. Collins later had another interception, and recorded a game-high 8 solo tackles.

- In that game, cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off Keenum in the end zone on the Rams' final 2 possessions. Collins and DRC were the first pair of teammates with multiple interceptions in a single game since Seattle's Byron Maxwell and Richard Sherman in Week 15 of the 2013 season - ironically, against the Giants in MetLife Stadium. They are the first Giants duo to accomplish the feat since Kenny Hill and Terry Kinard vs. San Diego on Sept. 14, 1986.

- When the Giants returned to action after their bye vs. Philadelphia (11/6), Collins intercepted his 3rd pass in 2 games when he picked off a Carson Wentz throw intended for Nelson Agholor on the 2nd play of the game. Collins' 3 picks in 2 games duplicates a feat accomplished by Rodgers-Cromartie from Oct. 25-Nov. 1, 2015...In addition to his interception, Collins had 12 tackles (6 solo) and sacked Wentz for a 12-yard loss on the final play of the first half.... He was the first Giants player with an interception and a sack in the same game since defensive end Kerry Wynn did it at St. Louis on Dec. 21, 2014, and the first defensive back to do it since safety Antrel Rolle on Oct. 27, 2013, at Philadelphia.

- Collins had 5 solo tackles and an interception vs. Cincinnati (11/14). That gave him at least 1 interception in each of 3 consecutive games, the first Giants player to do that since linebacker Michael Boley in the first 3 games of the 2012 season vs. Dallas and Tampa Bay, and at Carolina...Collins was the first Giants player with 4 interceptions in a 3-game span since cornerback Phillippi Sparks had 2 picks in each of 2 consecutive games (Nov. 23 and 30, 1997, at Washington and vs. Tampa Bay).

- Collins had 6 unassisted stops and another pick vs. Chicago (11/20)...Against the Bears, Collins made the big play at the end of the game, intercepting a Jay Cutler pass at the Giants' 21-yard line with 1:11 remaining to end the Bears' last threat. Collins had intercepted at least 1 pass in each of 4 consecutive games, tying a Giants record since the NFL merger...He was the first Giants player to do that since Sparks also had a 4-game streak from Oct. 15-Nov. 12, 1995...Spider Lockhart (1970) and Terry Jackson (1978) were the other Giants players with picks in 4 straight games.

- Collins had 5 interceptions in that 4-game span to become the first Giants player to accomplish that feat since Willie Williams from Nov. 24-Dec. 15, 1968. He was the 2nd NFL player to do it in 2016, joining Kansas City cornerback Marcus Peters (Sept. 18-Oct. 16)...Collins was the first NFL player with at least 5 interceptions and at least 3.0 sacks through his team's first 10 games since Green Bay's LeRoy Butler in 1996 (5 interceptions, 3.5 sacks).

- Collins' interception streak ended in the Giants' victory at Cleveland (11/27), but he contributed 7 tackles (6 solo)...He had 6 tackles (4 solo), and an important 4th-quarter fumble recovery vs. Dallas (12/11), 8 tackles (7 solo) vs. Detroit (12/16), and 9 unassisted stops at Philadelphia (12/22)...Picked up his 4th sack of the season when he dropped Kirk Cousins for a 12-yard loss on the 2nd-to-last play of the first quarter at Washington (1/1). Collins' 4.0 sacks led all NFL safeties.

- Collins had 9 tackles (6 solo), including a sack in his postseason debut in the NFC Wild Card Game at Green Bay (1/8).

- As a rookie in 2015, Collins started all 16 games at free safety, the team's first defensive rookie to start every game since tackle Barry Cofield in 2006. Collins was the first Giants rookie safety to start every game...Collins led the Giants with 108 tackles (80 solo). He also had 9 passes defended, 1 interception, and 4 special teams tackles.

- In his NFL debut, Collins had 4 tackles (2 solo) at Dallas (9/13)...First-round draft choice Ereck Flowers also started that game at left tackle. It was the first time the Giants' first and 2nd-round draft choices started the season opener as rookies since Aug. 31, 1997, when wide receiver Ike Hilliard (first round) and running back Tiki Barber (2nd) started in a victory over Philadelphia.

- Collins had 6 tackles in each of the next 4 games, including 6 solo stops vs. Atlanta (9/20)...Finished with a season-high 9 tackles 3 times: 6 solo vs. Dallas (9/25), 4 solo at New Orleans (11/1), and 7 solo vs. Carolina (12/20)...Also had 6th tackles in 3 games...Picked off a Sam Bradford pass for his first career interception at Philadelphia (10/19).

COLLEGE – MIAMI

HIGH SCHOOL – NORLAND (MIAMI)

HOW ACQUIRED – 2015 DRAFT (1ST ROUND)

NFL EXP. – 4TH YEAR

GIANTS EXP. – 4TH YEAR

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st-round (9th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2015.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In his first 3 seasons, Flowers has started at left tackle in all 46 regular-season games and 1 postseason game in which he played.
- In 2017, Flowers started the first 15 games at left tackle before missing the season finale vs. Washington (12/31) with a groin injury...That ended his streak of consecutive regular-season starts at 44...Because of injuries, the Giants used 10 different starting offensive line combinations, their highest single-season total since the 1970 merger. That was the NFL's third-highest total in 2017 behind Detroit and Green Bay, which each used 11.
- In 2016, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at left tackle...Was a mainstay on an offensive line that allowed only 22 regular-season sacks, behind only Oakland (19) and Pittsburgh (21).
- As a rookie in 2015, Flowers started 15 games at left tackle. He missed the game vs. Washington (9/24) with an ankle injury...Flowers was a key component on a line that helped the Giants finish 6th in the NFL in scoring (26.3 points a game) and 8th in total yards (372.3 a game) and helped Eli Manning throw 35 touchdown passes while setting a franchise record with 387 completions.
- Against the Jets (10/6) Flowers started at left tackle and 7th-round draft choice Bobby Hart made his first career start at right tackle. It was the first time since the 1970 merger the Giants started 2 rookie offensive tackles in the same game...The Giants started 2 rookie tackles (Chad Wheeler and Adam Bisnowaty) in the 2017 finale that Flowers missed with an injury.
- At Philadelphia (10/19) Flowers caught a tipped Manning pass (that lost 11 yards). He was the first Giants offensive lineman to catch a pass since Dec. 8, 1984, when a Phil Simms pass was batted in the air and grabbed by center Kevin Belcher, who gained 4 yards against the Cardinals in St. Louis.

COLLEGE:

- In 3 seasons at the University of Miami, Flowers played in 38 games with 28 starts...Started 4 games at right tackle and 24 at left tackle...As a junior in 2014, he played in 12 games with 11 starts at left tackle...Selected All-Atlantic Coast Conference by the league's coaches and the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association...Did not start at Virginia Tech (10/23) and left that game after suffering a torn meniscus in his knee...Underwent surgery 4 days later and missed just 1 game, vs. North Carolina (11/1)...

His knee injury vs. Tech would result in his string of 21 consecutive starts being snapped the following week...Returned to the starting lineup vs. Florida State (11/15) and helped the Canes' offense gain 492 yards...Major contributor to a line that allowed 21 sacks, the 29th fewest total in the Football Bowl Subdivision ranks...In 2013, Flowers started all 13 games at left tackle as the team finished 9-4...Was 1 of 3 offensive linemen to start every game...Helped the Hurricanes generate 5,536 yards in total offense, and did not yield a sack...In 2012, Flowers started the Hurricanes first 4 games at right tackle before the coaches shifted left tackle veteran Seantrel Henderson over to replace the true freshman in the lineup for the rest of the season...Flowers still saw considerable playing time, as he often relieved Henderson during the season...He was 1 of 10 freshmen to start a game for Miami in 2012.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Raised awareness about stomach cancer through the American Cancer Society during the NFL's "My Cause My Cleats" initiative in Week 13.

PERSONAL:

- Criminology major...Son of Everald Flowers and Tanya Stokes...Flowers attended Norland High School in Miami, where he was a 4-star prospect at offensive tackle by both Rivals.com and Scout.com...Rated the 200th-best player in the country and 20th-best prospect in the state as a senior by Rivals...Helped lead the team to an undefeated record (15-0) as the Vikings beat Crawfordville Wakulla High School for the state Class 5A championship.

2016: PRO BOWL AND SECOND-TEAM AP ALL-PRO

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd-round (39th pick overall) draft choice by the St. Louis Rams in 2012...Signed as a free agent by the Giants on March 10, 2016.

GIANTS NOTES:

- In 2016, Jenkins was named a 2nd-team AP All-Pro, along with fellow cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, wide receiver Odell Beckham, Jr., and defensive end Olivier Vernon. Defensive tackle Damon Harrison and safety Landon Collins were first-team selections.

- Jenkins, Beckham, Collins, and special teamer Dwayne Harris were voted to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Jenkins, Collins and Harris played in the game for the first time. It was the first time the Giants sent two defensive backs to the Pro Bowl since 1963, when Erich Barnes and Dick Lynch were selected.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Jenkins has played in 84 regular-season games with 82 starts, and started the only postseason game in which he has played...His career statistics include 336 tackles (300 solo), 16 interceptions, including 7 returned for touchdowns, 71 passes defended, 5 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery, and 2 sacks...Has also scored touchdowns on returns of a fumble and a blocked field goal.

- In 2017, Jenkins started all 9 games in which he played...Inactive vs. Detroit (9/18) with an ankle injury, and did not play vs. the Rams (11/5) because he was serving a team suspension...Placed on injured reserve (11/29) with an ankle injury...Tied with Ross Cockrell with a team-high 3 interceptions, and scored touchdowns on 2 of them, including a 43-yarder at Denver (10/15) and 53-yarder at Washington (11/23) in his final game of the season...Jenkins also had 31 tackles (27 solo), a team-high nine passes defended, and forced 1 fumble.

- Jenkins has scored 9 career touchdowns – 7 interception returns, 1 fumble return, 1 blocked punt return. At the end of the 2017 season, that placed him 3rd among active defensive players, behind Washington's DeAngelo Hall and Denver's Aqib Talib, who have 10 apiece.

- Posted a season-high 5 tackles in 4 different games, including 5 solo at Tampa Bay (10/1) and Denver (10/15), 3 solo vs. Seattle (10/22), and 4 solo vs. Kansas City (11/19)...Intercepted an Alex Smith pass and returned it 17 yards vs. the Chiefs.

- In his first Giants season in 2016, Jenkins started all 15 regular-season games in which he played, as well as the NFC Wild Card Game; he missed the contest at Philadelphia (12/22) with a rib injury...Finished the season with 49 tackles (44 solo), 3 interceptions, 1 sack, a career-high 18 passes defended, and 1 forced fumble, and the first Pro Bowl selection of his career...Routinely covered the opposition's best receiver and twice held Dallas' Dez Bryant to a single catch.

- Jenkins had 3 solo tackles in his Giants debut at Dallas (9/11)...Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week when he returned the ball 65 yards for a touchdown after Johnathan Hankins blocked Wil Lutz's 38-yard field goal vs. New Orleans (9/18)...Also contributed a season-high 8 tackles (7 solo), and 1 pass defended.

- At Green Bay (10/9), Jenkins had 3 tackles (1 solo), 3 passes defended, and 2 interceptions of Aaron Rodgers passes – 1 in each of the first 2 quarters – that he returned for 26 yards. They were the Giants' first 2 interceptions – and the defense's first takeaways – of the season.

- Jenkins also intercepted a Rodgers pass with 3:04 remaining in the 2nd quarter. He was the first Giants player with 2 picks in a game since Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie twice intercepted Dallas' Matt Cassel on Oct. 25, 2015...It was the second 2-interception game of Jenkins' career. As a rookie with the St. Louis Rams, he twice picked off the Cardinals' Ryan Lindley at Arizona on Nov. 25, 2012. He returned both interceptions for touchdowns to become the first Rams player in history to accomplish that feat.

- Jenkins was the first player to intercept 2 Rodgers passes in a game in Lambeau Field. Bacari Rambo, then a safety for the Bills, had been the last player to twice pick off Rodgers in a game, a feat he accomplished in Buffalo on Dec. 14, 2014.

- Jenkins had 5 tackles (3 solo), 3 passes defended, and 1 sack at Cleveland (11/27). It was his second career sack and first since Oct. 13, 2013, when he had 1 for St. Louis against the Houston Texans.

- In a victory vs. Dallas (12/11), Jenkins had 2 solo tackles, his 3rd interception of the season, and late in the 4th quarter, forced Bryant to fumble after the Pro Bowl receiver made his only catch of the game, a 10-yarder. The ball was recovered by Landon Collins.

- Had 1 assisted tackle in his postseason debut at Green Bay (1/8).

- In 2015, started all 15 games in which he played at right cornerback in his final season with the Rams...Inactive with a concussion vs. Detroit (12/13)...Finished with 64 tackles (56 solo), 3 interceptions, 15 passes defended and 1 forced fumble...Recorded 6 solo tackles and 1 pass defended vs. Arizona (12/6)...Picked off an Andy Dalton pass for his 3rd interception of the season and had 3 solo tackles at Cincinnati (11/29)...Contributed 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 passes defended and 1 forced fumble that was recovered by safety Rodney McLeod and returned 20 yards for a touchdown vs. Cleveland (10/25)... Intercepted a Carson Palmer pass and added 5 solo tackles at Arizona (10/4)... Nabbed his first interception of the season off Ben Roethlisberger and recorded 7 tackles (6 solo) vs. Pittsburgh (9/27).

- In 2014, played in 14 games with 13 starts at right corner... Registered 59 tackles (55 solo), returned both of his interceptions for touchdowns and had 2 forced fumbles... Posted 8 tackles (7 solo), 2 passes defended and 1 forced fumble vs. Arizona (12/11)... Picked off Philip Rivers' pass at the 1-yard line and returned it 99 yards for a touchdown at San Diego (11/23). That was his 2nd interception of the season, 7th of his career, and 5th for a touchdown. He also forced a Keenan Allen fumble and recorded 4 tackles (3 solo)... Had 9 solo tackles vs. Seattle (10/19)... Intercepted a Tony Romo pass intended for Dez Bryant and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown, and had 5 solo tackles, vs. Dallas (9/21).

- In 2013, started all 16 games at right corner... Registered 60 tackles (54 solo), 1 sack, 1 interception, and 14 passes defended... Tied a career high with 4 passes defended, and had 6 tackles (5 solo) vs. New Orleans (12/15)... At Houston (10/13), Jenkins intercepted a T.J. Yates pass, and tackled Yates behind the line of scrimmage for his first career sack... Contributed a career-high 10 tackles (7 solo) at Dallas (9/22).

- As a rookie in 2012, Jenkins played in 15 games with 14 starts at right cornerback... Named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie Team... Led the Rams with a career-high 4 interceptions, including 3 he returned for touchdowns... Tied the NFL rookie record with 3 interception returns for touchdowns and led NFL with 4 total defensive touchdowns... Led the Rams with 14 passes defended, and had a career-high 73 tackles (64 solo)... Jenkins started in his NFL debut, at Detroit (9/9), intercepted a pass from Matthew Stafford at the Rams' 3-yard line and returned it 34 yards. Also had 6 solo tackles... Contributed 4 solo tackles and blocked a 26-yard field goal attempt vs. the Jets (11/18).

- At Arizona (11/25), Jenkins intercepted Ryan Lindley and returned it 36 yards for a touchdown, and recorded a 2nd interception for a touchdown when he picked off Lindley and returned it 39 yards. He was the first Rams player with 2 interceptions for touchdowns in a game, and the 4th rookie in NFL history to accomplish the feat... The previous 3 did it in 1925, 1948 and 1960. Also had 4 solo tackles. Jenkins was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week... Scored again the follow week vs. San Francisco (12/2) when he recovered a fumble at the 49ers' 2-yard line and returned it for a touchdown, his 3rd score in 2 games. Became the first Rams rookie to record 3 defensive touchdowns, and the first Rams player to do it since Mike Jones in 1999. Also had 6 tackles (5 solo)... Picked up his 4th interception, and the 3rd he returned for a touchdown, when he grabbed a Josh Freeman pass and returned it 41 yards for a score... ELI MANNING

QUARTERBACK
COLLEGE: MISSISSIPPI
HIGH SCHOOL: ISIDORE NEWMAN (NEW ORLEANS, LA)
HOW ACQUIRED: TRADE, (S.D. 2004)
GIANTS EXP: 15TH YEAR
PRO BOWLS: 2008, 2011, 2012, 2015

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004. Obtained by the Giants in a trade for quarterback Philip Rivers (whom the Giants had taken with the 4th pick), the Giants' 2004 3rd-round pick, and 2005 1st and 5th-round selections.

AT A GLANCE:

- Manning won the Rozelle Trophy as the Most Valuable Player in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. He is 1 of 5 players in NFL history to win multiple Super Bowl MVP awards, and all of them are quarterbacks (Tom Brady, 4; Joe Montana, 3; Terry Bradshaw and Bart Starr, 2 apiece).
- Manning's record as a starter is 111-103 (.519) in the regular season and 8-4 (.667) in the postseason. The 111 victories are the most by a quarterback in Giants history. Manning set the record with his 96th career victory at Tampa Bay on Nov. 8, 2015. Phil Simms, the former record-holder, won 95 games from 1979-93. Manning is 82-78 against the NFC and 29-25 vs. the AFC. He is 41-40 in NFC East games, 59-49 at home and 52-54 on the road.
- Manning started 210 consecutive regular-season games from Nov. 21, 2004 to Nov. 23, 2017, the 2nd-longest streak by a quarterback in NFL history. Only Brett Favre (297) started more consecutive games than Manning.
- Manning's career totals of 7,396 attempts, 4,424 completions, 51,682 yards, 339 touchdowns, and 228 interceptions are all Giants franchise records. He has 2,749 more attempts, 1,848 more completions, 18,220 more yards, 140 more touchdown passes, and 61 more interceptions than anyone else in Giants history. Phil Simms is No. 2 in every category except interceptions, where Charlie Conerly is 2nd.
- Manning was the co-recipient (with Arizona wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald) of the 2016 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Followed his father, Archie, and brother, Peyton, into the NFL... Archie was the 2nd pick of the 1971 draft and played 14 years with New Orleans, Houston and Minnesota. Peyton was the 1st choice of the 1998 draft by the Indianapolis Colts, was a 5-time NFL Most Valuable Player, and was the winning quarterback in Super Bowl XLI with Indianapolis and Super Bowl 50 with Denver.
- Manning's arrival marked the 1st time the Giants came out of a draft with the top player selected since 1965, when they chose Auburn running back Tucker Fredrickson.
- Manning is the only Giants player to win the Rozelle Trophy multiple times. Previous Giants Super Bowl MVPs include quarterback Phil Simms (Super Bowl XXI) and running back Otis Anderson (Super Bowl XXV).

- In the Giants' 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI on Feb. 5, 2012, Manning hit 9 different targets while completing 30 of 40 passes for 296 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions (a passer rating of 103.8). It was the 25th time in Super Bowl history a quarterback won the MVP award. That has since increased to 29 times. Manning is 1 of 21 different quarterbacks to be named the MVP of a Super Bowl.
- Manning was named MVP in Super Bowl XLII after completing 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands. It was the 2nd year in a row a Manning won the award; his brother received the honor after Super Bowl XLI the previous season.
- Manning is 1 of 32 different starting quarterbacks to win a Super Bowl and 1 of 2 Mannings. Peyton won titles with the Colts in 2006 and the Broncos in 2015. The Mannings were the 18th set of brothers to play in the Super Bowl and the 1st pair of brothers to play quarterback.
- Manning is 1 of 21 quarterbacks to win a Super Bowl without losing one.
- Manning is 1 of 12 quarterbacks to win at least 2 Super Bowls.
- Manning is 1 of 8 quarterbacks taken with the 1st overall selection in the NFL Draft to start a Super Bowl. The others are Terry Bradshaw (4-0 in Super Bowls), Jim Plunkett (2-0), John Elway (2-3), Troy Aikman (3-0), Drew Bledsoe (0-1), Peyton Manning (2-2), and Cam Newton (0-1). The former No. 1 choices are 15-7 in Super Bowls.
- Manning is 1 of 6 quarterbacks with at least 100 victories and 2 Super Bowl triumphs with the same team, joining Terry Bradshaw, Brady, Elway, Joe Montana, and Ben Roethlisberger.
- Manning and Brady were the starting quarterbacks in Super Bowl XLVI, as they were in Super Bowl XLII. It was the 3rd starting quarterback rematch in Super Bowl history and each resulted in a sweep. Terry Bradshaw and Pittsburgh defeated Roger Staubach and Dallas in Super Bowls X and XIII, and Troy Aikman and Dallas beat Jim Kelly and Buffalo in Super Bowls XXVII and XXVIII.
- Super Bowl XLVI was the 1st Super Bowl in which both starting quarterbacks had won a Super Bowl MVP award.
- Manning was the 1st quarterback to start 2 Super Bowls for the Giants. In their first 4 Super Bowls, 4 different quarterbacks started for the Giants. The others were Phil Simms, Jeff Hostetler and Kerry Collins. The Giants were the 1st team to start a different quarterback in each of their first 4 Super Bowls.
- Manning is the only quarterback to wear No. 10 and win a Super Bowl.
- Manning has 5 game-winning 4th quarter or overtime drives in the playoffs. He is 1 of 4 quarterbacks since the 1970 merger to accomplish that feat, joining Brady (11), John Elway (6) and Joe Montana (5).

- In 2011, Manning set an NFL record with 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).

- Manning has thrown at least 2 touchdown passes against each of the NFL's 31 other teams.

- Manning started 210 consecutive regular-season games from Nov. 21, 2004 to Nov. 23, 2017, the 3rd-longest streak by a quarterback in NFL history. Only Brett Favre (297) and Peyton Manning (208) started more consecutive games than Manning.

- Manning's 214 regular-season starts place him 3rd among active quarterbacks entering the 2018 season, behind New England's Tom Brady (251) and New Orleans' Drew Brees (248).

- Tom Coughlin was the Giants' head coach during Manning's first 12 seasons. Their 183 starts together is the 3rd-highest total for a quarterback/coach combination in NFL history, exceeded only by New England's Brady and Bill Belichick (251 entering the 2018 season) and Miami's Dan Marino and Don Shula (184 games from 1983-95). Manning and Coughlin hold the record for the longest streak of consecutive starts by a quarterback/coach tandem.

- Manning's 210 consecutive starts is a record for Giants quarterbacks. The previous mark of 69 starts in a row was set by Fran Tarkenton from 1967-71.

- Manning's 210 consecutive starts is the longest streak by a Giants player since the 1970 merger. Former offensive lineman David Diehl is second with 120 straight starts from 2003-10.

- Manning threw for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in 8 consecutive seasons from 2005-12, the 5th-longest such streak in NFL history. Peyton Manning holds the record with 13 seasons in a row.

- Manning and New Orleans' Drew Brees were the only quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards and at least 20 touchdown passes every season from 2005-12.

- Manning is the 1st Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 13 consecutive seasons, the 1st to have six 4,000-yard seasons (2009-11, 2014-16) and the 1st to throw at least 20 touchdown passes 8 years in a row.

- Manning's career totals of 7,396 attempts, 4,424 completions, 51,682 yards, 339 touchdowns, and 228 interceptions are all Giants franchise records. He has 2,749 more attempts, 1,848 more completions, 18,220 more yards, 140 more touchdown passes, and 61 more interceptions than anyone else in Giants history. Phil Simms is No. 2 in every category except interceptions, where Charlie Conerly is 2nd.

- Manning's 7,396 attempts, 4,424 completions, and 51,682 yards all place him 6th in NFL history, and his 339 touchdown passes leave him 8th, 3 behind Tarkenton and the Chargers' Philip Rivers, for whom he was traded on draft day in 2004.

- Manning holds the Giants career postseason records with 400 pass attempts, 242 completions, 60.5 completion percentage, 2,815 yards and 18 touchdown passes. His 9 postseason interceptions are 1 less than Y.A. Tittle threw.

- Manning's 4,424 regular-season completions have been to 82 different receivers, with Odell Beckham, Jr. (313), Hakeem Nicks (313), and Victor Cruz (303) the top 3 recipients. His 242 postseason completions have gone to 31 different receivers with Nicks (28), Amani Toomer (26), and Cruz (24), the top 3.

- Manning's 339 regular-season touchdown passes have been caught by 50 different receivers, with Beckham (38), Plaxico Burress (33), and Nicks (26), ranking 1-3.

- Manning's career completion percentage of 59.82 is 1st in Giants history among quarterbacks with at least 1,000 attempts. Kerry Collins is 2nd at (58.51).

- Manning has led the Giants on 35 regular-season game-winning drives in his career (victories in which he has rallied the Giants from a 4th-quarter deficit or tie to win). That is the 4th-highest total among active quarterbacks entering the 2018 season, behind Tom Brady (42), Drew Brees (41), and Ben Roethlisberger (39).

- Manning has played in 216 regular-season games in a Giants uniform. He shares the franchise record with Hall of Famer Michael Strahan, who played for the Giants from 1993-2007.

MANNING IS 1 OF 7 PLAYERS IN GIANTS HISTORY TO PLAY AT LEAST 14 SEASONS WITH THE TEAM:

15 Phil Simms (1979-93)

15 Mel Hein (1931-45)

14 Eli Manning (2004-17)

14 George Martin (1975-88)

14 Joe Morrison (1959-72)

14 Charlie Conerly (1948-61)

- Manning has been selected to play in 4 Pro Bowls and played in the game 3 times. He played in the game following the 2008 and 2012 seasons, and was selected but did not play in the 2011 Pro Bowl because the Giants were in the Super Bowl. When he played in his 1st Pro Bowl following the 2008 season Manning became the 1st Giants quarterback to be selected to the game since Simms in 1993.

- Co-recipient (with Larry Fitzgerald) of the 2016 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award.

- Named The Sporting News' 2008 Pro Athlete of the Year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 216 regular-season games with starts in his last 214 appearances, and has started all 12 postseason games in which he's played. The 216 games played ties Hall of Famer Michael Strahan for the franchise record.

- In the regular season, Manning has completed 4,424 of 7,396 passes (59.8%) for 51,682 yards, 339 touchdowns and 228 interceptions for a passer rating of 83.5... Manning is first in franchise history in attempts, completions, passing yards, touchdown passes and interceptions.

- Manning's two 300-yard games in 2017 increased his Giants-record total to 45. Simms is second with 21. The Giants are 19-26 in regular-season games in which Manning throws for 300 yards, 4-5 when he throws for 400 yards and 1-0 when he passes for 500 yards. They are 2-0 in his postseason 300-yard games.

- Manning holds the Giants career postseason records with 400 pass attempts, 242 completions, 60.5 completion percentage, 2,815 yards and 18 touchdown passes. His 9 postseason interceptions are 1 less than Y.A. Tittle threw.

- Manning has started games in 38 different stadiums, including 2 in London — Wembley and Twickenham. His regular-season record in MetLife Stadium is 35-30 (including 1-0 as a visitor). Manning was 26-19 in Giants Stadium (1-0 as a visitor).

- Manning has faced 89 different starting quarterbacks and 78 head coaches in the regular season.

- In 2017, Manning started all 15 games in which he played. He did not play at Oakland (12/3), ending his streak of 210 consecutive regular-season starts (plus 12 in the postseason) dating back to his rookie season in 2004.

- Manning's 210-game starting streak was the 2nd-longest by a quarterback in NFL history, behind Brett Favre's 297. His brother Peyton is 3rd with 208 straight starts. Manning started every Giants game from Nov. 21, 2004 to Nov. 23, 2016, when the Giants lost in Washington on Thanksgiving night... Manning's streak was 90 games-longer than that of any other Giants player since the 1970 merger. Offensive lineman David Diehl started 120 consecutive games from 2003-10... The 210-game streak was more than three times longer than the previous record for a Giants quarterback. Pro Football Hall of Famer Fran Tarkenton started 69 games in a row from 1967-71.

- Manning's 210 consecutive starts was the 6th-longest streak by any player since the merger:

Favre, Brett	297
Matthews, Bruce	229
Shields, Will	223
Barber, Ronde	215
Fletcher, London	215
Manning, Eli	210
Brooks, Derrick	208
Manning, Peyton	208

- Manning completed 352 of 571 passes (61.6%) for 3,468 yards, 19 touchdowns, and 13 interceptions, for a passer rating of 80.4. It was the first season since 2013 he did not throw for at least 4,000 yards or at least 20 touchdown passes... Manning was sacked 31 times, increasing his career total to 359.

- Manning owns the 6 highest single-season completion totals in Giants history: 387 in 2015, 379 in 2014, 377 in 2016, 359 in 2011, 352 in 2017, and 339 in 2010.

- Manning is 1 of 3 quarterbacks with at least 300 completions in each of the last 9 seasons. The others are Drew Brees and Philip Rivers.

- Manning is 1 of 7 quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for at least 3,000 yards in 13 different seasons, joining Favre (18), Peyton Manning (16), Brady (14), Dan Marino (13), Drew Brees (13), and John Elway (12).

- In 2 games against Philadelphia in 2017, Manning threw 104 passes, and completed 72 for 800 yards. All 3 figures are Giants records for a single season against an opponent. All 3 were also the high totals for any quarterback against any team in 2017. On Sept. 24 in Lincoln Financial Field, Manning completed 35 of 47 passes for 366 yards, 3 touchdowns and 2 interceptions. In the rematch on Dec. 17 in MetLife Stadium, Manning completed 37 of 57 passes for 434 yards, 3 touchdowns, and 1 interception... The 57 passes were the 2nd-highest total of his career; he had 63 attempts at Philadelphia on Dec. 22, 2016. Manning's 37 completions were the 3rd-highest total of his career; he completed 41 passes vs. San Francisco on Oct. 11, 2015, and 38 at Philadelphia last season. The 434 yards were the 4th-highest total of his career; Manning threw for 510 yards vs. Tampa Bay on Sept. 16, 2002, 450 at Dallas on Sept. 8, 2013 and 441 vs. San Francisco on Oct. 11, 2015.

- The 366 and 434-yard games against the Eagles were Manning's only 300-yard performances of the season. The Giants are 19-26 when Manning throws for at least 300 yards in the regular season.

- Manning threw 6 touchdown passes against the Eagles, tying his 2nd-highest total against an opponent in a single season. He threw 7 touchdown passes against Washington in 2014 and Philadelphia in 2012. Manning also threw 6 touchdowns against New Orleans in 2015 — in 1 game.

- Manning's 434 yards on Dec. 17 raised his season total to 3,070 yards. It was the 13th consecutive season he threw for at least 3,000 yards, tying him with his brother, Peyton, for the 3rd-longest streak in NFL history. Hall of Famer Brett Favre threw for at least 3,000 yards in 18 consecutive seasons, and Brees has an active streak of 14 straight years.

- Manning's 252 passing yards in the first 2 quarters in that game were his most ever in the first half of a game. He has thrown for more yardage than that in the 2nd half several times.

- Manning has thrown 51 touchdown passes vs. the Eagles, his highest total against a single opponent. He has thrown for 49 scores against Dallas.

- In the loss at Tampa Bay (10/1), Manning scored the Giants' first touchdown on a 14-yard run with 3:17 remaining in the 2nd quarter. It was a) his 6th career rushing touchdown, b) his first since Sept. 24, 2014 at Washington, and c) the longest of his career. His previous long touchdown run was a 10-yarder against the Miami Dolphins in London on Oct. 28, 2007. Five of Manning's 6 rushing touchdowns have been in road games. The Giants are 4-2 when Manning rushes for a touchdown.

- When the Giants hosted the Chargers (10/8), the starting quarterbacks were Manning and Rivers, who were traded for each other during the 2004 NFL Draft. The game was the first in NFL history in which the opposing starting quarterbacks were from the same draft class and each came into the game with at least 300 career touchdown passes... The pair's 646 combined touchdown passes entering the game were the 2nd-most by opposing starting quarterbacks from the same draft class, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino and John Elway of the 1983 Draft class, who combined for 699 touchdown passes when they faced each other on Dec. 21, 1998.

- When the Giants won at Denver (10/15), Manning completed 11 of 19 passes for 128 yards, 1 touchdown, and no interceptions. The 19 attempts were his lowest total in a full regular-season game since he threw 15 passes at Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2007... Manning threw 18 passes in an NFC Divisional Playoff game in Dallas on Jan. 13, 2008... He threw 10 passes vs. Oakland on Oct. 11, 2009, but played only 5 series in that game, and 19 at Minnesota on Dec. 28, 2008, but did not play in the 2nd half.

- A 37-yard completion to Sterling Shepard with just over 10 minutes remaining vs. the Rams (11/5) lifted Manning over the 50,000-yard mark for his career. He was the 7th player in NFL history to throw for more than 50,000 yards. The others are Peyton Manning, Favre, Brees, Brady, Dan Marino and John Elway.

Sept. 20, 2015 (171st game)

MANNING THREW FOR HIS 50,000TH YARD

Nov. 5, 2017 (209th game)

- Manning engineered his 35th game-winning, regular-season drive (drives in the 4th quarter or overtime in which he led the Giants from a tie or deficit to win the game) in the Giants' 12-9 victory vs. Kansas City (11/19)... He ranks 4th among active quarterbacks in such drives, behind Tom Brady (42), Drew Brees (41), and Ben Roethlisberger (30).

- In 2016, Manning started all 16 games for the 12th consecutive season, and increased his starting streak to 199 consecutive regular-season games, the longest among active players, regardless of position. He was 1 of 14 quarterbacks to start all 16 regular-season games.

- Manning completed 377 of 598 passes (63.0%) for 4,017 yards, 26 touchdowns, 16 interceptions, and a passer rating of 86.0. Manning exceeded 4,000 passing yards for the 3rd consecutive season, and the 6th time in his career.

- Manning's 63.0 completion percentage was slightly less than his career-best of 63.1, set in 2014.

- Manning joined Cincinnati's Andy Dalton and Detroit's Matthew Stafford as the only quarterbacks to throw every 1 of their team's passes in 2016.

- The 2016 season was the 11th in which Manning threw at least 20 touchdown passes. The only other quarterbacks with more such seasons are Peyton Manning (16), Favre (15), Brady (15), Brees (14), and Marino (13).

- Manning led the Giants to an 11-5 record and the 6th postseason berth of his career.

- In the home opener vs. New Orleans (9/18), Manning completed a season-high 78% of his passes (32 of 41), including a 34-yarder to Victor Cruz late in the 4th quarter that set up the game-winning field goal... Manning's 350 passing yards vs. Washington (9/25), increased his career total to 45,112. He became the 10th player in NFL history to reach 45,000 career passing yards.

- Manning's 67-yard completion to rookie Paul Perkins at Minnesota (10/3) was the 2nd-longest of his career to a running back. On Dec. 6, 2009, against Dallas, he threw a 74-yarder to Brandon Jacobs... Manning played his 200th game in a Giants uniform vs. the Vikings (189 regular season and 11 postseason) to become the 10th quarterback in NFL history to play at least 200 combined games with 1 team.

- Manning started his 200th game for the Giants (189 regular season, 11 postseason) in a victory vs. Baltimore

(10/16) to become the 6th quarterback in NFL history to start at least 200 games for 1 franchise, joining Elway (Denver), Favre (Green Bay), Peyton Manning (Indianapolis), Marino (Miami), and Brady (New England).

- Manning threw for a season-high 403 yards vs. the Ravens.

- Against Baltimore, Manning threw touchdown passes of 24 yards to Roger Lewis, Jr. and 75 and 66 yards to Odell Beckham, Jr. The last, on a 4th-and-one with 1:24 remaining, was the game-winner. Each of the first 2 was a milestone achievement. The first was the 300th touchdown pass of Manning's career; he became the 8th quarterback in history to throw for at least 300 scores. The 2nd broke a tie with Pro Football Hall of Famer Elway and moved Manning into sole possession of 7th place on the NFL's career list.

- Manning threw his 300th touchdown pass in his 191st game. That is the 6th fastest (or 3rd slowest) to 300 among the 8 players on the list. Peyton Manning and Marino each reached the milestone in their 157th game.

- In a victory vs. the Los Angeles Rams in London (10/23), Manning completed 24 of 37 passes for 196 yards — and did not throw a touchdown pass or interception, and was not sacked. It was just the 2nd time in his career he had zero touchdown passes and interceptions while also avoiding a sack. The previous instance was on Oct. 16, 2011 in a victory vs. Buffalo.

- Manning threw a season-high 4 touchdown passes in a 28-23 victory vs. Philadelphia (11/6). Beckham had 2 of the scores, and rookies Sterling Shepard and Roger Lewis, Jr. had the others.

- It was the 12th and most recent game in which Manning threw exactly 4 touchdown passes; the Giants are 7-5 in those games.

- Manning has thrown at least 4 touchdown passes in a game 14 times (including 1 game apiece with 5 and 6 touchdown passes). That ties Roethlisberger for the 4th-highest total among active quarterbacks, behind Brees (31), Brady (28) and Aaron Rodgers (21). The NFL record is 35 by Peyton Manning... Manning's 14 games with 4 or more touchdown passes are twice as many as any other quarterback in Giants history. Hall of Famer Y.A. Tittle had 7 such games.

- Manning threw touchdown passes of 26 and 1 yards to Beckham, 30 yards to Lewis, and 32 yards to Shepard. It was the 2nd time in his career he threw 3 scoring pass of 25 or more yards in a game. On Sept. 25, 2011 in Philadelphia, he threw touchdown passes of 40 yards to Brandon Jacobs and 74 and 28 yards to Victor Cruz.

- In the last 28 seasons (1990-2017), a quarterback has thrown 3 touchdown passes of 25 or more yards in a game vs. the Eagles 3 times: Eli Manning in 2011 and 2016, and Peyton Manning on Nov. 10, 2002.

- In a 21-20 Monday night victory vs. Cincinnati (11/14), Manning completed 28 of 44 passes for 240 yards, 3 touchdowns, and 2 interceptions... Manning threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jerrell Adams for the rookie's first NFL score, as well as touchdown passes of 10 yards to Beckham and the game-winning 3-yarder to Shepard, which was Manning's 100th regular-season touchdown pass in MetLife Stadium.

- In a 27-13 victory at Cleveland (11/27), Manning threw at least 3 touchdown passes for the 5th and last time in 2016, tying the career-high for 3-touchdown games he previously set in 2012, 2014, and 2015.

- Manning completed 17 of 28 passes for 193 yards, a touchdown, and an interception in a 10-7 victory vs. Dallas (12/11)...In a 17-6 victory vs. Detroit (12/18), Manning completed 20 of 28 passes for 201 yards, touchdowns to Shepard and Beckham, and no interceptions for a passer rating of 115.3 that was just under his season-best 115.4 that he posted in Cleveland...Manning completed 71.4% of his passes, his 2nd-highest percentage of the season. He completed 78% of his passes (32 of 41) against New Orleans on Sept. 18.

- Manning completed his first 11 passes, a career-high to start a game. He had previously completed his first 10 passes on 2 occasions: Nov. 13, 2011 at San Francisco, and Oct. 19, 2015 at Philadelphia...Manning's 20 completions increased his career total to 4,017. He became the 7th quarterback in NFL history with at least 4,000 completions.
- The victory vs. Detroit was Manning's 100th start in a home game. He was 57-43.

- Manning made his 198th consecutive regular-season start and played in his 200th game at Philadelphia (12/22)...He became the 4th player in franchise history to play in at least 200 games, joining Michael Strahan (216), Howard Cross (207), and George Martin (201).

- Against the Eagles, Manning threw a Giants-record 63 passes. The former record of 62 was set by Phil Simms at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985 (also a loss). Manning's previous career-high was 54 pass attempts vs. San Francisco on Oct. 11, 2015. He threw 57 passes vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 17, 2017.

- Manning completed 38 passes, the 2nd-highest total of his career. He completed 41 passes in the 2015 victory vs. San Francisco.

- In Philadelphia, Manning threw 63 passes without getting sacked. That was the highest number of passes thrown by an NFL quarterback without a sack since Sept. 21, 2008, when Tampa Bay's Brian Griese threw 67 passes in an overtime victory in Chicago. The NFL record is 70 passes without being sacked, set by Drew Bledsoe on Nov. 13, 1994, in New England's overtime victory vs. Minnesota.

- Manning played in his 12th career postseason game in the Giants' 38-13 NFC Wild Card loss at Green Bay (1/8)...That is the 2nd-highest total in Giants history. Pro Football Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor played in 15 playoff games...Manning's NFL-record streak of 5 consecutive road playoff games won by a starting quarterback ended...Manning is 8-2 in his last 10 postseason starts, and 8-4 overall.

- Manning completed 23 of 44 passes for 29 yards, including a 41-yard touchdown to Tavarres King (which pulled the Giants to within 14-13 with 5:16 remaining in the 3rd quarter), and 1 interception (with 16 seconds left in the game). The late pick ended Manning's streak of 155 consecutive postseason passes without a pick. His most recent postseason interception had also been in Lambeau, on Jan. 15, 2012.

- Manning tied Phil Simms (44 at San Francisco on Dec. 29, 1984), for the 2nd-highest pass attempts total by a Giants quarterback in a playoff game. Manning holds the record with 58 in the 2011 NFC Championship Game, also a road game vs. the 49ers.

- In 2015 Manning started all 16 games for the 11th consecutive season, and increased his starting streak to 183 regular-season games in a row...Manning played in his 3rd Pro Bowl, and was invited to the game for the 4th time.

- Completed 387 of 618 passes (62.6 percent) for 4,432 yards, 35 touchdowns and 14 interceptions...His 618 pass attempts and 387 completions were Giants records. He held the previous marks with 601 passes and 379 completions in 2014...Manning's completion percentage of 62.6 was slightly below his team-record, 2014 percentage of 63.1.

- Manning's 4,432 yards was the 2nd-highest total in Giants history. He holds the record with 4,933 yards in 2011. Manning owns 6 of the eight 4,000-yard passing seasons in Giants history. Kerry Collins and Phil Simms have 1 apiece.

- Manning's 35 touchdown passes were a career-high, and left him 1 shy of the franchise record set by Hall of Famer Y.A. Tittle in 1963.

- Manning's had a career-high 93.6 passer rating. His previous best was 93.1 in 2009...Manning threw 14 interceptions in 2015, the same number he threw in 2009 and 2014. His career low is 10, which he threw in 2008.

- Manning threw for at least 300 yards 6 times, increasing his career total to 39 300-yard games. The Giants were 3-3 in those games in 2015. The six 300-yard games were the 2nd-highest single-season total in Giants history. Manning holds the record with 8 in 2011.

- On Nov. 1 in New Orleans, Manning threw a career-high 6 touchdown passes - 3 to Odell Beckham Jr., 2 to Dwayne Harris, and 1 to Shane Vereen. His previous best was 5 touchdown passes vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 30, 2012...The 6 touchdown passes tied for the 2nd-highest total in Giants history; Y.A. Tittle threw for 7 scores at Washington on Oct. 28, 1962, and for 6 vs. Dallas on Dec. 16, 1962.

- Manning threw the 6 touchdown passes without an interception, the 15th time in NFL history a quarterback had those impressive numbers. But Manning was the 1st quarterback to do it in a loss. When Tittle set the Giants record with 7 touchdown passes on Oct. 28, 1962, he did not throw an interception.

- Manning followed his 6 touchdown passes in New Orleans with 2 the following week at Tampa Bay. The 8 touchdown throws was the highest 2-game total in 1 season in his career, surpassing the 7 he had on Oct. 25-Nov 7, 2010, when he had 4 at Dallas and 3 in Seattle. He matched that total later in the season when he threw 4 touchdown passes in back-to-back-games - at Miami (12/14) and vs. Carolina (12/20) - to become the 1st quarterback in Giants history to accomplish that feat in a single season. Manning actually had a higher total 2-game total when he threw for 5 touchdowns in the 2012 season finale vs. Philadelphia, and 4 in the 2013 opener at Dallas.

- The Giants' win at Tampa Bay on Nov. 8 was Manning's 96th regular-season victory as the Giants' starting quarterback, a franchise Giants record. He had shared the mark with Simms, who won 95 games in 15 seasons from 1979-93.

- Completed 27 of 40 passes for 292 yards and 2 touchdowns, including a 67-yarder to Odell Beckham Jr., vs. Atlanta (9/20). Manning surpassed 40,000 career passing yards vs. the Falcons. His 18-yard run tied his career long...Hit 23 of 32 passes for 279 yards and 2 touchdowns in the Giants' 1st victory of the season, vs. Washington (9/24). Did not throw an interception for the 3rd straight game.

- Completed 20 of 35 passes for 212 yards and 3 touchdowns at Buffalo (10/4)...His long pass was a 51-yard touchdown to Rashad Jennings. Manning threw 142 passes without an interception, his career long streak to start a season, before Bills' Stephon Gilmore picked 1 off late in the game.

- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after setting a franchise record with 41 completions on a then career-high 54 passes for a season-high 441 yards and 3 touchdowns vs.

San Francisco (10/11)...The former record for completions was 40 by Simms at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985...Manning completed 15 consecutive passes over 3 series...The deciding score was his 12-yard pass to Larry Donnell with 21 seconds left in the game...The victory was Manning's franchise-record 102nd (including postseason games) as a starting quarterback...Manning threw the 54 passes without being sacked, then the highest total in his career.

- Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for the 2nd time in 2015 after completing 27 of 31 passes for 337 yards and 4 touchdowns at Miami (12/14)...Manning's 87.1 completion percentage is a career high, and is tied for the 4th-highest single-game percentage in NFL history (minimum 30 attempts)...It was the 5th game in Manning's career in which he completed at least 77 percent of his passes. All 5 of them were Giants road games...Manning's passer rating of 151.5 was the highest of his career in a game in which he played all 4 quarters.

- Completed 29 of 46 passes for 245 yards with 4 touchdowns and 1 interception vs. Carolina (12/20)...Completed 24 of 42 passes for 302 yards and 2 touchdowns vs. Philadelphia (1/3).

- In 2014, Manning was 1 of 16 quarterbacks to start every 1 of his team's games.

- Manning completed 379 of 601 passes for 4,410 yards, 30 touchdowns and 14 interceptions...Manning's 601 pass attempts and 379 completions were then Giants records. He held the previous marks with 589 passes and 359 completions in 2011.

- Manning completed a career-high and franchise-record 63.1 percent of his passes in 2014. Manning's 4,410 passing yards were then the 2nd-highest total in Giants history.

- Manning's 30 touchdown passes were then the 2nd-highest total of his career and the 4th-highest in Giants history...He threw at least 1 touchdown pass in 15 of 16 games in 2014, tying the career high he set in 2005, his 1st full year as a starter. The only game in which he did not throw a touchdown pass was the 27-0 loss at Philadelphia (10/12).

- Manning's 14 interceptions were 13 fewer than he threw in 2013...His passer rating of 92.1 was then the 3rd-highest of his career. In 2014, Manning had 8 games with a rating of at least 100.0, equaling the career high he set in 2009.

- Manning had more passing yards than the opposing starting quarterback in each of the Giants' last 9 games. That is 1 shy of the team record of 10 consecutive games, set by Y.A. Tittle in 1963 and equaled by Fran Tarkenton in 1969 and 1971.

- Manning scored on a 1-yard touchdown run in the 4th quarter at Washington (9/25)...It was the 5th rushing touchdown of his career and 1st since Sept. 11, 2011, also in FedEx Field.

- In victories over Houston, Washington and Atlanta from Sept. 21-Oct. 5, Manning had passer ratings of 123.2, 117.5 and 104.9. It was the 1st time he had 3 consecutive ratings of 100.0 or better since Oct. 10-25, 2010, when he had ratings of 104.4 at Houston, 100.4 vs Detroit and 125.8 at Dallas.

- Manning threw 52 passes without an interception vs. Indianapolis (11/3), then the highest number of passes without a pick in franchise history. The previous mark of 51 passes without an interception was set by Scott Brunner vs. the St. Louis Rams on Dec. 26, 1982.

- Manning's 18-yard run vs. the Colts tied his career high and was the Giants' longest rush of the game. He had lost had the team's longest run on Nov. 6, 2011 at New England, a 12-yarder.

- On Nov. 9 at Seattle, Manning started his 160th career game, breaking the franchise record for quarterbacks set by Phil Simms from 1979-93...His 3rd-quarter pass in Seattle was tipped in the end zone by Beckham and intercepted by safety Earl Thomas, ending Manning's career-long streak of 176 passes without throwing an interception. That far eclipsed Manning's previous best of 124 passes without an interception, set in 2005.

- Manning tied his career high with 5 interceptions vs. San Francisco (11/16)...He entered the game with 6 all season, including 1 in his previous 5 games. Manning also threw 5 interceptions vs. Seattle on Dec. 15, 2013.

- Manning threw the 250th touchdown pass of his career, a 1-yarder to tight end Adrian Robinson, vs. Dallas (11/23). He became the 16th player in NFL history to throw at least 250 touchdown passes.

- Manning completed 25 of 32 passes for 391 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 148.8 at St. Louis (12/21). The rating was then his career high for a full game. Manning's previous best was a 145.7 rating at Philadelphia on Sept. 25, 2011.

- In the season finale vs. Philadelphia (12/28), Manning completed 28 of 53 passes for 429 yards, 1 touchdown and 1 interception. The 53 passes tied his then career high, set on Nov. 27, 2005 at Seattle and tied on Dec. 16, 2007 vs. Washington...Manning threw for a combined 820 yards against St. Louis and Philadelphia, the 2nd-highest 2-game total in Giants history. Phil Simms passed for 945 yards on Oct. 6 and 13, 1985 (432 vs. Dallas and 513 at Cincinnati).

- In 2013, Manning started all 16 games and completed 317 of 551 passes (57.5%) for 3,818 yards, 18 touchdowns and a franchise-record 27 interceptions...Was sacked a career-high 39 times...For the 1st time since he was a rookie in 2004, Manning threw fewer touchdown passes than interceptions. That season, he threw 6 touchdown passes and 9 picks...Became the Giants' career leader in pass attempts and passing yards to become No. 1 in all of the major passing categories.

- Manning threw 24 passes in the season finale vs. Washington (12/29) to increase his career total to 5,008. He became the 21st player in NFL history to throw at least 5,000 passes. Simms is 2nd in Giants history with 4,647 pass attempts. Manning moved past Simms and into 1st place in Giants history on Oct. 6, 2013, when he threw 52 passes vs. Philadelphia.

- Manning's 1st and last passes of the season were each intercepted, the 1st by DeMarcus Ware at Dallas (9/8), the last by Washington's Josh Wilson (12/29).

- Against Washington, Manning completed 10 of 24 passes for 152 yards, a touchdown and an interception before suffering a sprained ankle that forced him to miss the 2nd half. Manning was hurt with 56 seconds remaining in the 2nd quarter, when his leg got caught under defensive end Chris Baker as he threw an incomplete pass to Peyton Hillis. On the next play, Manning threw the pass that was intercepted by Wilson. It was just the 2nd time in his career that Manning left a game early with an injury. On Sept. 9, 2007 in Dallas, Manning bruised his shoulder on a failed 2-point conversion in the 4th quarter. He later threw his 4th touchdown pass of the game, but was replaced by Jared Lorenzen on the Giants' final possession. Manning started the following week vs. Green Bay.

- Manning completed 78.6 percent of his passes (22 of 28), while Robert Griffin III lagged slightly behind at 75 percent (24 of 32) at Washington (12/1). It was the 1st time since the 1970 merger that each of the starting quarterbacks in a Giants game completed at least 75 percent of their passes. Manning's completion percentage of 78.6 was then the 2nd-highest in his career for a full game.

- Completed 23 of 42 passes for 256 yards, 1 touchdown and an interception in an overtime victory at Detroit (12/22), where he led the Giants on an 11-play, 45-yard drive that ended with Josh Brown's game-winning 45-yard field goal with 7:28 elapsed in overtime... Hit 25 of 35 passes for 279 yards, a touchdown and an interception vs. Green Bay (11/17)... Completed 23 of 39 passes for 200 yards and 1 touchdown in the Giants' 1st victory of the season vs. Minnesota (10/21)... Threw a season-high 52 passes (completing 24 for 334 yards, 2 touchdowns and 3 interceptions) vs. Philadelphia (10/6)... Had season-high totals of 450 yards and 4 touchdown passes in season opener at Dallas (9/8).

- In 2012, Manning started all 16 games and completed 321 of 536 passes (59.9%) for 3,948 yards, 26 touchdowns, 15 interceptions and a passer rating of 87.2. His streak of consecutive 4,000-yard seasons ended at 3.

- Originally a 2nd alternate, he played in his 2nd Pro Bowl after Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers pulled out of the game.

- Threw a then career high 5 touchdown passes — 2 to Rueben Randle and 1 apiece to David Wilson, Victor Cruz and Henry Hynoski — vs. Philadelphia (12/30)... It was then the 5th time in history a Giants quarterback threw for at least 5 touchdowns in a game... Manning threw 3 touchdown passes in a 1st quarter for the only time in career. His only other 3-touchdown-pass quarter was in the 4th at Seattle on Sept. 24, 2006, when he helped the Giants close a 42-3 deficit to 42-30.

- Manning's 9-yard pass to Domenik Hixon in the 2nd quarter at Atlanta (12/16) was the 2,577th completion of Manning's career, a Giants record.

- Completed 22 of 35 passes for 259 yards, 4 touchdowns and 2 interceptions for a passer rating of 99.6 vs. New Orleans (12/9)... It was his 7th career 4-touchdown game, tying Tittle's franchise record.

- Completed 16 of 30 passes for 249 yards and 3 touchdowns vs. Green Bay (11/25)... Increased his career total to 200 touchdown passes to pass Simms (199) and become the Giants' all-time leader... Set the record on a 13-yard touchdown pass to Hakeem Nicks in the 3rd quarter... Manning's career-long, 106-pass streak without a touchdown pass ended when he threw a 16-yard score to Randle with 2:38 remaining in the 1st quarter.

- Hit 10 of 24 passes for 125 yards and 1 interception vs. Pittsburgh (11/4)... Increased his career total to 30,005 yards, passing Randall Cunningham (29,979) to become the 34th quarterback in history with at least 30,000 passing yards.

- Completed 26 of 40 passes for 337 yards vs. Washington (10/21)... It was his 25th regular-season 300-yard game... Found Cruz deep downfield for a game-winning 77-yard touchdown with 1:13 remaining. It is the longest game-winning touchdown in the final 2 minutes of a game in Giants history.

- Completed 15 of 28 passes for 193 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions in a 26-3 rout of the eventual NFC champion 49ers at San Francisco (10/14)... The 193 yards ending his streak of consecutive regular-season games with at least 200 passing yards at 24, then the 2nd-longest in NFL history.

- Completed 25 of 37 passes for 259 yards, 3 touchdowns to Cruz and 1 interception vs. Cleveland (10/7)... Posted his 24th consecutive 200-yard passing game, then the 2nd-longest streak in NFL history behind Hall of Famer Dan Fouts' 45 in a row from 1980-83... Led Giants on touchdown drives of 92 and 95 yards.

- Completed 24 of 42 passes for 309 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception at Philadelphia (9/30)... It was Manning's 23rd consecutive game with at least 200 passing yards, breaking a tie with New Orleans' Drew Brees (2007-09) to give Manning what was then the 2nd-longest streak in history.

- Passed for a career-high 510 yards while completing 31 of 51 passes, 3 touchdowns and 3 interceptions in a comeback victory vs. Tampa Bay (9/16). It was the 1st time in Giants history they won a regular season-game in which they threw at least 50 passes... Manning's previous career high was 420 yards vs. Seattle on Oct. 19, 2011... Manning's 51 passes increased his career total to 4,004 to join Simms as the only Giants quarterbacks to throw at least 4,000 passes... Manning's 510 yards were the 2nd-highest total by a quarterback in Giants history, behind Simms' 513 yards at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985. It was the 2nd-highest total by an NFL quarterback in 2012 — and the highest total in a game that was completed in 4 quarters.

- Houston's Matt Schaub threw for 527 yards in an overtime victory vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 18... Manning became the 9th quarterback in history to throw for at least 510 yards in a regular-season game... Manning, Cruz (11 receptions for 179 yards) and Nicks (10 for 199 yards) joined 3 Hall of Famers — quarterback Norm Van Brocklin and receivers Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch and Tom Fears of the 1951 Los Angeles Rams — as the only teammates in history with 500 passing yards, plus 2 receivers with at least 150 yards, in the same game.

- In 2011, Manning started all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason games, and set Giants records for pass attempts (589), completions (359) — which he has since broken — and yards (4,933). The yardage total was the 4th-highest in the NFL in 2011, and then the 6th-highest in league history. It was Manning's 3rd consecutive 4,000-yard season.

- Manning's 29 touchdown passes were then the 2nd-highest total of his career (31 in 2010) and his 16 interceptions were 9 fewer than he threw the previous season. His passer rating of 92.9 was then the 2nd-highest of his career (93.1 in 2009).

- Manning led the Giants to their 3rd NFC East championship and 5th postseason berth in his first 7 full seasons as the team's quarterback.

- In the Giants' 4-game postseason, Manning completed 106 of 163 passes (65.0%) for 1,219 yards, 9 touchdowns and 1 interception while leading the Giants to their 2nd Super Bowl victory in 5 seasons.

- Manning was 1 of 2 quarterbacks to throw every 1 of his team's passes in 2011. The other was San Diego's Philip Rivers. Manning and Rivers were traded for each other during the 2004 NFL Draft... Manning was the only quarterback to throw every 1 of his team's passes in both the 2010 and 2011 seasons... With Manning throwing every pass, the Giants shattered a team record with 295.5 passing yards a game. The former record, set in 2009, was 251.2 yards.

- Manning had a career-high eight 300-yard passing games. That increased his career total to 22, breaking Simms' former team record of 21... Manning threw for at least 400 yards 3 times: 420 vs. Seattle (10/9), 406 at New Orleans (11/28), and 400 at Dallas (12/11).

- The Giants led the NFL with 18 completions of 40 or more yards in 2011. Green Bay and Detroit tied for second with 16.

- Manning was selected to his 2nd Pro Bowl (though he didn't play in the game because the Giants participated in the Super Bowl).

- Manning was the 1st NFL quarterback to throw at least 4 touchdown passes of at least 72 yards since Kurt Warner of St. Louis in 2000 (6). He was the 1st Giants quarterback to do it since Earl Morrall threw 4 in 1965.

- Manning threw an NFL-record 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes in 2011. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).

- Manning led the Giants to 5 victories in 2011 in which they trailed in the 4th quarter (not counting a comeback in the NFC Championship Game) - plus 1 in which they were tied. The Giants' 5 victories after trailing in the 4th quarter tied the franchise record set in 2002.

- In the Giants' 21-17 victory against New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5/12), Manning completed 30 of 40 passes (75%) for 296 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions (a passer rating of 103.8). He was voted the winner of the Pete Rozelle Trophy, awarded to the game's most valuable player. It was his 2nd Super Bowl MVP Award.

- In the Super Bowl, Manning rallied the Giants from a 17-9 3rd-quarter deficit while leading scoring drives on 3 of the team's 4 second-half possessions...Manning completed his first 9 passes, a record for consecutive completions to begin a Super Bowl.

- Manning set Giants postseason records with 58 passing attempts and 32 completions in a 20-17 overtime victory at San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game (1/22/12). It was the 1st time in their history the Giants won a game when throwing at least 50 passes; they had been 0-18 in such games (all in the regular season).

- Completed 21 of 33 passes for 330 yards, 3 touchdowns and 1 interception in a 37-20 victory at Green Bay in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/15/12). Manning's 66-yard pass to Hakeem Nicks is the 4th-longest play in Giants postseason history.

- Manning completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 24-2 defeat of Atlanta in an NFC Wild Card Game (1/8/12).

- Manning's 72-yard touchdown pass to Nicks vs. Atlanta is tied for the longest postseason play in Giants history. Scott Brunner threw a 72-yard pass to Earnest Gray at San Francisco on Jan. 3, 1982. Manning's previous long postseason pass was a 52-yard touchdown to Amani Toomer in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas on Jan. 13, 2008. It was Manning's 5th touchdown pass of more than 70 yards in 2011 and the 1st caught by someone other than Victor Cruz.

- Hit 24 of 33 passes for 346 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions in the Giants' 31-14 victory over Dallas (1/1/12) that clinched the NFC East title.

- In a 29-16 victory at the Jets (12/24), Manning threw a short pass to Cruz, who took the ball all the way down the field for a 99-yard touchdown, the longest play in Giants history. The previous long play was a 98-yard pass from Earl Morrall to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966. It was the 4th pass of at least 90 yards in Giants history...Manning's previous long throw was a 92-yard touchdown to Mario Manningham at Washington on Jan. 2, 2011.

- Manning's pass to Cruz was the 13th 99-yard touchdown pass (and the 14th 99-yard play from scrimmage) in NFL history. On Sept. 12 that season, New England's Tom Brady and Wes Welker hooked up for a 99-yard touchdown pass against the Dolphins in Miami. The 2011 season was the 1st in NFL history with two 99-yard touchdown passes - and they were thrown by the quarterbacks that started in that season's Super Bowl.

- Manning completed 27 of 47 passes for 400 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception in the Giants' 37-34 victory at Dallas (12/11). Manning led the Giants to 2 touchdowns in the final 3:14 to overcome a 12-point deficit, the 1st time the Giants won under such circumstances since Sept. 21, 1969, when they trailed Minnesota, 23-10, before Fran Tarkenton threw 2 touchdown passes to Don Herrmann in the final 4:48 for a 24-23 victory. The victory in Dallas was the 1st time in their then 87-year history the Giants won a road game by overcoming a deficit of at least 12 points with less than 5 minutes remaining.

- That victory over the Cowboys was the 2nd game in 2011 in which the Giants won by scoring 2 touchdowns in the final 3:30. They did it at New England (11/6), though the 2nd, game-winning score was necessitated by a touchdown the Patriots scored between the 2 by the Giants. Against the Patriots, Manning completed 20 of 39 passes for 250 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions.

- Manning shattered a team record by completing 21 consecutive passes from late in the 2nd quarter to late in the 4th quarter at New Orleans (11/28). That was tied for the 6th longest streak in NFL history and was the longest since his brother, Peyton Manning, hit 23 straight on Dec. 14 and Dec. 18, 2008 vs. Detroit (6) and Jacksonville (17). It was the longest 1-game streak since David Carr, who was then Manning's backup, completed 22 consecutive passes for Houston vs. Buffalo on Nov. 19, 2006...The previous Giants record of 13 in a row was set by Phil Simms at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985 and tied by Kerry Collins on Sept. 10 and 17, 2000 (at Philadelphia and Chicago). Manning's previous best had been 12 in a row at Atlanta on Oct. 15, 2007.

- Manning threw for a then career-high 420 yards while completing 24 of 39 passes vs. Seattle (10/9)...He was selected NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Philadelphia (9/25), where he completed 16 of 23 passes for 254 yards, 4 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 29-16 victory. His passer rating of 145.7 was then the 2nd-highest of his career and his highest in a game in which he threw more than 10 passes (he had a 158.3 rating vs. Oakland in 2009, but played only the first 5 series). It was the 5th-highest passer rating by a Giants quarterback since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

- In 2010, Manning started all 16 games and completed 339 of 539 passes (62.9%) for 4,002 yards, 31 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He had four 300-yard passing games...He was 1 of 4 players to throw every 1 of his team's passes in 2010. The others were Indianapolis' Peyton Manning, Houston's Matt Schaub and St. Louis' Sam Bradford.

- The 339 completions and 62.9 completion percentage were then franchise single-season records. The previous records were 335 completions by Collins in 2002 and the 62.8 completion percentages by Jeff Hostetler in 1991 and Kurt Warner in 2004...Manning's 539 passes were then the 2nd-highest total of his career (he threw 557 passes in 2005) and was the 4th-highest total in Giants history (Collins threw 568 passes in 2001 and 545 in 2002)...His 31 touchdown passes were then the 3rd-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962.

- With his 4,002 yards, Manning became the 1st Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons. He threw for 4,021 yards in 2009. Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984) are the only other Giants to pass for more than 4,000 yards.

- Manning's 4,002 yards were the 5th-highest total in the NFL...Manning's 31 touchdown passes were the league's 4th-highest total.

- Manning tied a franchise record by throwing 25 interceptions, a total previously reached by Frank Filchock in 1946 and Charlie Conerly in 1953.

- Manning threw then career-long touchdown passes on consecutive weeks: an 85-yarder at Green Bay (12/26) and a 92-yarder at Washington (1/2/11), both to Mario Manningham. The 92-yard throw was the NFL's longest play from scrimmage in the 2010 season.

- Manning set franchise records for the most attempts (3,169), completions (1,838), passing yards (21,465) and touchdown passes (148) in a player's first 100 games as a Giant.

- Manning threw a then career-high 34 completions vs. Dallas (11/14) and had 33 completions and threw for a season-high 386 yards vs. Tennessee (9/26)...He threw a then career-high 48 passes without being sacked on Nov. 14 vs. Dallas.

- On Nov. 21, Manning started the Giants' game in Philadelphia 6 years to the day after his 1st game as the Giants' starting quarterback. On Nov. 21, 2004, the Giants lost to Atlanta, 14-10. The Falcons' starting quarterback in that game was Michael Vick, who was the Eagles' starter 6 years later in Philly.

- Manning twice tied his then career-high by throwing 4 touchdown passes: at Dallas (10/25) and vs. Philadelphia (12/19)...He was sacked just 16 times all season and was not sacked in a 5-game stretch from Nov. 7 through Dec. 5...Had a season-high passer rating of 125.8 at Seattle (11/7), where he completed 21 of 32 passes for 290 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions.

- Manning started all 16 games and completed 317 of 509 passes (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were then career highs.

- Manning became the 3rd quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984)...He threw at least 1 touchdown pass in every game except the losses at Denver (11/26) and Minnesota (1/3).

- Manning played only the first 5 series in a 44-7 rout of Oakland (10/11) and left the game with a perfect passer rating of 158.3. He completed 8 of 10 passes for 173 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions.

- Manning completed 19 of 26 passes for 268 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions at Washington (12/21) for a passer rating of 144.4 that was then the 2nd-highest of his career, topped only by his 158.3 rating vs. Oakland. His previous best rating on the road was 131.4 at St. Louis on Sept. 14, 2008.

- The game at Washington was the 2nd week in a row Manning threw for 3 scores without an interception and was the 2nd time in Manning's career he threw 3 touchdown passes in consecutive games. He did it at Philadelphia and Seattle on Sept. 17 and 24, 2006.

- When Manning threw his 100th touchdown pass at Dallas, he became the 111th quarterback in NFL history to reach that mark. Eli and Peyton Manning were the 1st pair of brothers to each throw for 100 touchdowns in their career.

- Manning threw 3 touchdown passes of at least 60 yards in 2 weeks: a 74-yarder to Brandon Jacobs vs. Dallas (12/6), and a 68-yarder to Hakeem Nicks and 61-yarder to Domenik Hixon vs. Philadelphia (12/13)...He is 1 of just 8 quarterbacks in NFL history with touchdown passes of at least 60 yards to 3 different receivers in a two-game span...Manning was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 2 touchdown passes of 60 or more yards in the same game since Collins did it vs. the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999 (scores of 61 and 80 yards to Amani Toomer). The last Giants quarterback to accomplish the feat in back-to-back games was Simms on Sept. 2 and 9, 1984, also in home games vs. Philadelphia and Dallas.

- In 2008, Manning started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game...He led the Giants to the NFC East title and their 4th consecutive postseason berth, a franchise record. Only 1 other QB had then led his team to the playoffs in 4 consecutive seasons — Peyton Manning.

- Manning completed 289 of 479 passes (60.3%) for 3,238 yards, 21 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a passer rating of 86.4. The completion percentage and rating were then career highs. The 10 interceptions were his lowest total since he threw 9 as a rookie and were half his 2007 total.

- Manning was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month in November and Sporting News' 2008 Pro Athlete of the Year.

- In 2007, Manning started all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason games and led the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XLII...In the regular season, he completed 297 of 529 passes (56.1%) for 3,336 yards, 23 touchdowns and 20 interceptions for a passer rating of 73.9. In 4 postseason games, Manning completed 72 of 119 passes (60.5%) for 854 yards, 6 touchdowns and 1 interception for a rating of 123.2.

- Manning threw 4 touchdown passes while completing 28 of 41 throws for 312 yards at Dallas (9/9). Three of the scoring passes went to Plaxico Burress, the other to Derrick Ward...Left the game in the 4th quarter with a bruised shoulder...Despite the injury, Manning started the next week vs. Green Bay.

- Led the Giants to their 1st victory of the season at Washington (9/23), where he completed 21 of 36 passes, including the game-winning 33-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter...Threw 4 touchdown passes vs. New England (12/29). Two of the scores went to Burress and 1 each to Brandon Jacobs and Kevin Boss...Completed 22 of 32 passes for 251 yards and 1 interception for a passer rating of 118.6.

- Opened postseason play by completing 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions in NFC Wild Card Game victory at Tampa Bay (1/6/08)...Became the 5th Giants QB to win a postseason game since Giants Stadium opened in 1976, joining Simms, Hostetler, Collins and Scott Brunner.

- Completed 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards and 2 touchdowns to Amani Toomer in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13/08)...His 52-yard touchdown pass to Toomer was then his longest postseason completion...Successfully engineered a 2-minute drive in the 2nd quarter by completing 4 passes for 56 yards on a 7-play, 71-yard march in just 46 seconds that resulted in a 4-yard touchdown pass to Toomer that left the teams tied at halftime, 14-14.

- Played another turnover-free game and completed 21 of 40 passes for 251 yards in minus-23 degree wind chill in the Giants' NFC Championship Game victory at Green Bay (1/20/08)...Increased his streak to 101 consecutive postseason passes without an interception.

- Manning was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLII after completing 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception that bounced off Steve Smith's hands in the Giants' victory over the New England Patriots...Led the Giants on their game-winning 4th quarter drive by completing 5 of 9 passes for 77 yards, including the go-ahead 13-yard touchdown pass to Burress with 35 seconds remaining. The most memorable play on the drive was a 32-yard completion to David Tyree, who secured the ball against his helmet after Manning eluded the grasp of several defensive linemen...Threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Tyree early in the 4th quarter that was set up by passes of 45 yards to Kevin Boss and 17 yards to Steve Smith...Manning was intercepted by cornerback Ellis Hobbs with 11:53 remaining in the 2nd quarter. It was the Giants' only offensive turnover in their 4-game postseason. The offense had gone 34 possessions and run 213 plays without turning over the ball. The previous turnover had been in the regular season finale against the Patriots — also an interception by Hobbs of a Manning pass. Manning had thrown 103 consecutive passes without an interception, including 95 in the postseason. He threw 111 postseason passes in a row without a pick.

- In 2006, Manning started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game...Completed 301 of 522 passes (57.7%) for 3,244 yards, 24 touchdowns and 18 interceptions for a passer rating of 77.0...Manning's 24 touchdown passes matched his 2005 total; he was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Simms did it 3 years in a row from 1984-86.

- Completed a then career-high 31 passes on 43 attempts for 371 yards with 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 111.7 at Philadelphia (9/17)...In overtime, Manning hit all 8 of his passes for 83 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass to Burress to give the Giants a 30-24 comeback victory after they trailed by 17 at the start of the 4th quarter.

- Completed 16 of 27 passes for 161 yards, 2 touchdowns, and 1 interception in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7/07)...The Giants scored on their opening possession when Manning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Burress...Tied the game at 20-20 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.

- In 2005, Manning started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game in his 1st full season as the starting quarterback...Led the Giants to the NFC East championship...Completed 294 of 557 passes (52.8%) for 3,762 yards with 24 touchdowns and 17 interceptions for a passer rating of 75.9...Manning's 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giants quarterback since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967...Completed 12 of 24 passes for 204 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions in a victory at Oakland (12/31) that clinched the division title...Threw a then career-long 78-yard touchdown pass to Burress.

- Scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak in the 2nd quarter at Philadelphia (12/11), his 1st career rushing touchdown and the 1st by a Giants quarterback since Kurt Warner scored on a 1-yard run vs. Cleveland (9/26/04).

- Threw a then career-high 53 passes (completing 29) for 344 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception at Seattle (11/27). The 53 passes were the most thrown by the Giants since Collins had 59 at New England (10/12/03). It was the 12th consecutive game in which Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass, 3 shy of the Giants record set by Y.A. Tittle from 1962-64.

- Completed 23 of 42 passes for 214 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception vs. Denver (10/23)...Led the Giants on 2 touchdown drives in the 4th quarter to secure his 2nd career 4th quarter come-from-behind-victory. His 2-yard touchdown pass to Toomer with 5 seconds remaining in the game gave the Giants a 24-23 victory. On the game-winning 83-yard drive, Manning completed 8-of-13 passes for 68 yards.

- Hit 19 of 35 passes for 296 yards and 4 touchdowns vs. St. Louis (10/2) to become the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 4 touchdown passes in a regular-season game since Collins did it at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002. Collins matched the feat in an NFC Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco (1/5/03).

- As a rookie in 2004, played in 9 games, including starts in the final 7 games...Improved markedly down the stretch and finished with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, 6 touchdowns and 9 interceptions.

- Earned his 1st NFL victory in the 2004 season finale vs. Dallas, completing 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards, 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 101.5...Manning threw touchdown passes of 2 yards to Visanthe Shiancoe in the 2nd quarter, and 15 yards to Tyree and 3 yards to Tiki Barber, both in the 4th quarter. Completed a 23-yard pass to Barber to start the Giants game-winning drive and called a run at the line on which Barber scored the deciding touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining.

- Made his 1st NFL start vs. Atlanta (11/21) and completed 17 of 37 passes for 162 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions. His 1st NFL touchdown pass was a 6-yarder to Jeremy Shockey. Coincidentally, the initial pro scoring pass for all 3 Manning quarterbacks was 6 yards long. Archie Manning threw a 6-yarder to Dave Parks on Sept. 19, 1971. Peyton Manning's 6-yard touchdown pass went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998.

- Manning was the 18th quarterback to start a game for the Giants since Giants Stadium opened in 1976 (including Craig Morton and Norm Snead, who joined the team earlier and were still on the roster when the stadium opened). He was the 4th quarterback in a row to lose his debut, joining Kerry Collins, Jesse Palmer and Kurt Warner...Of the 14 quarterbacks selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft between 1970-2004, he was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie (Cincinnati's Carson Palmer was the exception). The 13 quarterbacks taken with the top pick who started as rookies are 4-9 in their debuts.

- Saw his 1st NFL regular season action when he replaced Warner with 2:37 remaining in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (9/12), with the Giants trailing, 31-10. He completed 3 of 9 passes for 66 yards, including a 34-yarder, no touchdowns and no interceptions. Was sacked once and fumbled after being blindsided by Jerome McDougle. On his 1st career snap, he handed the ball off to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Manning's long completion of 34 yards was a short screen pass to Barber on the final drive of the game.

HOW ACQUIRED – 2016 DRAFT (5TH ROUND)

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 5th round (149th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Perkins has played in 25 regular-season games with 5 starts, and he started the only postseason game in which he played...His 2-year totals include 153 carries for 546 yards (3.6-yard avg.), with a long run of 22 yards, and 23 receptions for 208 yards (9.0-yard avg.), with a long catch of 67 yards...His postseason numbers are 10 carries for 30 yards, with a long run of 14 yards, and three catches for 27 yards, with a long of 17 yards.

- In 2017, Perkins played in 11 games with 4 starts... He was inactive for 4 games, and did not play vs. Kansas City (11/19)...Finished with 41 carries for 90 yards, with a long run of 14 yards, and 8 catches for 46 yards, with a long reception of 11 yards...Started each of the first 4 games, when he had 61 yards on 30 carries, and 7 receptions for 35 yards...Inactive for the next 3 games, vs. the Chargers (10/8), at Denver (10/15), and vs. Seattle (10/22)...Next carried the ball at Oakland (12/3), where he had 3 attempts for 12 yards...Inactive vs. Philadelphia (12/17)...Totalled 6 carries for 17 yards in the season's final 2 games.

- As a rookie in 2016, Perkins played in 14 regular-season games with 1 start, and he started the NFC Wild Card Game...Inactive for the season's first 2 games... Finished 2nd on the team with 112 carries for 456 yards (4.1-yard avg.), and caught 15 passes for 162 yards (10.8-yard avg.)...Also had 4 special teams tackles (3 solo).

- Made his NFL debut vs. Washington (9/25)...Had his first 2 carries for 8 yards at Minnesota (10/3), where he made Giants history with his first NFL reception... On the initial play of the 4th quarter, Perkins caught a short Eli Manning pass and took off down the field at U.S. Bank Stadium. When he was finally brought down at the Vikings' 4-yard line, the play had gained 67 yards. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Perkins is the first Giants player since the 1970 merger whose initial career reception was at least 67 yards long...The previous long gain on a first career catch since the merger by a Giants player was 63 yards by Reggie McGowan, a strike replacement player, who did it on Oct. 5, 1987 against San Francisco. The longest first reception by a non-replacement player was 62 by David Meggett at Washington on Sept. 11, 1989.

- Perkins had personal season-high rushing totals in each of the last five games: 38 yards at Pittsburgh (12/4), 45 vs. Dallas (12/11), 56 vs. Detroit (12/18), 68 at Philadelphia (12/22), and 102 at Washington (1/1), where he also had a season-high 21 carries.

- Perkins made his first career start vs. the Redskins, and became the first Giants back to rush for at least 100 yards since Rashad Jennings ran for 170 yards in the 2015 season finale vs. the Eagles. Had Perkins not crossed the century mark, the Giants would have played an entire season without a 100-yard rusher for the first time since 1996.

- Started the NFC Wild Card Game at Green Bay (1/8), and led the Giants with 30 rushing yards on 10 carries. Also caught 3 passes for 27 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 39 games with 30 starts in 3 seasons at UCLA...Career totals include 622 rushing attempts for 3,491 yards, the 3rd-highest total in school history (5.6-yard avg.), and 29 touchdowns, with a long run of 92 yards... Averaged 89.5 yards per game...Set a school record for running backs with 80 receptions for 739 yards (9.2-yard avg.) and 3 scores...Placed 5th in school history with 4,236 all-purpose yards (including a 6-yard punt in 2013)...In 2015, started all 13 games...Team co-captain...Selected 2nd-team All-Pac 12 by both the league's coaches and the AP...Finished 4th in the conference in rushing with 1,343 yards (on 237 carries) and 6th in all-purpose yards average (121.9 per game)...Tied for 2nd in the Pac-12 with a career-high 15 touchdowns (14 rushing, 1 receiving)... Moved up to 3rd on the school's career rushing yards list with 3,491 yards) and 5th on the all-purpose yards list with 4,236...Ran for a career-best 219 yards vs. BYU, the 12th-highest output in school history, and most since 2004... Caught 30 passes to boost his career total to 80 receptions, a school record for running backs...Had 100-yard rushing games vs. UNLV (151), BYU (219), Stanford (104), Colorado (118), and Washington State (121)...Presented the Paul I. Wellman Memorial Award for All-Around Excellence and the Bobby Field UCLA Captains Award at the annual team banquet.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Surprised the Orange High School Football team at practice with brand new equipment...Interacted with kids and led them through various football drills followed by a speaking engagement to motivate them to get active for 60 minutes each day, surprised each child with a new bike...Served a nutritious dinner with Food Bank for New York City at the Community Kitchen in Harlem for Thanksgiving...Represented breast cancer awareness through the Breast Cancer Research Foundation during the NF: s "My Cause My Cleats" initiative in Week 13...Engaged in conversation and listened to Martin Luther King III speak in conjunction with RISE about the importance of voting and civic engagement at the Quest Diagnostics Training Center.

PERSONAL:

- Full Name is Paul Kerry Perkins II...His father, (Bruce) was a fullback who played at Arizona State and in the NFL with Tampa Bay (1990) and In—dianapolis (1991)... Perkins' uncle, Don Perkins, was a running back for the Dallas Cowboys (1961-68) who was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1961 and selected to 6 Pro Bowls, and is in the team's Ring of Honor...Has a younger brother, Bryce... HOW ACQUIRED – DRAFT 2016 (2ND ROUND)

NFL EXP. – 3RD YEAR

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd round (40th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Shepard has played in 27 regular-season games with 26 starts, and he started the only postseason game in which he played...Career totals include 124 catches for 1,414 yards (11.4-yard avg.), and 10 touchdowns...Also has 7 rushing attempts for 35 yards.

- In 2017, Shepard played in 11 games with 10 starts...Led the Giants' wide receivers with 59 catches for a team-high 731 yards...Scored 2 touchdowns...Missed 2 games with an ankle injury, 2 with an illness, and the season finale with a neck injury.

- Shepard twice set his career high with 11 receptions and had the Giants' only three 100-yard receiving games of the season...Had 11 catches for a career-high 142 yards at San Francisco (11/12) and 11 receptions for 139 yards vs. Philadelphia (12/17)...Shepard's 11-catch game vs. the 49ers was the first by a Giants player since Odell Beckham, Jr. had 11 at Philadelphia on Dec. 22, 2016. Shepard also caught 7 passes for 133 yards at Philadelphia on (9/24). He has 4 career 100-yard games.

- Shepard scored both of his touchdowns on long catch-and-runs vs. Philadelphia: a career-long 77-yard reception in Lincoln Financial Field (9/24), and a 67-yarder in MetLife Stadium on (12/17).

- Caught 5 passes for 54 yards at Tampa Bay (10/1), the only game in his career in which he played but did not start.

- As a rookie in 2016, Shepard started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game...It was the 2nd consecutive season the Giants' 2nd-round draft choice started every game; safety Landry Collins did it in 2015 (defensive tackle Dalvin Tomlinson made it 3 in a row in 2017)...Shepard was the Giants' first offensive rookie to start every game of his rookie season since Justin Pugh started every game at right tackle in 2013...He was the first rookie wide receiver to start every game for the Giants since Bobby Johnson in 1984, and the first in the NFL since Buffalo's Sammy Watkins in 2014.

- Shepard finished 2nd on the team with 65 catches for 683 yards and 8 touchdowns...Caught at least 2 passes in every game except the victory at Cleveland (11/27), where he did not have a reception...Shepard placed 2nd among NFL rookies in all 3 major statistical categories, trailing only New Orleans' Michael Thomas, who had 92 catches for 1,137 yards and 9 scores.

- Shepard had 1 of the finest seasons by a rookie pass-catcher in Giants history:

- Shepard caught 3 passes for 43 yards, including a 9-yard touchdown, in his NFL debut at Dallas (9/11)...He was the first Giants player to catch a touchdown pass in his first game since Beckham on Oct. 5, 2014.

- Shepard had season-high totals of 8 receptions for 117 yards vs. New Orleans (9/18), and followed with 5 catches for 73 yards and a 23-yard touchdown vs. Washington (9/25)...His 16 receptions are a record for a Giants rookie in his first 3 games. Johnson held the former mark with 15 in 1984.

- Shepard was the first player in Giants history to score a touchdown and have more than 100 receiving yards in a game in his first 3 NFL games, and was the first NFL player to do it since Pittsburgh's Martavis Bryant in 2014.

- Also set the 4-game record when he had 4 receptions for 30 yards at Minnesota (10/3)...His 20 catches through the first 4 games topped Beckham's previous mark of 18.

- In a 27-23 victory vs. Philadelphia (11/6), Shepard caught 3 passes for 50 yards, including a 32-yard touchdown, and rookie free agent Roger Lewis, Jr. had a 30-yard touchdown reception. It was the first time the Giants had 2 rookie wide receivers with touchdown catches in the same game since Oct. 5, 1987 when Lewis Bennett and Reggie McGowan accomplished the feat in a strike replacement game vs. San Francisco. Excluding replacement games, it had last happened on Dec. 12, 1954, when Ken MacAfee and Bob Topp did it at Philadelphia.

- With Victor Cruz sidelined with an ankle injury, the Giants started rookie wide receivers Shepard and Lewis in a Monday night game vs. Cincinnati (11/14)...They were the first pair of rookie wideouts to start for the Giants since Dec. 15, 1984, when Bobby Johnson and Lionel Manuel started the regular-season finale vs. New Orleans. Manuel caught 2 passes for 26 yards, while Johnson had 1 catch for 9 yards.

- Shepard had 4 receptions for 56 yards and a 6-yard touchdown vs. Detroit (12/18), and 7 catches for 61 yards and his 8th score of the season on a 13-yard pass at Philadelphia (12/22)...Had 4 catches for 63 yards in his postseason debut in the NFC Wild Card Game at Green Bay (1/8).

COLLEGE:

- In 4 seasons at Oklahoma, Shepard played in 50 games with 41 starts...Started all 37 games in his final 3 seasons... Career totals included 233 receptions for 3,482 yards (14.9-yard avg.) and 26 touchdowns, with a long catch of 75 yards... Also returned 30 punts for a 7.3 yard average with a long runback of 27 yards...His career receptions (233) and receiving yards (3,482) each rank 2nd in Oklahoma history...Ranks 3rd in school history in career touchdown receptions (26) and 100-yard receiving games (12)...Ranks 3rd in OU history in single-season receptions (86 as a senior)...Shares the school record for single-game receptions (15 vs. Kansas State as a junior).

- As a senior in 2015, he was a semifinalist for Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top wide receiver...Named to All-Big 12 first team by the league's coaches, and 2nd team by AP...Started all 13 games at receiver and also served as team's primary punt returner...Caught a career-high 86 passes for 1,288 yards (15.0-yard avg.) and 11 touchdowns, with a long catch of 74 yards...Also returned 30 punts for 148 yards, a 7.9-yard average, with a long of 27 yards...As a junior in 2014, was named to All-Big 12 first team by league's coaches and All-Big 12 2nd team by AP...Semifinalist for Biletnikoff Award...Started all 12 games and finished season with 51 receptions for 970 yards and 5 touchdowns, with a long catch of 75 yards... Also returned 11 punts for 73 yards (6.6-yard avg.)...Tied school record with 15 receptions and tallied 197 receiving yards and a touchdown vs. Kansas State (10/18)...In 2013, started all 12 games in which he played...Did not play vs. Iowa State (11/16) due to injury...Concluded the season with 51 catches for 603 yards and 7 touchdowns with a long reception of 57 yards...As a freshman in 2012, he played in all 13 games with 4 starts...His 621 receiving yards were the 3rd-highest total by an Oklahoma freshman, while his 45 receptions ranked 4th all-time among the school's freshmen.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Co-hosted the fourth annual Children of the City Charity Bowl at Lucky Strikes Bowling in Manhattan...Served as a Play 60 Ambassador adopting Garfield Middle School in Garfield, N.J. motivating the students every week for a month to get active and play outside.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Chanel Iman...Parents are Cheri and the late Derrick Shepard...At Oklahoma, he wore the same jersey number (3) as his late father, who lettered at OU as wide receiver from 1983-86...Graduated with degree in Arts & Sciences Planned Program...Named to Academic All-Big 12 first team as a senior...Rushed for 1,115 yards and caught 133 passes for 2,335 yards and 38 touchdowns in his career at Heritage Hall High School...Finished with 5,148 career all-purpose yards...As a senior, carried the ball 28 times for 303 yards and 8 touchdowns, and caught 73 passes for 1,243 yards and 17 touchdowns...Selected to the Under Armour All-American Game.

THE VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Giants raise the Lombardi Trophy during the postgame ceremonies at Super Bowl XLII

The Vince Lombardi Trophy is the trophy awarded each year to the winning team of the National Football League's annual championship game, the Super Bowl. It is considered to be the NFL's most prestigious award. The trophy was originally called the "World Championship Game Trophy" when the Super Bowl was originally named the AFL-NFL World Championship Game. It was renamed in 1970 in honor of legendary Green Bay Packers head coach Vince Lombardi.

Since Super Bowl XXX, it is presented to the winning team's owner on the field following the game. Previously, the trophy was presented inside the winning team's locker room.

Unlike trophies such as the Stanley Cup and the Grey Cup, a new Vince Lombardi Trophy is made every year and the winning team maintains permanent possession of that trophy.

Each trophy is handcrafted by Tiffany & Co. master artisans at their workshop in Parsippany, New Jersey. The trophy depicts a regulation-size football in kicking position that is made entirely of sterling silver. It stands 22 inches (55 cm) tall, weighs seven pounds (3 kg), and takes approximately four months and 72 man-hours to create. The words "Vince Lombardi Trophy" and the NFL logo are engraved on the base. After the trophy is awarded, it is sent back to Tiffany & Co. to be engraved with the winning team's name, score, logo and roster if the team wishes.

GIANTS AT COWBOYS

COWBOYS 19, GIANTS 3

ARLINGTON, Texas — A year ago, the Giants invaded AT&T Stadium for their season opener and held the eventual NFC East champion Dallas Cowboys to only 19 points, including four Dan Bailey field goals. The visitors countered with three Eli Manning touchdown passes, and stormed out of Big D with a 20-19 victory.

On Sunday night, the Giants began the 2017 season in the palace in Dallas (well, technically Arlington). Bailey again kicked four field goals, and the Cowboys again scored 19 points. But this time, the Giants' offense didn't hold up its end. They scored only on rookie Aldrick Rosas' 25-yard field goal, and left Texas with a 19-3 loss and a 0-1 record.

"Tough way to open the season," said coach Ben McAdoo, who celebrated his first career victory here in 2016. "Give Dallas all of the credit. They came out here and won the ballgame. We have a long week to get better as a football team (before hosting Detroit next Monday night). We have a lot of work to do. Our complimentary football was nonexistent tonight." Asked what he meant by complimentary football, McAdoo said, "all three phases playing together."

The formula worked here last year. But while the defense held up its end this time, both the offense and special teams contributed little.

The Giants finished with 223 total yards, including just 35 on the ground, 13 first downs, and four successes in 12 third-down conversion opportunities. They owned the ball for only 25:46.

"The offense was very disappointing," said McAdoo, a coach who always tries to stress the positive. "We are going to go back and look at the film and see how we can get better."

The Giants were missing their most dynamic weapon, three-time Pro Bowler and big-play specialist Odell Beckham, Jr., who was inactive because of the ankle injury he suffered in Cleveland on Aug. 21. But McAdoo refused to use his best player's absence as a reason for the offensive inefficiency.

"We have plenty of players who can make plays on the offense outside of Odell," McAdoo said. "That is no excuse."

GIANTS VS. LIONS

SEPTEMBER 11, 2017

LIONS 24, GIANTS 10

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — On a night when the Giants honored their 2007 Super Bowl XLII championship team, the current squad matched that team's start by falling to 0-2.

Playing in MetLife Stadium for the first time this season, the Giants fell to the Detroit Lions, 24-10. The Giants have started a season with two losses for the fourth time in five years.

"We talk about playing complete, complementary football," coach Ben McAdoo said. "By no stretch of the imagination did we get that done tonight. We've got to do better. We dug ourselves into a hole. No one feels sorry for us. We've got to find a way to get better and get better in a hurry."

Perhaps this team can take solace in the fact that their start is remarkably similar to that of the titlists who played a decade ago. Both teams started with a loss in Dallas. Both came home to lose to an NFC North team (in 2007, it was Green Bay). And each faced another division road game in Week 3; 10 years ago in Washington, a goal-line stand clinched the Giants' first victory. On Sunday, McAdoo's team will be in Philadelphia.

But one significant difference exists between the two teams. The 2007 Giants struggled early on defense, allowing an NFL-high 80 points in the first two games. The present Giants are solid defensively, but haven't produced on offense. They have scored just 13 points, the league's third-lowest total and the Giants' lowest two-game start since 1947 (seven points). The Giants have not scored at least 20 points in eight consecutive games.

Not even the return of Odell Beckham, Jr. could ignite the offense. Beckham did not play against the Cowboys because of the sprained ankle he suffered last month in Cleveland. He didn't start against Detroit, and caught four passes for 36 yards. Beckham also had a crucial drop on a fourth down in the final quarter.

"We've got to score more," quarterback Eli Manning said. "Not going in the right direction enough, going backwards, not converting on third downs enough. Got down there close on the one-yard line and then get a penalty and get a delay of game at the end. So, just not executing enough on third downs in the green zone, some critical moments."

GIANTS RECORDS

PHILADELPHIA — For the first time in the Giants' 1,341 games over 93 seasons, a player kicked a field goal that was at least 60 yards long. And when it happened, it was a dagger in the heart to the Giants.

Philadelphia's Jake Elliott booted a 61-yard field goal as time expired Sunday to give the Eagles a 27-24 victory in one of the wildest games ever played between two teams that have been squaring off since 1933. The longest-ever field goal in a Giants game was also the longest by a rookie in NFL history, and the third-longest game-winner ever kicked.

"The game continues to teach us tough lessons and we have to learn from," coach Ben McAdoo said, "and learn from in a hurry and fix."

"It's stunning, but at the end of the day it is the NFL," cornerback Janoris Jenkins said. "We got to come out of it and continue to get better. Defense, offense, special teams, and as a unit. We are just going to put this game behind us and move onto the next one."

That will be next week in Tampa against the Buccaneers. But the Giants first have a lot to sift through from this game, both good and bad.

On the plus side was that they rallied from a 14-0 deficit to twice take the lead (at 21-14 and 24-21), their 24-point fourth quarter, Eli Manning's 366 passing yards and three touchdown passes (and he wasn't sacked), and a combined 24 catches for 278 yards and three scores by wide receivers Odell Beckham, Jr., Brandon Marshall and Sterling Shepard. Beckham scored on four and 10-yard receptions, the latter with a spectacular one-handed grab. Shepard turned a short Manning throw into a 77-yard score.

But all the positive wasn't enough to offset the negative. Like the Giants rushing for 49 yards and 2.9 yards a carry, while Philly ran for 193 and averaged 4.9 yards an attempt. And a failure to score on three chances from the two-yard line and in at the end of the first half. Plus 10 penalties for 137 yards, including two when the Giants were trying to drive for the game-winning field goal on their final possession. That series ended with Brad Wing's 28-yard punt which gave the Eagles the ball on their own 38. Two plays later, Carson Wentz improbably completed a 19-yard pass to Alshon Jeffrey, who stepped out of bounds with one second left. Elliott, signed off Cincinnati's practice squad after Caleb Sturgis was injured in the season opener, then kicked the long game-winning field goal.

GIANTS AT BUCCANEERS

OCTOBER 1, 2017

BUCCANEERS 25, GIANTS 23

TAMPA — NFL players and coaches try to adhere to a 24-hour rule. Once any game ends, whether it's an exhilarating victory or a discouraging defeat, they take one day to reflect on it before focusing on the next opponent.

That will be difficult this week for the Giants, who endured their second crushing loss in as many weeks Sunday in Raymond James Stadium. Nick Folk's 34-yard field goal as time expired sent them to a 25-23 loss, just as rookie Jake Elliott's final-play 61-yarder last week in Philadelphia left them on the wrong end of a 27-24 score.

"We feel like (crap)," said linebacker and defensive captain Jonathan Casillas. "Everybody does. It's going to feel like this for a while. People always say 24-hour rule; it might be a little longer than that. It's just 0-4, no one ever predicted us to do anything like that. It's going to be really hard to swallow this one. I feel like we had it in the bag. Last week I feel like we had it in the bag. We just got to keep playing and understand that we still got a long way to go."

Those feelings were prevalent in all corners of the Giants' cramped locker room. Almost everyone is stunned they've descended from an 11-5 playoff team to a squad that is 0-4, the Giants' worst start since 2013. And they can't fathom how they owned fourth-quarter leads in each of the last two games, only to fall victim to their own mistakes and their opponents' kicker.

"Nobody expected it, but we got nobody but ourselves to blame," defensive tackle Damon Harrison said. "Our defense in particular. Our game could have ended 17-16. Once we get the lead, it's our job to keep the lead and extend the lead if possible. So, it's all on our shoulders."

"I am not surprised," coach Ben McAdoo said. "I am not shocked. You can't carry things from one year to the next. We talked about that in the offseason. You got to be hungry, you got to be willing to work. We need to get back to work as a staff and get back to work as a team. Find a way to improve."

GIANTS VS. CHARGERS

CHARGERS 27, GIANTS 22

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Giants' offense took the field trailing by five with 2:53 remaining when Justin Pugh noticed something odd in the huddle.

"It didn't hit me and then I was like, 'Wait, why do we have three tight ends out here?'" Pugh said.

Because in one unfathomable game, the Giants had lost four wide receivers to injury, including Odell Beckham, Jr. with a fractured ankle. As if that wasn't bad enough, they gave away a fourth-quarter lead for the third consecutive week and lost to the Los Angeles Chargers, 27-22, in MetLife Stadium.

The game was decided in a disastrous 56-second sequence in which Beckham was carted off, Eli Manning lost a fumble on the very next play, and three plays after that — on third-and-nine -- Philip Rivers threw the deciding 10-yard touchdown pass to running back Melvin Gordon.

The loss dropped the Giants to 0-5 for just the fourth time in their 93-season history. The Chargers broke a nine-game losing streak and are 1-4.

"You learn a lot about yourself in times like these," coach Ben McAdoo said. "So you've got to work for yourself, work for your teammates. We're all pros — this is what we get paid to do. We get paid to win, not just compete. So we've got to find a way to win."

"Obviously, it's tough to have close games, and have leads, and not be able to make completions, and make mistakes that hurt the team," Manning said. "It's tough to swallow, but you keep fighting back."

GAME 6

GIANTS AT BRONCOS

GIANTS 23, BRONCOS 10

DENVER — Ben McDoo hammered home his theme all last week. Without Odell Beckham, Jr., without Brandon Marshall and Sterling Shepard, and without several other key injured players, no one outside the Giants' locker room gave them a chance to defeat the Broncos in Denver, traditionally one of the NFL's most inhospitable venues for visiting teams.

"We talked about it all week long," McDoo said. "Revisited it last night and we talked about - our record wasn't good. But that doesn't mean we're a bad football team. We are a good football team, we just need to find paths to victory. We found one tonight."

And how sweet it was. The Giants dominated from start to finish and defeated the Broncos, 23-10, at Sports Authority Field in Mile High. It was their first victory of the season after five defeats. Denver fell to 3-2.

"We believe in ourselves and we feel like we're all we've got as a team," running back Orleans Darkwa said. "I feel like we've got a talented roster. We've lost some close games in the last three games, and I'm just glad we were able to close this one out."

The Giants made several changes to open a path to victory. Most notably, McDoo, who had called the plays in every game since his arrival as offensive coordinator in 2014, ceded those duties to the current coordinator, Mike Sullivan.

"I need to do what is best for the team, just like we ask the players and just like we ask the coaches," McDoo said. "I thought the team and the whole locker room needed me this week, I needed to be at my best for these players and coaches this week."

GIANTS VS. SEAHAWKS

SEAHAWKS 24, GIANTS 7

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Giants had a grand plan after earning their first victory of the season last week in Denver. They would defeat the Seattle Seahawks, get some injured players back after next week's bye, and continue their quest to turn around their season when they host the Los Angeles Rams on Nov. 5.

But the strategy, and the season, absorbed a crushing blow Sunday, when the Giants struggled on offense the entire game and lost to the Seahawks, 24-7. They enter the bye with a 1-6 record, including 0-3 at home.

"We've got to keep grinding," quarterback Eli Manning said. "Obviously, we've had a tough start, lost some key players, but they're not going to make it easy for us, no team (will). So we've got to keep finding ways to get better. I think the game plan these last couple of weeks was, try to keep the game close, get into the fourth quarter, try to make a couple big plays. We just didn't quite hit those big plays, didn't convert on some third-and-manageables today. But, we've got to get better with the guys that we got, and find a way to execute."

The actually led at halftime, 7-3, despite playing their second game in a row without wide receivers Odell Beckham, Jr., Brandon Marshall and Sterling Shepard, plus linebacker Jonathan Casillas, defensive end Olivier Vernon and center Weston Richburg. But they were outscored in the second half, 21-0, the first time they were shut out in the final two quarters since Dec. 5, 2015 against the Jets.

The Giants refuse to use the injuries as an excuse.

"We had 46 (players) today," coach Ben McAdoo said. "We weren't sharp on offense."

GAME 8

GIANTS VS. RAMS

NOVEMBER 5, 2017

RAMS 51, GIANTS 17

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — After all three phases faltered in the Giants' worst home loss in 19 years, the players delivered some of the hardest shots of the day in analyzing their own performance.

The MetLife Stadium scoreboard at the end of the game read: Rams 51, Giants 17. Entering the fourth quarter in their own stadium, the Giants trailed, 48-10. It was the most points they allowed at home in 53 years (Dec. 12, 1964 vs. Cleveland, to be exact) and their most lopsided loss as a home team since Nov. 15, 1998, when they lost to Green Bay in Giants Stadium, 37-3.

"It's terrible," said defensive end Jason Pierre Paul. "I don't think I've ever had 51 points put on me ever in my career."

"It's hurtful, definitely hurtful," safety Landon Collins said. "Last time that we gave up 50 was two years ago (in New Orleans) and we didn't like it then, so we still don't like it now. . . . It's heartbreaking and we have to really get in the film room, get in the locker room and kind of just figure this stuff out. Something is up and we've got to figure it out."

"It was pretty embarrassing, just as the team we know we are and know who we can be," rookie tight end Evan Engram said. "That wasn't us today."

"We have to accept it," quarterback Eli Manning said. "Those are the facts, and we've just got to keep trying to fix that in the sense of next week and following weeks, getting better and trying to get a win."

GIANTS AT 49ERS
49ERS 31, GIANTS 21

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — The Giants lost to the San Francisco 49ers, 31-21, a defeat that dropped them to 1-8 for the first time since 1980. The Giants were confident of rebounding after the previous week's poor performance in a 34-point loss to the Los Angeles Rams. But after taking an early lead, they were dominated by a team that entered the game with a 0-9 record. It was the Giants' first loss to an opponent with such a dismal record since Nov. 20, 1966 against Atlanta.

"There were only a few things that you could smile at, but you're hurting inside," cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie said. "That's two weeks in a row. I'm embarrassed for us."

"Losing to a 0-9 team, you can't get much worse than that," said offensive lineman Justin Pugh, who missed the second half after aggravating his back injury. "We're at where we're at. (We have to) figure out where we're going from here, because we've still got seven games left."

The first of those will be next week at home against the 6-3 Kansas City Chiefs, who lead the AFC West and will be well-rested after their bye week. The Giants will then have a short week before playing Thanksgiving night in Washington. They will then return to the Bay Area to face the Oakland Raiders.

But as this game demonstrated, it matters little who the opposition is. If the Giants don't improve in all phases, they will struggle against everyone.

GAME 10

GIANTS VS. CHIEFS

NOVEMBER 19, 2017

GIANTS 12, CHIEFS 9 (OT)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — They were without Sterling Shepard, who merely caught 11 passes last week in San Francisco, but was inactive because of migraine headaches.

They didn't have cornerback Eli Apple, who had played in every game with seven starts, inactive due to a coach's decision.

Justin Pugh, arguably their best offensive lineman, didn't suit up because of a back injury.

B.J. Goodson, who would be their starting middle linebacker, was out of uniform again because of a lingering ankle injury.

And then there are the long-term injuries that forced the Giants to play again Sunday without Odell Beckham, Jr., Brandon Marshall, Dwayne Harris, Weston Richburg and Mark Herzlich.

"We were short-handed today, but that's no excuse," coach Ben McAdoo said. "We have enough talented players to go out there and play well."

They proved that with perhaps their most impressive performance of the season in a 12-9 overtime victory in windy MetLife Stadium against the AFC West-leading Kansas City Chiefs. Aldrick Rosas' 23-yard field goal with 1:54 remaining in overtime accounted for the game-winning points and capped a 10-play, 77-yard drive.

GIANTS AT REDSKINS
REDSKINS 20, GIANTS 10

LANDOVER, MD — The Giants gained 170 yards on 55 plays, an average of 3.1 yards a snap. They totaled seven first downs — one in the second half, and that with 1:16 remaining in the game. It took two passes that gained 36 yards on the Giants' final drive to put Eli Manning over 100 yards for the game. The Giants converted only two of 14 third-down opportunities. They traveled inside the Washington 20-yard line just once in 13 possessions, and came away with a field goal — but only after they couldn't connect on an almost-certain touchdown pass.

The loss dropped the Giants to an unfathomable 2-9, and three games behind their nearest competitors in the NFC East (Washington and Dallas are 5-6).

"It's no fun losing," Manning said. "It's no fun not scoring. Not enough points offensively. Yeah, it can wear you out. It can test you, but you've got to keep going to the drawing board and find ways to play better and move the ball and score some points."

The reality is it's difficult for the Giants to do that as presently constructed. They've played six games without Odell Beckham, Jr., Brandon Marshall and Dwayne Harris. With Justin Pugh, Weston Richburg and D.J. Fluker not playing, their offensive line is severely depleted. Sterling Shepard, the best receiver remaining on the active roster, missed his second consecutive game and fourth of the season.

"You miss him," Manning said of Shepard. "He's one of our go-to guys. He has some experience and he's a playmaker. I thought he was going to give it a shot today. He kind of went through some chair drills this morning and was there, and then we got word he wasn't going to go."

GAME 12

GIANTS AT RAIDERS

DECEMBER 3, 2017

RAIDERS 24, GIANTS 17

OAKLAND — The Giants' biggest news of the season off the field didn't produce a better result on the field.

Geno Smith officially ended Eli Manning's 13-year, 4,767-day reign as the team's starting quarterback when he took the first snap Sunday against the Raiders in Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Smith threw the ball well, but lost two fumbles, and didn't help solve the team's scoring issues. The result was a 24-17 loss that dropped the Giants to 2-10.

Smith made no attempt to hide his disappointment after the game.

"I just hate to lose," Smith said. "I don't want to lose at all at anything. I was upset that we lost, I felt like we had some opportunities and we couldn't take advantage of them. We can't really cry over spilled milk. You just got to pick yourself up and get ready for next week."

That's when the Giants will play their first division home game when they host the Dallas Cowboys. Coach Ben McAdoo was not prepared to say if Smith will start that game. When he announced the change from Manning to Smith, McAdoo said rookie Davis Webb would also play at some point.

"We said we're going to take it one week at a time," McAdoo said. "These games are emotional, so to stand up here and make a decision right here after the football game, it's not a good way to go about business. We need to go take a look at the tape first and put our heads together and see what direction we want to go. But Geno didn't do anything today to cost him an opportunity, no." Moments later, McAdoo said he would make a decision, "early in the week. We need to go back, we need to watch the film, take a look at it, put our heads together. At some point in time tomorrow, we'll make that call."

Smith completed 21 of 34 passes for 212 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions for a passer rating of 89.3 against the Raiders.

GIANTS RECORDS

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — In the big picture, it was another desultory defeat in a lost season. But for Giants fans, it had one meaningful moment.

The Giants' 30-10 loss to the Dallas Cowboys included many of the elements seen far too often this year. There was the offense that struggled to score points, held back in part by too many dropped passes. The defense was again susceptible to big plays, most notably three completions of at least 50 yards, two of them touchdowns, including an 83-yarder. The Giants again struggled in the fourth quarter, when they were outscored, 20-0, in their first game under interim head coach Steve Spagnuolo. They are now 2-11, and have only three games left in this forgettable season.

But the fans who came to MetLife Stadium had something to cheer about, though the most emotional applause occurred before the Giants took a snap, when Eli Manning took the field to a standing ovation from fans thrilled that he was once again the starting quarterback. Manning didn't play last week in Oakland, ending his streak of 210 consecutive regular-season starts. One of Spagnuolo's first acts when he received his new duties last Monday was to re-install Manning as the starter.

"That's where I want to be," Manning said at his postgame news conference. "I wanna go out, be there with my teammates, try to get a win, be there for the fans and do my part. Hopefully, the coaches believe I gave us the best chance to win at quarterback. I thought we did some good things today; competed. Three and a half quarters right in the mix. We have to find ways to finish stronger in the second half, and at the end of games."

Regarding the fans' obvious delight in seeing No. 10 line up to start the game, Manning said, "My focus is trying to get the play and figure out what the Cowboys are doing. I appreciate it. I appreciate all of the support the fans have given me for 14 years and these last weeks, especially. I appreciate them coming out today and cheering me on and cheering on the Giants."

GIANTS VS. EAGLES

DECEMBER 17, 2017

EAGLES 34, GIANTS 29

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Giants went toe-to-toe Sunday against the team with the best record in the NFC, but too many missteps left them with another tough loss in a game they believe they could have won.

The final score in MetLife Stadium was 34-29 in favor of the 12-2 Philadelphia Eagles, who swept the season series and beat the Giants for the seventh time in eight meetings. The Giants had a chance to win the game in the final moments, driving from their own 20 to the Eagles' six-yard line. But after a false start penalty, Eli Manning's 11-yard pass to Evan Engram was high, as the home team fans pleaded for a pass interference penalty on safety Corey Graham that was never called, and the Giants fell to 2-12.

"That drive at the end was special," said interim head coach Steve Spagnuolo, whose team held a 13-point lead in the second quarter. "We all were hoping for a memorable score and a memorable game, and a lot of what could have been. But a 2-11 team beating an 11-2 on the last play would have been special. It didn't happen.

"If that is the best team in the NFC, which it might very well be, then we went out there and exchanged punches with the best and almost came away with a win. But we didn't."

GIANTS AT CARDINALS

DECEMBER 24, 2017
CARDINALS 23, GIANTS 0

GLENDALE, Ariz. — Seldom has one game served as a microcosm of an entire football season as purely as the Giants' 23-0 loss Sunday to the Arizona Cardinals in University of Phoenix Stadium.

Virtually all of the flaws and issues that have doomed the Giants to what is inescapably one of the worst seasons in the 93-year history of the franchise were on display on a cloudless day in the desert.

There was the sputtering rushing attack, which averaged 2.2 yards a carry and had no run longer than seven yards. Eli Manning again searched long and hard for open receivers, and while his numbers were respectable (27-for-45 for 263 yards), he threw two interceptions and lost a fumble that was returned for a touchdown.

In addition to the three turnovers, the Giants matched their season-high with 10 penalties, for 101 yards. The defense played reasonably well, but couldn't keep up with Larry Fitzgerald (nine catches for 119 yards and a touchdown), though covering the third-leading receiver in history has long been a problem for those who try. There was Aldrick Rosas' seventh missed field goal attempt of the season, in perfect conditions from 33 yards out.

GAME 16

GIANTS VS. REDSKINS

GIANTS 18, REDSKINS 10

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Giants' 2017 season will be remembered for its too many losses and too many injuries, and for the end of Eli Manning's streak of 210 consecutive regular-season starts. Emotional when he lost his job, Manning regained it the next week and continued onward with his customary stoicism and optimism.

At the end, the Giants were rewarded. They concluded their season Sunday with an 18-10 victory over the Washington Redskins in frigid MetLife Stadium. With the 3-13 season finished at last, Manning admitted it had been a long, hard journey.

"It's probably been my toughest year of football, I would say," Manning said at his postgame news conference. "Obviously with the losses, with the injuries, with a benching and coming back and uncertainty and everything going on. But really, the losses more than anything, probably. It's tough, it's tough to prepare every week and to put all the effort into it and to not get the outcomes you want. Especially some heartbreakers that we lost early on in the season, and then we kind of started losing some of our personnel. So, it's been tough, but hopefully we learn from it and grow from it."

Manning just completed his 14th Giants season. Like everyone with an interest in the team, he is eager to see what changes new general manager Dave Gettleman will institute. At his introductory news conference, Gettleman indicated he wants Manning to be the Giants' quarterback in 2018. Manning left no doubt that is his wish.

"Yeah, 100 percent," Manning said. "I don't want to go play football anywhere else. This is where I want to play, this is my family, the New York Giants. So, hopefully they feel the same way and we can make that work out."

2017 PRESEASON REVIEW

Aug. 11, 2017 • MetLife Stadium

Eli Manning and Ben Roethlisberger, a pair of two-time Super Bowl-winning quarterbacks from the NFL Draft class of 2004, did not play in this preseason opener. The starters were veteran Josh Johnson for the Giants and rookie Joshua Dobbs for the Steelers.

Dobbs threw the game's only touchdown pass, a 28-yarder to Cobi Hamilton with 33 seconds remaining in the second quarter to give the Steelers a 10-9 halftime lead. Pittsburgh also got a 15-yard touchdown run from Terrell Watson, and Chris Boswell field goals of 48 and 37 yards.

The Giants held early leads of 6-0 and 9-3 before Hamilton's touchdown.

Al of the Giants points came via field goals. Aldrick Rosas kicked three-pointers from 27 and 52 yards, while Mike Nugent added field goals from 30 and 45 yards.

Giants quarterbacks Geno Smith, rookie Davis Webb and Johnson combined to complete 23 of 43 passes for 212 yards. Tight ends Jerrell Adams and Rhett Ellison led the team with three receptions apiece. Orleans Darkwa had a team-high 18 rushing yards.

Defensively, Pro Bowl safety Landon Collins led the Giants with five tackles (four solo), while rookies Dalvin Tomlinson and Calvin Munson each added four stops.

BROWNS 10, GIANTS 6

Aug. 21, 2017 • FirstEnergy Stadium

The Giants failed to score a touchdown for the second game in a row and fell to the Browns in Cleveland, 10-6, in a national-televased Monday night game.

The game's most significant play occurred early in the second quarter, when Odell Beckham, Jr. suffered a sprained left tackle when he was tackled by Brian Boddy-Calhoun after catching an 18-yard pass from Eli Manning on the second play of the second quarter. The injury eventually forced Beckham to miss the regular-season opener.

Manning, in his first game action of the summer completed 10 of 14 passes for 80 yards, including a 21-yarder to first-round draft choice Evan Engram. Beckham and Evan were among the four players who led the Giants with three receptions apiece. Rookie Wayne Gallman had a team-high 22 rushing yards on five carries. His former Clemson teammate, linebacker B.J. Goodson, had a team-high seven tackles (five solo), including a 10-yard sack.

The Giants scored first, on Mike Nugent's 38-yard field goal in the second quarter. Cleveland took a 10-3 lead just before halftime on a one-yard run by quarterback DeShone Kizer.

The only second-half scores were third-quarter field goals by Cleveland's Zane Gonzalez (39 yards) and Aldrick Rosas (47 yards).

Aug. 26, 2017 • MetLife Stadium

Like so many NFL preseason games, the annual Giants-Jets MetLife Bowl was a two-for-one special.

When the starters and key reserves played in the first two quarters, the Giants soared to a 29-3 halftime lead. In the second half, when many players who didn't make the regular-season roster got their turn, they were outscored, 28-3. The Giants won, 32-31, when Jets rookie running back Elijah McGuire was stopped by several defenders on a two-point conversion attempt with 1:26 remaining in the game.

The Giants celebrated their first preseason victory of 2017, and enjoyed many positive developments.

After losing two games without scoring a touchdown, the Giants reached the end zone three times, two on interceptions returns by Landon Collins and Donte Deayon, and on Orleans Darkwa's one-yard run. They also got field goals of 50 and 54 yards from Mike Nugent and 24 yards from Aldrick Rosas, and a safety when Jason Pierre-Paul tackled Matt Forte in the end zone.

Eli Manning played only the first quarter — a shorter than normal stint for a third preseason game — and completed seven of 14 passes for 121 yards.

Manning was followed, in order, by Josh Johnson, Geno Smith, and rookie Davis Webb, who combined to complete 11 of 20 passes for 138 yards.

Travis Rudolph, a rookie free agent from Florida State, joined Sterling Shepard and Roger Lewis when the first-team offense deployed three receivers and led the team with three catches for 81 yards. That included a 57-yard catch-and-run from the Giants' nine when he outjumped cornerback Darryl Robert for the ball and ran for an additional 34 yards. The ball was thrown by Johnson.

Linebackers Calvin Munson and Curtis Grant led the Giants with five sacks apiece.

Aug. 31, 2017 • Gillette Stadium

It was a fascinating night for the Giants' quarterbacks, despite — or probably because of — Eli Manning spending the entire game on the sideline.

Backups, Geno Smith, Josh Johnson, and rookie Davis Webb all distinguished themselves in the Giants' thrilling 40-38 victory against the New England Patriots in their preseason finale in Gillette Stadium. Aldrick Rosas, who did all of the Giants' kicking, booted a 48-yard field goal as time expired — and just 44 seconds after the Patriots' Stephen Gostkowski capped a 17-point rally with a 55-yard field goal to give New England a one-point lead.

The victory left the Giants with a 2-2 preseason record.

It was a fascinating night for the Giants' quarterbacks, despite — or probably because of — Eli Manning spending the entire game on the sideline.

Smith started and completed 10 of 11 for 111 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown to Matt LaCrosse. Johnson followed and hit 11 of 14 throws for 135 yards, and also threw a scoring pass to LaCrosse, for two yards. Webb, the third-round draft choice from Cal, entered the game late in the third quarter with the Giants leading 34-21. He promptly led the Giants to a field goal for a 16-point advantage, only to watch the Patriots score 17 unanswered points in less than six minutes. Webb responded by completing four of six passes and coolly leading the Giants on a 45-yard drive and into range for Rosas to win the game.

Webb has been taking snaps in the two-minute drill in practice, but didn't know if he'd get an opportunity to do it in a game — especially when the Giants held a sizeable lead with less than seven minutes remaining. But when given a chance with the game on the line, Webb performed admirably. He completed passes of 19 yards to Ed Eagan and five yards to Wayne Gallman. On third-and-five with 17 seconds left, he found LaCrosse for 10 yards, and then again for 11, giving McAdoo a chance to call timeout with four seconds left for Rosas.

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to lower their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the stock market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine-degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever were a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to new powers like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces fit together

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

WHY GIANTS? HOW THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS GOT ITS NAME

Owner Tim Mara "borrowed" the Giants' name from the city's Major League Baseball team of the same name. This was not unusual among early day pro football franchises. At one time or another there were NFL franchises named the New York Yankees, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds, and Detroit Tigers.

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February, 1991, less than a month after winning their second Super Bowl, it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was hired as coach before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants were 7-9 in 2000.

In 2000, the Giants returned to the upper echelon of the NFL. They won the NFC East title and earned home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 12-4 regular season record. The Giants then beat Philadelphia in the divisional playoffs and routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time. But they failed to win the game for the first time, falling to the Baltimore Ravens.

The Giants slipped to 7-9 in 2001, losing their last two games to fall out of playoff contention. In 2002, the Giants won their final four regular season games, including an overtime thriller in the regular season finale against Philadelphia, to clinch a wild card playoff berth. In the third period of the postseason game in San Francisco, the Giants led the 49ers, 38-14. But San Francisco rallied for a 39-38 victory.

Because of their impressive stretch run, the Giants began the 2003 season with high hopes. At midseason, they were in the thick of the playoff race with a 4-4 record. But a second-half collapse against Atlanta set the tone for an eight-game, season-ending losing streak. With two games remaining, the Giants announced that Fassel would not return. On Jan. 6, 2004, Tom Coughlin, a highly-successful head coach at Boston College and with the Jacksonville Jaguars, and a former Giants assistant, was hired as the 16th head coach in Giants history.

In the 2004 NFL Draft, the Giants traded for quarterback Eli Manning, who started the final seven games of his rookie season. The Giants were 6-10 in Coughlin's first year at the helm. In 2005, Manning started every game and the Giants were 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000. The first-place finish was an NFL-record 21st in franchise history. Five Giants were elected to the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven. The group was led by running back Tiki Barber, who was second in the NFL in rushing with a team-record 1,860 yards. Barber's 2,390 total yards were the second-highest total in league history. The Giants finished 8-8 in 2006, but made the playoffs as a wild card.

The 2007 season began inauspiciously, with losses in the first two games, but ended as one of the greatest seasons in Giants history. The Giants clinched an NFC Wild Card postseason berth with a victory in Buffalo in their 15th game. The following week, they narrowly lost to the undefeated New England Patriots in the regular season finale to finish 10-6. What followed was one of the greatest postseason runs in NFL history, one that culminated with an upset of the Patriots in an exhilarating Super Bowl XLII. Along the way, the Giants set an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from their home stadium.

The Giants, seeded fifth in the conference, opened post-season play with a 24-14 Wild Card victory at Tampa Bay. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants. The following week, the Giants avenged two regular season defeats with a 21-17 triumph over the Cowboys in Dallas in a divisional playoff. Amani Toomer caught two touchdown passes, Jacobs scored on a short run and the defense limited the high-scoring Cowboys to three second-half points.

The Giants captured the conference title with a thrilling 23-20 overtime triumph over the Green Bay Packers in frigid Lambeau Field. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with a wind-chill factor of minus-23, making it the coldest game in Giants history. Lawrence Tynes — who missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final play of regulation — kicked a 47-yard field goal 2:35 into overtime for the victory. The field goal was set up by Corey Webster's interception of the last pass of Brett Favre's career. Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw scored touchdowns for the Giants and Tynes added field goals of 29 and 37 yards.

Super Bowl XLII was played in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants were heavy underdogs to a New England team that was 18-0 and was bidding to conclude the second perfect season in NFL history. But it was the Giants who enjoyed a perfect finish. Trailing, 7-3, entering the fourth quarter, they took their first lead of the game on Manning's five-yard touchdown pass to David Tyree. The score was set up by a 45-yard catch-and-run by rookie tight end Kevin Boss. New England took a 14-10 lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Randy Moss with just 2:42 remaining.

The Giants took possession at their own 17 with 2:39 left in the game and Manning proceeded to lead them on one of the great drives in NFL postseason history. The highlight of the 12-play, 83-yard march occurred on third-and-five from the Giants' 44. Manning somehow eluded the grasp of the rushing Patriots line and threw downfield for Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet for a miracle 32-yard gain. Steve Smith picked up a critical first down before Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining. The Giants stopped a desperate last New England possession and won their third Super Bowl in one of the biggest upsets in the game's history.

In 2011, the Giants again won the Super Bowl under very similar circumstances, using a last-minute touchdown to defeat New England, 21-17, in Super Bowl XLVI in Indianapolis. Once again, the Giants shocked the football public by winning the Vince Lombardi trophy. After a home loss to Washington on Dec. 18, their record was 7-7. A loss in either of their final two regular season games would have eliminated them from the playoffs. But they defeated the Jets, 29-14, as the visiting team before routing Dallas on New Year's Night, 31-14, to clinch the NFC East title.

Seeded fourth, the Giants opened the postseason with their third consecutive convincing victory in MetLife Stadium, a 24-2 triumph over the Atlanta Falcons in an NFC Wild Card Game. The following week, Manning threw for 330 yards and three touchdowns, including a Hail Mary to Hakeem Nicks on the final play of the first half, and the Giants crushed the top-seeded and defending champion Green Bay Packers, 37-20, in Lambeau Field. That advanced the Giants to the NFC Championship Game in San Francisco, where they had lost a regular season game two months earlier. This time, Devin Thomas recovered a fumble on a punt return that was forced by Jacquian Williams that led to Tynes' game-winning 31-yard field goal with 7:54 elapsed in overtime and a 20-17 Giants victory.

In the Super Bowl, the Giants jumped ahead, 9-0, before the Patriots scored 17 consecutive points. Two third-quarter field goals by Tynes lifted them to within 17-15. The Giants trailed by that score when they took possession at their own 12-yard line with 3:46 remaining. Manning then reprised the fourth-quarter magic he had used to win the previous Super Bowl and seven games in the 2011 season. He immediately threw a perfect strike down the left sideline to Mario Manningham for a 38-yard gain. He completed five of six passes on the drive and 10 of 14 in the decisive quarter. Ahmad Bradshaw scored the game-winning touchdown by backing into the end zone on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining. The defense withstood one last Patriots rally to secure the Giants' second Super Bowl victory in five seasons and fourth overall.

In 2012, the Giants finished with a winning record for the third year in a row, but their 9-7 mark — the same record they had the previous season, when they won the Super Bowl — left them in second place in the NFC East and out of the playoffs. The Giants finished 6-2 at home, their finest home mark since they were 7-1 in 2008. They were 4-4 at home in 2011 championship season. The Giants scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history; the 1963 Giants scored 448. The 2012 season was the fifth in the 88-year history of the franchise in which the Giants scored more than 400 points. The Giants scored a franchise-record 278 points at home, shattering the old mark of 248, set in 2007. They allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks. The Giants' plus-14 turnover differential was their best since they were plus-25 in 1997. The Giants intercepted 21 passes in 2012, their highest total since they had 27 picks, also in 1997.

The 2013 Giants finished 7-9, the team's first losing record since 2004. That broke a streak of eight consecutive seasons in which the Giants finished .500 or better, their longest such stretch since they played 10 seasons in a row without a losing record from 1954-63. The Giants followed an 0-6 start with four consecutive victories. They were the second team in NFL history to lose its first six games and win the next four (joining the 2009 Tennessee Titans). The Giants struggled offensively all season. They ranked 28th in the NFL in both yards per game (307.5) and points per game (18.4). The Giants scored 294 points, their lowest total in Tom Coughlin's 12 seasons as head coach. The Giants committed an NFL-high 44 turnovers. It was their highest turnover total since 1983, when they had 58 turnovers. The Giants' minus-15 turnover differential was their worst since they were minus-16, also in 1983. The defense, ranked 26th in the NFL entering Week 6, when it was allowing an average of 395.2 yards per game, finished the season ranked eighth, giving up 332.3 yards a game.

In 2014, the Giants were 6-10, their first double-digit loss season since they had the same record in Coughlin's debut season in 2004. They scored 380 points and allowed 400. It was just the fifth time in franchise history they gave up at least 400 points. Under first-year coordinator and future head coach Ben McAdoo, the Giants finished 10th in the NFL in total offense with an average of 367.2 yards a game, a 59.7 yards-per-game improvement over their 2013 average of 307.5. The Giants were ranked 29th in the NFL in total defense, allowing 375.8 yards a game, after finishing eighth (332.3 yards per game) in 2013. The run defense ranked 30th (135.1 yards a game), while the Giants were 18th vs. the pass (240.6).

A disappointing 2015 season led to a significant change in the franchise's coaching hierarchy. The Giants lost six of their last seven games to finish 6-10 for the second consecutive season. It was their first back-to-back double-digit loss seasons since 2003-04 when they were 4-12 in Fassel's final season as head coach and 6-10 in Coughlin's first. Eight of the 10 losses were by six or fewer points. The Giants lost six games in which they held a lead or were tied in the fourth quarter. They finished under .500 for the third consecutive season, the first time that's happened since they had eight straight losing seasons from 1973-80. The Giants missed the playoffs for the fourth consecutive season, their longest drought since they went 17 years about a postseason berth from 1964-80. The day after the season finale, Coughlin stepped down as head coach. Ten days later, McAdoo was hired to replace him after two seasons as the offensive coordinator.

McAdoo's first season was a success. In 2016, the Giants finished 11-5, good for a second-place finish in the NFC East and their first postseason berth in five years. The team's strength that season was its defense. The Giants were second in the NFL with 284 points allowed, one season after they were ranked 30th by giving up 442 points, the second-highest total in franchise history. The Giants allowed 17.8 points per game, the lowest average by their opponents since 2002, when they gave up 17.4 points a game. They gave up an NFL-low 26 touchdowns (including a league-low 25 opposing offensive touchdowns) and just 15 touchdown passes after surrendering 31 the previous year. The Giants allowed less than 20 points eight times, their highest total since 2008, when they also did it eight times. That enabled them to win won an NFL-high six games when scoring no more than 20 points. With a 27-23 victory vs. Baltimore on Oct. 16, the Giants became the third NFL franchise with 700 combined regular-season and postseason victories, joining the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears. The 2016 Giants were unable to continue their success in the postseason, losing an NFC Wild Card Game to the Packers in Lambeau Field, 38-13.

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds, losing to the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926

Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927

Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the 13-game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and allowed only 20 points all year.

1928

After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929

Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930

For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931

After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932

Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard-fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass-reception champion with 21 catches.

1933

The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

1934

In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27-point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

YEAR-BY-HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

THE "SNEAKERS GAME"

1935

After beginning the season with a 4-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit.

1936

The initial NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it did not have a winning record.

1937

Seventeen rookies helped make up the 25-man roster in 1937, a season that also marked the debut of the now-familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938

A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. A crowd of 48,120 fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants earned the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939

On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Chicago. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940

The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing the feat for the 10th year in a row.

1941

With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942

After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and in third place in the Eastern Division. The Giants recorded a memorable victory in the season opener, defeating the Washington Redskins, 14-7, although they didn't have a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown. The Giants also scored on an intercepted return and handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943

With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944

Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945

The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946

Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947

The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

The Giants renovation was accelerated in 1948 when they acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The franchise reached another milestone in its illustrious existence, but it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949

Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the "A" formation to the "T," which helped the Giants improve to a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950

The Giants and New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns, their first season above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game.

1951

End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952

Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953

Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr. of Morgan State, a future Hall of Famer, was the Giants 27th pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954

Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955

On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956

Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

1957

The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958

After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became a full-time defensive coach. For the first time in 17 years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. Offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record. They allowed a then NFL-record 501 points. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up their first and second-round picks in 1967, number one pick in 1968, and second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 touchdown passes led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. After losing seven games in a row, the Giants finished with three straight victories to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970

After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the postseason with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971

After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead, two additional players and draft choices. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

NASA

Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973

Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975

The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for Giants Stadium to open. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976

Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977

Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of its final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979

Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, the second-highest total in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. A highlight was a 38-35 defeat of Dallas that ended an eight-game losing streak. Dave Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft. New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, before obtaining running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. The Giants lost three straight to drop to 5-6. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced an injured Phil Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime defeat of Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

A wild and turbulent year in which the NFL players' strike shortened the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout until late November, returning to play in just the final five games. On December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants — Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings — were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an NFL record with 35 field goals.

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants earned the NFC Wild Card playoff berth, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second place in the NFC East. Simms set three single-season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson—were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, 21-0. Five players Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall were named to the Pro Bowl. There were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set team records with 1,336 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns. Simms set club marks with 40 completions and 513 passing yards in a game. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

1986

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set a record for all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the 39-20 Super Bowl victory over Denver after completing a playoff record 88% of his passes (22-25). Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and the team set attendance records at home and on the road.

After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in a season that included a players strike and three games with replacement players. In addition, injuries sidelined 11 starters. While the Giants finished with six wins in its final ten games, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

The Giants bounced back and after splitting the first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 record heading into the final weekend of the season. But an upset loss to the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth. The Giants 10-6 record gave them a five-year mark of 54-32 (.628), including postseason play. Those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year span. Joe Morris set a club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' career rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants won their second NFC East championship in four years with a 12-4 record. Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set club marks with 582 punt return yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equaled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a touchdown.

1990

The Giants started the season by winning their first ten games, and eventually won the division with a 13-3 record despite losing Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the Mara family's sole ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch, who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. In May, 1991, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting quarterback, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the campaign. Simms added his 15th club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6-10 season as injuries to key players hurt the team. Phil Simms regained his starting quarterback spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards. Jeff Hostetler started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press, which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a wild card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC divisional playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the conclusion of the 1998 season.

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak that resulted in a 9-7 record. The Giants came into Week 16 needing a victory over the six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. The Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of 7.5 straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The season ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card game. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News, which World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a wild card berth. The Giants defeated Dallas, 15-10, but the season ended when the Bucs lost to the Packers, 34-19. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

After overcoming a 3-7 start, the Giants remained in the hunt for a playoff berth until the final week and finished with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final game, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third wild card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Donny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

For the second straight year, the Giants entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the NFL's postseason field. The difference between the two seasons is that in 1998 the Giants won five of their last six games. In 1999, victories over the Jets and at Buffalo raised the Giants' record to 7-6; however, the Giants dropped their last three games to finish 7-9. It was the team's first losing season in three years under head coach Jim Fassel. The final blow was a 26-18 loss at Dallas, a game that followed the Giants' elimination from the playoff race with Green Bay's victory over Arizona earlier in the day. In spite of the obvious disappointment, a few bright spots emerged for the Giants in 1999. The Giants set records on offense, led by Amani Toomer, who established a team single-season record with 79 receptions (breaking Earnest Gray's record of 78 receptions set in 1983). Toomer fell 26 yards shy of the team record of 1,209 receiving yards, set by Homer Jones in 1967. Also, for the first time in the 75-year history of the team, the Giants had four receivers record over 50 receptions in a season: Toomer (79), Ike Hilliard (72), Tiki Barber (66), and Pete Mitchell (58). Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Armstead surpassed the 100-tackle mark for the fourth straight year with 124 tackles (97 solos) and recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks. Strahan recorded 56 tackles (41 solos) and posted 5.5 sacks. QB Kerry Collins started the final six games of the season after replacing Kent Graham in the lineup following the 10th game.

The Giants enjoyed their finest season in a decade, winning the NFC East and home-field advantage in the playoffs with a 12-4 record before defeating Philadelphia and Minnesota to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. The highlight of the season was a 41-0 victory over Minnesota in the NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium. In their first Super Bowl appearance in 10 years, the Giants lost to Baltimore, 34-7. The Giants took a seven-game winning streak into the Super Bowl, a surge that began after Jim Fassel issued his now-famous playoff guarantee on November 22. The Giants finished 7-1 in the division and 7-1 away from Giants Stadium. The seven road victories tied a franchise record set in 1930 (when three of the road games were in Newark, Staten Island and Brooklyn) and marked the first time since 1963 that the Giants lost just one game as visitors. The Giants averaged 125.6 rushing yards a game, a robust 37.5-yard gain over the 1999 average. Quarterback Kerry Collins was sacked 28 times; in 1999 Giants quarterbacks were sacked 42 times. Collins had the best season of his career, setting career highs in passes (529), completions (311), completion percentage (58.8) and touchdown passes (22). Halfback Tiki Barber set a Giants record of 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns). Amani Toomer caught 78 passes (one less than the franchise record he set in 1999. Ike Hilliard led the team with a 14.3-yard average and eight touchdown catches. The defense was second in the NFL against the run (72.3 yards a game) and fifth in points allowed (15.4 per game). In 359 rushing attempts, opponents had an NFL-best two runs of longer than 20 yards. Jessie Armstead led the team with 102 tackles — his fifth consecutive season with more than a hundred tackles — and was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Defensive tackle Keith Hamilton had the best season of his nine-year career. He was a dominating run-stopper and he led the Giants with 10 sacks, an impressive feat for a tackle. Defensive end Michael Strahan had perhaps his finest all-around season and raised his sack total from 5.5 in 1999 to 9.5 in 2000.

After a strong 3-1 start, the Giants lost eight of their last 12 games and finished 7-9 and in third place in the NFC East, the third time in as many tries they failed to make the playoffs a season after reaching the Super Bowl. The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington on Sept. 11 — the day after the Giants lost their Monday night opener in Denver — made the rest of season a minor footnote by comparison. After the attacks, many players reached out to victims' families, firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers and their children. Despite the disappointing record, the season included many highlights, notably Michael Strahan setting a new NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. Kerry Collins became the first quarterback in league history to throw every one of his team's passes in two consecutive seasons. Collins set team marks for passes (568) and completions (327).

THE 2000 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Tiki Barber accounted for 1,782 total yards, Mike Barrow set a team record with 135 tackles, Morten Andersen became the second-leading scorer in NFL history, Howard Cross set a new franchise record for games played (207), Amani Toomer caught more than 70 passes for the third season in a row, rookie Rodney Williams established a team record with a 90-yard punt against the Broncos and Jessie Armstead played in his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (and was joined in Hawaii by Strahan and Ron Stone). Although they struggled with two three-game losing streaks, the Giants thrilled their fans with scintillating last-second victories over Dallas (in overtime), Arizona and Seattle. After the defeat in Denver — and a week off after the NFL's decision not to play the Sunday after the attacks — the Giants won three straight, against Kansas City, New Orleans and Washington. The winning streak was followed by consecutive heartbreaking 1-point losses to St. Louis and Philadelphia, and a defeat at Washington. The Giants then rebounded with victories over Dallas and Arizona before again dropping three straight to Minnesota, Oakland and Dallas. They played their way back into playoff contention with dramatic triumphs over Arizona and Seattle, but closed the season with losses to Philadelphia and Green Bay.

An exciting and rewarding season concluded with the Giants winning their final four regular season games to finish 10-6 and in second place in the NFC East. More importantly, they earned a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoffs, where they lost a heartbreaking 39-38 game to the San Francisco 49ers. But the game did not diminish the season's many team and individual achievements. The Giants made their 26th appearance in the playoffs, tying them with the Dallas Cowboys for the most postseason appearances in NFL history. They finished the regular season ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense, with 364.1 yards a game. It was their highest ranking and most yards per game since the 1985 Giants finished fifth in total offense with 367.8 yards a game. The Giants improved to 19-5 in regular season December games under Jim Fassel. Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons. Kerry Collins completed 335 passes, a Giants record, and was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 4,073 passing yards, breaking the previous team record of 4,044, set by Phil Simms in 1984. Collins completed 61.5 percent of his passes, a career-high and the third-best percentage in team history. Tiki Barber was 4th in the NFL and 1st in the NFC with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He rushed for 1,387 rushing yards, the second-highest total in team history after Joe Morris' 1,516 yards in 1986. Amani Toomer set team records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with eight touchdown catches. Pro Bowler Jeremy Shockey caught 74 passes, the fifth-highest total in Giants history, and a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). Michael Strahan was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 years and from Sept. 22 through Dec. 1, he had at least a half-sack in 10 consecutive games, tying the NFL record set by Denver's Simon Fletcher in 1991 and tied by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999.

The Giants endured one of their most unpleasant seasons in recent memory, losing their last eight games to finish 4-12. The Giants were 4-4 at midseason. In Game 9, they were tied at halftime with Atlanta, 7-7. But the Falcons scored 20 unanswered second-half points to send the Giants to a defeat from which they would never recover. The Giants finished the season 1-7 at home, the first time since 1983 they won a single home game. Despite their poor record, the Giants had several individual highlights. Michael Strahan led the NFL with 18.5 sacks, the second-highest total of his career, and became the first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. For the second consecutive year, Strahan and tight end Jeremy Shockey were the only Giants selected to the Pro Bowl. Shockey became the first Giant to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons since Taylor in 1981-82. Running back Tiki Barber had team-high totals of 1,216 rushing yards (the second-highest total of his career) and 69 receptions. He became the first Giant to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Barber finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and is second in rushing (5,409 yards). Amani Toomer extended his own team record with his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Quarterbacks Kerry Collins and Jesse Palmer combined to throw a franchise-record 616 passes in 2003. Right guard David Diehl became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985. He was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003. The team announced with two games remaining that Jim Fassel would not return as head coach. Fassel was replaced by Tom Coughlin on January 6, 2004.

YEAR-BY-HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

With Coughlin at the helm, the Giants revamped their roster and started the season 5-2. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum and lost eight consecutive games before winning the season finale against the Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished in second place in the NFC East with a 6-10 record, a two-game improvement over their 2003 mark. Running back Tiki Barber set four significant team records and was selected to his first Pro Bowl. He finished first in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage. Barber was fifth in the league and second in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, two more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. He set the record on a game-winning three-yard run with 11 seconds remaining in the finale against Dallas. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry. Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in nine games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of eight, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, eclipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. The Giants had other standout performers. Willie Ponder averaged an NFL-best 26.9 yards on kickoff returns, the highest average by a Giant since Leon McQuay averaged 27.6 yards in 1974. The Giants finished first in the NFL with a 25.1-yard kickoff return average, the first time since 1953 they led the NFL in that statistical category. Ponder was the first Giant to lead the NFL in average kickoff return yardage since Clarence Childs in 1964. Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 61 receptions to become the first tight end to top the team since Mark Bavaro had 55 catches in 1987. Bavaro had 55 catches that season. Shockey's team-leading six touchdown receptions were two more than he had in his first two seasons combined. Amani Toomer led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards. It was the sixth consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards. Eli Manning, selected with the top pick in the 2004 draft and then acquired by the Giants in a trade, started the last seven games and finished the season with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, six touchdowns and nine interceptions. Osi Umenyiora, a second-year defensive end, led the Giants with 7.0 sacks, six more than he had as a rookie. Linebacker Carlos Emmons led the team with 97 tackles (62 solo) and David Tyree had a team-high 23 special teams tackles.

The 2005 season was marked by soaring success and searing tragedy. The Giants finished 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000 before losing an NFC Wild Card Game to Carolina, 23-0. But the Giants' beloved owners, Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch, passed away within three weeks of each other, both from cancer. Mara, an NFL patriarch who was one of the most respected and influential figures in league history, and who had been with the Giants for their entire 81-year history, died on Oct. 25. Tisch, who purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991, was a business titan, renowned philanthropist and nonpareil New York City mover and shaker, died on Nov. 15. The Giants were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants had five players selected to the Pro Bowl, their largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to Hawaii. The Pro Bowlers were Barber, Shockey, Osi Umenyiora, Michael Strahan and David Tyree.

Barber had the greatest season by a running back in Giants history and was selected NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated and a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was second in the NFL with a team-record 1,860 rushing yards, shattering the franchise mark of 1,518 he set in 2004. Barber also had 530 receiving yards to become the only player in NFL history with at least 1,800 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. His 2,390 total yards were second-most in NFL history. St. Louis' Marshall Faulk had 2,429 yards in 1999 (1,381 rushing, 1,048 receiving). Barber led the NFL in runs of 20 or more yards (16), 40 or more yards (seven) and 50 or more yards (five). His 263 scrimmage yards at Oakland, 220 rushing yards against Kansas City and 95-yard run against the Raiders were all NFL single-game highs in 2005. Barber's 95-yard run at Oakland was the longest in Giants history and broke a record that stood for 75 years — Hap Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930.

Eli Manning threw 557 passes this season, the second-highest total in team history. His 294 completions place him fourth on the Giants' career list and his 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.

Umenyiora was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants player other than Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989.

Strahan was third in the NFC with 11.5 sacks. He and Umenyiora combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates.

YEAR-BY-HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

Jay Feely led all NFL kickers with a team-record and career-high 148 points, the first Giants kicker to hold the top spot since Dan Chandler in 1963 (106 points). Jeff Feagles played in all 16 games for the 18th consecutive season (third with the Giants). On Nov. 27 in Seattle, Feagles played in his 283rd consecutive game, a new NFL record. Former Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall had held the old mark of 282 since retiring in 1979.

Tyree was selected to his first Pro Bowl despite missing three games with an elbow injury, the Giants' first special teams player chosen since Reyna Thompson in 1990.

The Giants finished 8-8 and earned their second consecutive postseason berth, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1989-90. The record was incongruously fashioned with a 3-5 home record and a 5-3 mark away from Giants Stadium.

Tiki Barber ended his record-setting career by rushing for 1,662 yards and catching 58 passes. Eli Manning was tied for fourth in the NFL with 24 touchdown passes. Tight end Jeremy Shockey led the team with 66 receptions and was voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five-year career. Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant in 26 years, and was right behind Shockey with 63 catches. Linemen Chris Snee, David Diehl, Shaun O'Hara and Kareem McKenzie played solidly while missing just two games among them.

Defensively, middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles (38 more than anyone else on the team), including 93 solo. He was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Brian Urlacher. Safeties Gibril Wilson and Will Demps had 121 and 116 tackles, respectively, Osi Umenyiora led the team in sacks for the third consecutive year (despite missing five games) and tackle Fred Robbins had a solid all-around season.

On the debit side, the Giants were never at full strength in the second half of the season because several key players suffered injuries that forced them to go on injured reserve. The group included wide receiver Amani Toomer (knee), seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (Lisfranc foot sprain), left tackle Luke Petitgout, three-time Pro Bowl linebacker LaVar Arrington, reserve defensive end Justin Tuck and, late in the year, return specialist Chad Morton.

The 2007 season was one of the most successful, rewarding and memorable in franchise history.

The Giants stumbled to a 0-2 start — then fell behind by two touchdowns at halftime of their third game — before beginning a remarkable turnaround. They rallied to win that game, 14 of their next 18 and concluded the season with an exhilarating and unforgettable 17-14 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII. It was one of the greatest upsets and most exciting championship games in the long history of the National Football League.

game with an 18-0 record, including a three-point win over the Giants in the regular season finale. After New England had taken a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining in the fourth quarter, Manning completed five passes on an 83-yard drive — including a 32-yarder on the greatest play in Super Bowl history, when he slipped the clutches of the Patriots' pass rusher and threw down field to David Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet and away from safety Rodney Harrison.

Two days after bringing the Vince Lombardi Trophy back to the metropolitan area, the Giants were lauded by more than a million fans at a ticker tape parade up Manhattan's famed Canyon of Heroes, and later at a rally in Giants Stadium.

The Giants triumphed for the third time in four Super Bowl appearances, won their sixth title game and seventh overall championship. They won Super Bowls following the 1986, 1990 and 2007 seasons, NFL Championship Games in 1934, 1938 and 1956 and the league title in 1927, before the advent of championship games.

But this title was the most improbable of all. The Giants were just the fourth team to start a season 0-2 and reach the Super Bowl (and the third to win it). They finished the regular season at 10-6 and became the first six-loss team to win the Super Bowl since the 1988 San Francisco 49ers. The Giants won just three home games — none after October 21 — to become the first team with a losing home record to ever make the Super Bowl. The Giants were the fifth wild card team — and first from the NFC — to win the Super Bowl. They were the third team to reach the Super Bowl by winning three road playoff games, the second such team to win the Super Bowl and the first from the NFC. The Giants sent an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from home (seven regular season, four postseason, including the Super Bowl). Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons, games or moments. Eli Manning started every game and threw for 3,336 yards and 23 touchdowns to become the first Giants quarterback since Phil Simms (1984-86) to top 3,000 yards and 20 touchdown passes in each of three consecutive seasons. Brandon Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Burress was unable to practice virtually the entire season because of an ankle injury, but led the team with 70 receptions for 1,025 yards and 12 touchdowns, the highest total by a Giants receiver since Homer Jones had 13 in 1967. Amani Toomer caught 59 passes and became the franchise's all-time leader in receptions with 620. The offensive line — and fullback Madison Hedgecock, acquired off waivers after he was cut by St. Louis — played well throughout the year, a big reason the Giants finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards, averaging 134.3 a game.

Under new coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, the defense ranked seventh in the NFL, allowing 305.0 yards a game. The Giants led the NFL with 53.0 sacks and set a franchise record with 12 in a victory over Philadelphia on Sept.

30. Osi Umenyiora was third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 13.0 sacks and was the lone Giant voted to the Pro Bowl. Justin Tuck became a force on the defensive line and had 10.0 sacks. Michael Strahan, in the final season of his great career, added 9.0 sacks and moved to fifth on the NFL's career list with 141.5. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 116 tackles (63 solo). Corey Webster stepped up to play superbly in the playoffs. R.W. McQuarters has intercepted a pass in each of the first three postseason games.

The special teams also played well. Punter Jeff Feagles was one of the NFL's most effective punters in the 20th season of his remarkable career. Kicker Lawrence Tynes, acquired in an offseason trade with Kansas City, succeeded on 23 of 27 field goal attempts and booted the game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game. Domenik Hixon, acquired off waivers in October, became the primary kickoff returner late in the season and brought one back 74 yards for a touchdown in the regular season game against the Patriots.

When the 2008 NFL season began, the Giants had the Vince Lombardi Trophy on display in their lobby and legions of skeptics and doubters who were convinced they had won it more through luck and timing than skill. A popular refrain was that the Giants had simply become a hot team at the right time in the 2007 playoffs. For evidence, the disbelievers cited the Giants' stirring Super Bowl XLII victory over the previously-undefeated New England Patriots. When it was time to make predictions for the 2008 season, most prognosticators placed the Giants second or third in the NFC East.

But the Giants proved them all wrong. No, they didn't win another Super Bowl. But they did capture the division title and the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. They started the season 11-1 and winning 12 regular season games, they became only the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the title (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season).

The Giants achieved their success despite losing several key players from the 2007 championship team, including seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (retirement), two-time Pro Bowl defensive end Osi Umenyiora (knee injury suffered in the preseason), four-time Pro Bowl tight end Jeremy Shockey (traded to New Orleans) and wide receiver Plaxico Burress, (who did not play in the season's final month after he was wounded in an accidental shooting).

The day after the season ended with a loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game, Coach Tom Coughlin addressed many of the issues that had been raised in training camp.

"What I thought I would start with this morning is to think back to last spring and last summer when all of your questions concerned how this team would respond to winning the Super Bowl," Coughlin said. "Would they be, for lack of a better word, satisfied? Would they be as hungry coming into training camp and beyond training camp as they were in working our way to a Super Bowl championship? I think that our team responded and answered that question. I think we came out, we transitioned, we bridged from the Super Bowl year to the next season very well. Our competitiveness was there, our fire, our attempt to take the success of the Super Bowl season on into the next season was very successful. We were 11-1 and we did come out of camp and play very, very well for a very long time. We, of course, played well and the record stood for that. We didn't finish the season as well as we would have liked to, but I think we answered the questions of what this team was about."

"Twelve and five is not a bad season," general manager Jerry Reese said. "When you set the bar high like that and then all of sudden you get eliminated in the second round it stings. Overall, we had a real good season. It's not where we want it to be, but we said we wanted to be the organization that put our team in position to win the Super Bowl every year. For the last couple of years we have been able to put our team in position to do that. We fell short this time."

The loss to Philadelphia did not mitigate the achievements of a successful regular season. The Giants were one of only two teams to finish in the top nine in both the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. They rushed for an NFL-leading and franchise record 2,518 yards and also topped the league with a Giants-best 5.0 yards per carry. The Giants were the first team since 1985 to have two running backs rush for 1,000 yards each (Brandon Jacobs and Derrick Ward).

Seven Giants were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team: quarterback Eli Manning, center Shaun O'Hara, guard Chris Snee, defensive end Justin Tuck, punter Jeff Feagles and kicker John Carney. Two weeks before the game, long-snapper Zak DeOssie was added as the NFC's need player.

Snee and Tuck were named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and fullback Madison Hedgecock, O'Hara and Carney finished second in the voting at their positions. O'Hara, Hedgecock and defensive tackle Fred Robbins were named first-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated and O'Hara and Snee were selected to The Sporting News' All-Pro first team.

The Giants opened their season at home against NFC East rival Washington in the traditional Thursday night opener showcasing the previous season's Super Bowl champions.

Before the game, the Giants' three Super Bowl championship teams were honored during an inspiring and exciting pre-game ceremony that featured a surprise appearance by Michael Strahan.

A huge inflatable replica of the Lombardi Trophy was wheeled out to midfield as the stadium video boards showed highlights from Super Bowls XXI and XXV. Bob Papa, the voice of the Giants, then introduced the players from those teams that were in attendance: Hall of Famer Harry Carson, Stacy Robinson, Karl Nelson, Brad Benson, Bill Ard, Howard Cross, Rodney Hampton, Otis Anderson, Carl Banks and Mark Bavaro.

"Giants Stadium, you thought I was never coming back," said Strahan, who had announced his retirement three months previously after 15 stellar seasons with the team. "But I had to come back to celebrate the championship with the greatest fans in all of sports. And for one final time, salute my teammates for an incredible championship run. So what I want you to do is, I want you to get on your feet, I want you to make some noise and I want you to be ready to stomp somebody out and welcome the New York Giants Super Bowl champions."

With that, the 79,742 fans in attendance screamed in delight as the 2008 Giants took the field for the first time. At the other end of the stadium, a championship banner was raised.

When the Giants embarked on their 2009 season, the popular belief was that they could succeed because of the strength of a retooled defense, particularly the reinforced front, and a running game that had been the NFL's best in 2008. If a weakness, or at least a unit with multiple questions, existed, it was the untested group of wide receivers.

But someone shredded that script when the games began. The defense did not play as well as anticipated and the rushing attack wasn't as productive as it had been in previous seasons. But the passing game, with Eli

Manning having the finest year of his career and record-setting Steve Smith leading a group of receivers that exceeded expectations, was the strongest facet of the team.

The Giants' fortunes unfolded in a similarly unexpected fashion. Playing their 34th and final season in Giants Stadium, they hoped to win their second consecutive NFC East title and extend their franchise record with a fifth consecutive postseason berth. The journey began smoothly, as the Giants won their first five games. But they soon took a wrong turn, veered completely off course and ultimately hit a dead end. The Giants won just three times after that burst from the gate and finished with an 8-8 record and in third place in the division. They finished out of the playoffs for the first time since Tom Coughlin's inaugural season as head coach in 2004.

The Giants were hit by a debilitating series of injuries. Safety Kenny Phillips, their first round draft choice in 2008, played superbly in the first two games but missed the rest of the season because of an arthritic condition in his knee that required surgery. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce, a team leader, captain and the top tackler, sat out the final seven games with a bulging disk in his neck. Two of the free agents acquired to strengthen the defense, Chris Canty and Michael Boley, missed significant chunks of the season with injuries. Defensive tackle Jay Alford missed the entire year with a knee injury. Gerris Wilkinson led the team in special teams tackles when he was placed on injured reserve with a wrist injury. Running backs Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw and defensive end Justin Tuck played hurt most of the year and offensive linemen Rich Seubert and Kareem McKenzie were sidelined at the end of the season with injuries.

Manning finished the season with 317 completions in 509 attempts (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were all career highs. Manning is the third quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Kerry Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Phil Simms (4,044 in 1984).

Smith was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 107 receptions, 25 more than the franchise's previous single-season record-holder (Amani Toomer had 82 in 2002) and 50 more than this season's runner-up, Mario Manningham. Smith's 1,220 receiving yards were the second-highest total in franchise history. Toomer had 1,343 in 2002. Smith joined Toomer, Plaxico Burress (1,214 yards in 2005) and Homer Jones (1,209 yards in 1967) as the only Giants with 1,200-yard receiving seasons. Smith led the NFL with 38 receptions on third down.

Manningham had a break through season with 57 catches (in 14 games) and Hakeem Nicks had 47 receptions for 790 yards, both the third-highest total in history among Giants rookies. Nicks' six touchdown receptions were the most by a Giants rookie since Johnson had seven.

Center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee were selected to their second consecutive Pro Bowls and tackle David Diehl to his first. Tight end Kevin Boss had a solid season with 42 catches and five touchdowns. Cornerback Terrell Thomas started every game and led the team with 101 tackles (67 solo). Defensive end Osi Umenyiora returned from the knee surgery that cost him the 2008 season to record a team-high 7.0 sacks, the fifth time in six seasons he has led the team. Kicker Lawrence Tynes scored a career-high 126 points and Chase Blackburn and Bryan Kehl tied for the team lead with 16 special teams tackles.

The Giants finished with a record of 155-117 in regular season games in Giants Stadium, including 4-4 in 2009. They were 7-4 in postseason games for a total record of 162-121.

Giants Stadium hosted 477 NFL regular season games played in Giants Stadium, easily the most in league history. Chicago's Wrigley Field is second with 365.

Playing their 86th season, the Giants moved into a beautiful new home, New Meadowlands Stadium, which is located just a few yards away from where Giants Stadium, their home from 1976-2009, once stood. The Giants were 10-6, one of a record-tying 13 teams to finish with double-digit victories. They finished the season with the same record as the NFC East champion Philadelphia Eagles, the same record as the eventual Super Bowl XLV champion Green Bay Packers and the same record as the 2007 Giants team that won Super Bowl XLII.

But ultimately, the season did not meet their expectations because the Giants did not make the playoffs. Two losses to the Eagles and another to the Packers in the final seven weeks of the season first cost the Giants the NFC East title and then an opportunity to participate in the postseason. The Giants lost the NFC's last postseason berth on a tiebreaker.

The Giants ended their season with an unusual blend of emotions. They accepted their fate and took responsibility for coming up short, but they were equally defiant in their belief that they are better than a playoff non-qualifier.

"I'm really disappointed to be here talking to you guys about 10-6," general manager Jerry Reese said at his season-ending news conference. "I really felt like we had an opportunity to get into the playoffs and really do some damage when we got there, but it didn't work out that way. I'm really disappointed, even more so than last year because we put ourselves in position and that's what our goal is every year, to put ourselves in a position and we put ourselves in position and we just did not finish the job and that's very disappointing."

"I love this team, I love these guys, I think they're strong character people, we work together on everything, we're all in it together, we're all for one, one for all and that's the way that it has to be," Coughlin said. "It's a group of guys that don't make excuses for anything, they accept responsibility, they accept whatever takes place. They've done an outstanding job this year of adjusting to some very unusual circumstances that surround the game. They've done a good job of that. We've had a couple of huge disappointments, emotionally we weren't to where we should have been. We did come back to a certain level (in the season finale vs. Washington), but it's an outstanding group of guys who by and large are on the same page, they're focused, they come to work, they prepare themselves, they play hard, there are all kinds of personalities just like there always is, but as I said, I'm very, very appreciative of the kind of effort, the attitude, the enthusiasm, and the fact that this year's team was a very responsive team."

The Giants had many impressive statistical achievements in 2010. The offense (fifth) and defense (seventh) each finished in the top 10 of the NFL rankings. Eli Manning set franchise records for completions and completion percentage and became the first Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons and the second with more than 30 touchdown passes. Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235) and Brandon Jacobs (823) rushed for a combined 2,058 yards. Despite missing three games with injuries, Hakeem Nicks had one of the finest seasons by a wide receiver in Giants history with 79 catches for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns. Mario Manningham caught 60 passes, including 85- and 92-yard touchdowns. Osi Umenyiora (10 forced fumbles) and Justin Tuck (five fumble recoveries) tied for the team lead with 11.5 sacks.

But those players and the rest of the team and coaches ultimately exited the season with an empty feeling.

"Overall, I'm disappointed in the outcome of the season," said quarterback Eli Manning, who threw for 4,002 yards and 31 touchdowns, but also tossed 25 interceptions. "We thought we had potential. We thought we had players to make it in the playoffs and make a run, and we didn't accomplish that. We didn't play well enough at times of the season to make it into the playoffs."

"We had a good year," Tuck said. "Ten and six is nothing to hold your head down about. Obviously, it wasn't good enough, and we always have a goal of reaching the playoffs and going deep in the playoffs and hopefully winning the Super Bowl. It didn't happen this year, but we're not going to hold our heads about it. We had opportunities, and you try your best to learn from them. Hopefully, that's being carried over to next year and it gets us to work a little harder in running and work a little harder in lifting and propel us to where we want to be next year."

Late in the afternoon on Dec. 18, 2011, the Giants trudged off the field in MetLife Stadium after a lackluster 23-10 loss to the Washington Redskins. The Giants had not scored a touchdown until 33 seconds remained in the defeat, their fifth in a six-game stretch that included a four-game losing streak. More importantly, the Giants fell to 7-7 and were one defeat from missing the playoffs for a third consecutive season.

But instead of continuing their freefall, the Giants rose up and concluded the season with one of the most inspiring and memorable runs in the 87-year history of the franchise, one that ended with a victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI — their second championship in five seasons.

The surge began with a Dec. 24 victory over the Jets in which the Giants were the visiting team. Eight days later, the Giants routed Dallas in a winner-take-all showdown for the NFC East title. The Giants finished 9-7 and became the first team to win the division with fewer than 10 wins since the 1970 merger.

The Giants opened their playoff run with a 24-2 rout of Atlanta in MetLife Stadium. They followed that up with road victories that avenged regular season losses to Green Bay and San Francisco, the latter a 20-17 overtime thriller in the NFC Championship Game.

That advanced the Giants to the Super Bowl, where they found a familiar foe in the Patriots, the same team they defeated four years earlier in Super Bowl XLII. This time, Ahmad Bradshaw scored the game-winning touchdown on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining and the defense knocked down Tom Brady's last-play pass into the end zone to clinch the 21-17 victory.

Eli Manning completed 30 of 40 passes for 296 yards to win his second Super Bowl MVP award as the Giants became the first seven-loss team to win a Super Bowl.

During the regular season, the Giants set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. Manning set Giants marks with 589 passes and 359 completions. Wide receiver Victor Cruz established a team record with 1,536 receiving yards while catching 82 passes. Hakeem Nicks had 1,192 yards to give the Giants two 1,000-yard receivers for the first time in franchise history.

Ahmad Bradshaw missed four games with a foot injury, but led the team with 659 rushing yards and nine touchdowns.

The 2012 Giants finished 9-7 and in second place in the NFC East. It was the eighth consecutive season in which the Giants finished .500 or better, their longest such streak since they played 10 seasons in a row without a losing record from 1954-63. The Giants finished with a winning record for the third consecutive season, the first time they had done that since 1988-90 (when they were 10-6, 12-4, 13-3).

Despite extending those streaks, they did not earn a post-season berth. The Giants lost control of their playoff destiny with back-to-back late-season defeats in Atlanta and Baltimore. They routed Philadelphia in their finale, but soon learned they were eliminated when Chicago beat Detroit.

The Giants compiled numerous impressive statistics in 2012. They scored 429 points, the second-highest total in franchise history; the 1963 Giants scored 448. The 2012 season was the fifth in the 88-year history of the franchise in which the Giants scored more than 400 points. The Giants scored a franchise-record 278 points at home, shattering the old mark of 248, set in 2007. In their last three home games — victories over Green Bay, New Orleans and Philadelphia — the Giants scored 38, 52 and 42 points.

The 2012 team allowed an NFL-low 20 sacks. The Giants were fourth in the NFL in both takeaways (35, four more than they had in 2011) and turnover differential (plus-14, a significant improvement over 2011's plus-7). The plus-14 was the Giants' best turnover differential since they were plus-25 in 1997. The Giants intercepted 21 passes in 2012, their highest total since they had 27 picks, also in 1997.

The Giants finished the 2012 season with 72 penalties for 578 yards, both franchise-low totals for a 16-game schedule.

Eli Manning passed Phil Simms and became the Giants' career leader in completions (2,612) and touchdown passes (211).

Four Giants were selected to the Pro Bowl: Manning, guard Chris Snee, wide receiver Victor Cruz and defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul.

In 2013, a strong finish was not enough for the Giants to overcome a poor start and they finished 7-9, their first losing record since they were 6-10 in 2004. They were third in the NFC East for the second season in a row.

The Giants put themselves in a deep hole by losing their first six games for the first time since 1976, when they lost their first nine games. They did, however, follow their 0-6 start with four consecutive victories to become just the second team in NFL history to lose its first six games and win the next four (the other team was the 2009 Tennessee Titans). Overall, the Giants won seven of their last 10 games.

All nine of the Giants' losses were to teams that finished .500 or better, the first time that happened since their 5-11 season in 1995. The Giants lost home games to both of the teams that played in Super Bowl XLVIII, Seattle and Denver.

The offense struggled much of the season. The Giants' offense ranked 28th in the NFL in both yards per game (307.5) and points per game (18.4). The Giants scored 294 points, their lowest total in Tom Coughlin's 10 seasons as head coach. They were shutout at Carolina and vs. Seattle, the first time since 1996 they did not score twice in the same season. The Giants scored more than 27 points just once, in their 36-31 opening night loss in Dallas.

The Giants committed an NFL-high 44 turnovers. It was their highest turnover total since 1983, when they had 58 turnovers. The Giants' minus-15 turnover differential was their worst since they were minus-16, also in 1983.

Defensively, the Giants improved throughout the season. The defense ranked 26th in the NFL entering Week 6, when it was allowing an average of 395.2 yards per game, finished the season ranked eighth, giving up 332.3 yards a game. That was a significant improvement over the 2012 season, when the defense was ranked 31st, allowing 383.4 yards per game. The unit was 14th in the league against the run (108.9 yards a game) and 10th vs. the pass (223.3). The Giants were 18th in scoring defense, allowing 23.9 points a game. Entering Week 6, they were 32nd and last in scoring defense, giving up 36.4 points a game.

The defense was not responsible for nine of the 42 touchdowns allowed by the Giants, who surrendered an NFL-high nine return touchdowns (three apiece on interceptions, fumble returns and punt returns).

The 2014 Giants finished 6-10, their first double-digit loss season since 2004 and their first back-to-back losing seasons since 2003-04. They were a streaky team, with a seven-game losing streak surrounded on both sides by three-game winning streaks.

The Giants were the third-place team in the NFC East for the second year in a row. They were 2-4 in NFC East games. The Giants swept Washington and were swept by Dallas and Philadelphia.

The Giants scored 380 points and allowed 400. It was just the fifth time in franchise history they gave up at least 400 points. The offense finished 10th in the NFL with an average of 367.2 yards a game, a 59.7 yards-per-game improvement over their 2013 average of 307.5. It was the team's largest one-year jump since 2005, when the Giants were ranked fourth in the league with an average of 361.7 yards game. That was a 66.6 yards-per-game increase over their 2004 average of 295.1.

The Giants set franchise records for completed passes with 383 (shattering the former mark of 359, set in 2011) and completion percentage with 63.1 (the former record of 62.9 was set in 2010). They finished with their second-highest totals in franchise history in passes attempted (607) and net passing yards (4,272).

The Giants' defense allowed 6,012 net yards, the third-highest total by their opponents in franchise history. They yielded 6,134 yards in 2012 and 6,022 in the 2011 championship season.

The Giants were ranked 29th in the NFL in total defense, allowing 375.8 yards a game, after finishing eighth (332.3 yards per game) in 2013. The run defense ranked 30th (135.1 yards a game), while the Giants were 18th vs. the pass (240.6). The Giants finished the season with 47 sacks, their highest total since they had 48 in 2011.

The Giants were 6-10 for the second season in a row in 2015, their first back-to-back double-digit loss seasons since 2003-04 when they were 4-12 in Jim Fassel's final season as head coach and 6-10 in Tom Coughlin's first. Eight of the 10 losses were by six or fewer points. The Giants lost six games in which they held a lead or were tied in the fourth quarter.

The Giants finished under .500 for the third consecutive season, the first time that's happened since they had eight straight losing seasons from 1973-80. They missed the playoffs for the fourth consecutive season, their longest drought since they went 17 years about a postseason berth from 1964-80.

The 2015 Giants scored 420 points, the fifth-highest total in franchise history. Their 331 first downs were tied for the fourth-highest total in team history, and were just five fewer than their 2014 total. The Giants' 5,956 net yards were the third-highest total in their history.

With an average of 372.3 yards per game, the Giants finished eighth in the NFL in total offense, one season after finishing 10th in yardage. It is their first back-to-back top 10 finishes since they had a streak of four consecutive seasons from 2008-11.

In 2015, the Giants set franchise records for pass attempts (623, the old record was 616 in 2003), and completions (392, the old record was 383 in 2014). The Giants totaled 4,347 net passing yards, the second-highest total in franchise history. The record of 4,734 was set in 2011. The Giants threw 36 touchdown passes in 2015 (35 by Eli Manning), the second-highest total in franchise history; the 1963 Giants threw 39 touchdown passes.

The Giants sharply improved their fortunes in Ben McAdoo's first season as head coach in 2016, when they finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and in second-place in the NFC East, after finishing 6-10 each of the previous two years. The five-game improvement in victories is their biggest since 2005, when they were also 11-5 one year after finishing 6-10. The Giants qualified for their first playoff berth since 2011, when they won Super Bowl XLVI. It was their 32nd postseason appearance, tying them with Dallas and Green Bay for the most in NFL history. The Giants' season ended with a 38-13 loss to the Packers in an NFC Wild Card Game. The Giants finished 7-1 at home, their best record in the seven-year history of MetLife Stadium (previous best: 6-2 in 2012) and their best home record since they were 7-1 in Giants Stadium in 2008. They won their last six home games, their longest such streak since they won their first six games at home in 2008. The Giants finished 4-2 in NFC East games, their best record within the division since they were 4-2 in 2013. Their 2-1 record in division road games was their best since they were 2-1 in 2013. With their 27-23 victory against Baltimore on Oct. 16, the Giants became the third NFL franchise with 700 combined regular-season and postseason victories. At the conclusion of their 92nd season, the Giants were 708-597-33. The Packers were 764-575-37, and the Chicago Bears were 761-586-42. The Giants had a vastly-improved defense in 2016. They were second in the NFL with 284 points allowed, one season after they were ranked 30th after giving up 442 points. The Giants allowed 17.8 points per game, the lowest average by their opponents since 2002, when they gave up 17.4 points a game.

The 2017 season began with optimism but ended in disappointment for the Giants, who lost their first five games on their way to a 3-13 record. The 13 losses were a franchise record, and the three victories were the team's fewest since 1983, when the Giants finished 3-12-1. The Giants finished 2-6 in MetLife Stadium, their fewest home victories since they were 1-7 in 2003. They scored 246 points, their lowest total since they scored 243 in 2003. On Dec. 4, the Giants were 2-10 when general manager Jerry Reese and head coach Ben McAdoo were dismissed from their duties. Assistant general manager Kevin Abrams was named interim G.M. and defensive coordinator Steve Spagnuolo became the interim head coach. The Giants were 1-3 under Spagnuolo, defeating the Washington Redskins in their season finale. When Eli Manning did not play at Oakland on Dec. 3, it ended his streak of 210 consecutive regular-season starts (plus 12 in the postseason) dating back to his rookie season in 2004. Tight Evan Engram, the Giants' 2017 first-round draft choice, finished the season with team-high totals of 64 catches and six touchdowns. Safety Landon Collins was the Giants' only Pro Bowl representative, but was unable to play in the game after fracturing his arm in Week 16. On Jan. 22, the Giants named Pat Shurmur their new head coach.

STADIUMS OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

In 2010, the Giants moved into beautiful, new, state-of-the-art MetLife Stadium built just a few yards from where Giants Stadium sat for more than three decades. The nation's finest football stadium, it seats 82,500 fans. It is one of the NFL's most technologically advanced stadiums and took more than four million man-hours and $1.6 billion to build. The stadium features 10,000 club seats, 222 suites and 130,000 square feet of state-of-the-art club lounges. The first row of seats is just 46 feet from the sidelines and the sightlines are superb. The site of Super Bowl XLVIII, Giants' new home is 2.1 million square feet, compared to Giants Stadium's 900,000 square feet. It has four 30' by 118' high definition video screens, a 350,000 square foot outdoor plaza filled with interactive activities for fans of all ages.

COMMEMORATIVE PATCHES

The Giants have celebrated two major anniversaries by wearing uniform patches on its jerseys. The first was in 1999 for its 75th season, the second coming in 2004 commemorating 80 years.

Over the years, the team has honored deceased players and administrators by wearing memorial patches. In 1986, the team wore a patch in remembrance of Carl "Spider" Lockhart. In 2001, a "GBY" patch honored longtime general manager George Bernard Young. Most recently, Wellington T. Mara was remembered during the 2005 season with a "WTM" patch after his passing, and a few weeks later, Preston Robert Tisch was added to a patch with Wellington Mara separated by the NY logo.

The Giants honored Hall of Famer, player and coach, Rosie Brown with a "79" decal on the back of their helmets in after his passing in 2004.

In addition, the team has also worn patches in Super Bowls XXV, XLII and XLVI. Those patches were representations of the NFL's Super Bowl logos for those years.

In 2014, the team wore a patch commemorating its 90th season in the league.

For the 2015 season, the team wore a "ATM" patch on its jerseys honoring the passing of Ann Mara, wife of Wellington Mara.

WELLINGTON MARA
CO-OWNER
FORDHAM
ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, Coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, was a member of the four-man 1997 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara was one of the most influential and beloved figures in American sports history. His entire working lifetime was dedicated to the Giants and the NFL and he helped the Giants produce 21 NFL/NFC first place finishes, 27 postseason appearances and six NFL championships during a 68-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937. Mara passed away on Oct. 25, 2005.

TIM MARA
CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Tim Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved in the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The Chicago Bears arrived at the Polo Grounds with the most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, who helped draw a crowd of more than 70,000 people. After seeing so many people attend a Giants game, Mara decided that professional football could be a big success under the right circumstances. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse and was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1930 and played six seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's inaugural championship game in 1933 and he scored the first touchdown in the league's championship game history on a 29-yard pass from Harry Newman in the second quarter. Badgro tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. He was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1931, 1933 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees in the American Football League (12 games in 1927 and one game in 1928). He played pro baseball for three seasons, the first with the Tulsa in the minor leagues and then with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. He was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

ROOSEVELT BROWN*TACKLE*MORGAN ST.*ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest “sleeper” picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was selected All-NFL eight consecutive seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the league title, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was a big, strong blocker who had the speed to make a block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

ROSIE BROWN IN 1953*HARRY CARSON*LINEBACKER*SOUTH CAROLINA STATE*ENSHRINED IN 2006

Carson played his entire 13-year NFL career with the Giants. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL first team selection and was a leader throughout his career and the sole captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions. Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice in 1976 from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully moved to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to NFL All-Rookie team. Carson played 173 games in a Giants uniform — tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time — and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants’ 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants’ opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

FRANK GIFFORD
HALFBACK, FLANKER
ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first choice in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. He rushed for 3,609 yards rushing, caught 367 passes and scored 484 points. Gifford was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL history. He played in seven Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. Gifford holds the Giants record with 78 touchdowns. A true triple-threat back, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and returned in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including their victory in 1956.

CENTER
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hein joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons, a team record matched only by Phil Simms and Michael Strahan. He was named All-NFL eight consecutive years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. He joined the Giants after the team submitted the highest salary bid at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. He never missed a game in high school, college or the NFL. Hein took time out only in two games and was injured only once. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1938 after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the NFL Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the Polo Grounds.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

CAL HUBBARD

GENEVA
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-28 and again in 1936. He was one of the 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years in a row from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936 before returning to the Giants. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season, the defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He went to Green Bay in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record to edge out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants their only loss of the season by a 20-6 score.

TOM LANDRY

COACH

Landry was with the Giants as a defensive back from 1950-55 and an assistant coach from 1954-59. The Giants' 1956 championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had one of history's greatest coaching staffs. Head coach Jim Lee Howell had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER
WEST VIRGINIA
ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff became an immediate star at middle linebacker after he was drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 following an All-America career at West Virginia. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, including Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. He was named the NFL's Outstanding Lineman in 1959. Huff anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. He was traded to the Washington Redskins prior to the 1964 season and has been a color analyst on the Redskins radio broadcasts for many years.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS

HALFBACK, FULLBACK
G. WASHINGTON/
OREGON

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was personally scouted by Wellington Mara and was a second-round draft choice in the inaugural NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

VINCE LOMBARDI

COACH

Lombardi was an offensive assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-58 and the head coach of the Green Bay Packers (1959-67) and Washington Redskins (1969). With Lombardi running the offense, the Giants captured the NFL championship in 1956. In 10 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67) and victories in Super Bowls I and II, a feat without equal in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

BILL PARCELLS

Parcells was head coach of the Giants for eight years (1983-90) and later held the same position with the

New England Patriots, New York Jets and Dallas Cowboys. He led the Giants to victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV and is one of 13 head coaches with more than one Super Bowl victory. With the Giants, Parcells was 77-49-1 (.610) in the regular season and 8-3 (.727) in the postseason for an overall mark of 85-52-1 (.620). In 19 seasons as a head coach, Parcells was 172-139-1 (.569) in the regular season and 11-8 (.579) in the postseason. His overall record was 183-138-1 (.570). The 172 regular-season victories are the 10th-highest total in NFL history, as are the 183 total victories.

STEVE OWEN

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Owen was a four-time All-NFL tackle who played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the NFL title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. But Owen made his greatest imprint on the sideline, where he coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owens had a coaching record of 153-100-17 and won eight division and two NFL titles. The 153 victories are a Giants record. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

DEFENSIVE END
ARNOLD COLLEGE
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams championship teams. In 1956, Wellington traded for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants' title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. He played in eight NFL championship title games and seven Pro Bowls. Robustelli was named All-NFL seven times, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

KEN STRONG
HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47.

He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants' career scoring leader with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 championship game over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR
LINEBACKER
NORTH CAROLINA
ENSHRINED IN 1999

Taylor joined the Giants as the second overall selection of the 1981 NFL Draft and played his entire 13-year career for the team. When Taylor retired, he was the NFL's No. 2 all-time sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1981 and the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times (the award was established in 1984), as well as the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986 and September 1989. Taylor was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. He was a unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986, when he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 tackles, five passes defended and two forced fumbles.

MICHAEL STRAHAN
DEFENSIVE END
TEXAS SOUTHERN

Strahan played his entire career with the Giants from 1993-2007. A standout as both a run stopper and pass rusher, Strahan joins Hall of Famer Mel Hein and Phil Simms as the only players in Giants history to play 15 years with the team. Strahan played in a franchise-record 216 regular-season games. He was a four-time first-team All-Pro (1997, 1998, 2001 and 2003), a seven-time Pro Bowler and the 2001 NFL AP Defensive Player of the Year. Strahan had 141.5 career regular season sacks, which is the Giants' franchise record and the fifth-highest total in NFL history. Strahan holds the NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks in 2001. He also led the NFL in 2003 with 18.5 sacks and is the only Giants player to twice lead the league in sacks. Strahan was a captain of the 2007 Giants team that won Super Bowl XLII.

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the best trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern Division championship. Tittle played two seasons in the All-American Conference and 11 in the NFL before joining the Giants. In 1962, Tittle set an NFL record by throwing 33 touchdown passes and tied another mark with seven scoring throws in one game. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, when he led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes broke his own league mark and set a Giants record that still stands. Tittle's career totals include 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with more than 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957, when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the honor again in 1961 and 1963, as he took the Giants to Eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLLEN TUNNELL

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948 and played 11 seasons for the teams. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. Tunnell was the first African-American player signed by the Giants. He holds Giants records with 74 interceptions and 261 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kickoff returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER
DEFENSIVE TACKLE
WASHINGTON
ENSHRINED IN 1984

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950-53. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big and extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays, Weinmeister began his pro career with the New York Yankees in the All-American Football Conference in 1950. He moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. Weinmeister played two ways in the AFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. Csonka left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He excelled in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and rushing for more than 100 yards in two of them. Csonka finished his career with 8,081 yards, a 4.3-yard average and 64 touchdowns.

RAY FLAHERTY END, COACH
GONZAGA
ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship Game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He spent the 1930 season coaching at Gonzaga. Flaherty finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. Flaherty introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. He suggested to Coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

QUARTERBACK
MICHIGAN
ENSHRINED IN 2005

Friedman, a two-time All-America quarterback at Michigan, played with the Cleveland Bulldogs (1927), Detroit Wolverines (1928), Giants (1929-1931) and Brooklyn Dodgers (1932-1934). Following the 1928 season New York Giants owner Tim Mara purchased the Detroit franchise just to secure the services of Friedman. A versatile player, Friedman could run, kick and pass the ball better than any player who preceded him. From 1927-30, Friedman threw 11, 9, 20, and 13 touchdown passes, leading the league each year. In 1928, he topped the league in both rushing touchdowns and touchdown passes; no other player has ever accomplished that feat. His 20 touchdown passes in 1929, including four in one game, were both NFL records for years. Although very durable, a knee injury coupled with the rigors of serving as an assistant coach at Yale, Friedman's productivity dropped in 1931. Still the player-coach managed to earn third-team All-NFL honors that year and second-team All-NFL honors in 1933.

HALFBACK
CARLISLE
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

HUGH McELHENNY

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963, when he helped them advance to the championship game. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber came out of retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern Division crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40, and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

FRAN TARKENTON

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. He began his career with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961 before moving to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in blockbuster trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-62, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7-yard average) and 88 touchdowns. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

In 2010, the Giants unveiled their Ring of Honor, which commemorates some of the most prominent and influential figures in the 87-year history of the franchise. The original class of 30 players, coaches, executives and owners was joined by five more honorees in 2011. These men have helped the Giants win eight NFL championships and more than 650 games and contributed to them becoming one of the most respected and admired organizations in professional sports.

The names of the men in the Ring of Honor are prominently displayed at each Giants home game in MetLife Stadium above the club level on each sideline.

TIM MARA

Tim Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved in the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The Chicago Bears arrived at the Polo Grounds with the most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, who helped draw a crowd of more than 70,000 people. After seeing so many people attend a Giants game, Mara decided that professional football could be a big success under the right circumstances. He bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. Mara helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse and was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WELLINGTON MARA

It is impossible to overstate the influence Wellington Mara had on the Giants and in the NFL. He was one of the most important and influential figures in the history of professional football, a man credited with many of the ideas and innovations that have made the NFL the nation's most popular professional sports league. Mara is the most beloved and influential Giant in history and one of the most significant figures not just in the NFL, but in American sports. He was a vital member of the franchise for each of its first 81 years until his death in 2005. Mara was instrumental in helping the Giants make 26 postseason appearances, including 18 divisional championships and six NFL championships, among them the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV titles. Despite his ties to the team, Mara was recognized for always putting the league's interests ahead of what was best for the Giants. He was an invaluable contributor to the NFL as a member of many ownership committees. In 1997, Mara was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his father, Tim Mara, as the first father-son duo elected to the Hall.

JACK MARA

During the very first game the Giants ever played in 1925, Jack Mara followed each play along the sidelines as he held the first down marker. It wasn't long before he held far more important jobs in the organization. Mara was only 22 years old in 1930 when his father, Tim, turned over the ownership of the Giants to him and his younger brother Wellington, who was all of 14. He served as the team's president for 31 years and was in charge of the Giants' business operations. Jack Mara was the driving force behind one of the most significant decisions in franchise history, to move the Giants' home games to Yankee Stadium from the crumbling Polo Grounds prior to the 1956 season. Tim Mara detested Yankees owner

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

Dan Topping, so it was Jack who negotiated the deal that saved the financial future of the franchise. Jack Mara also lobbied the owners to share television revenue, which helped create the parity that has made pro football America's favorite spectator sport.

BOB TISCH

Preston Robert Tisch — “Bob” to everyone who knew him - realized a longtime dream in 1991, when he became co-owner of the Giants. Soon after the Giants won Super Bowl XXV, Tisch completed negotiations with Tim Mara (son of Jack Mara) and his family for a 50 percent interest in the team. That commenced Tisch's career as an owner of a professional sports franchise, one of many he simultaneously pursued. Tisch led an extraordinarily accomplished life. He was an enormously successful businessman, an extremely generous philanthropist, a postmaster general, a friend of presidents, governors and mayors and a nonpareil New York City mover and shaker. But nothing gave Tisch more pleasure and pride than being the co-owner of the Giants and working on several influential NFL ownership committees. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

GEORGE YOUNG

George Young was hired as the Giants general manager on Feb. 14, 1979 and stayed in that position through the 1997 season. He led the franchise out of the bleak 1970s and brought in great players such as Taylor, Simms, Joe Morris, Mark Bavaro and Carl Banks. Young hired Parcells, the head coach of two Super Bowl champions. During his tenure, the Giants earned eight playoff berths, highlighted by victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV, and compiled an overall record of 155-139-2. He was named NFL Executive of the Year an unprecedented five times — 1984, 1986, 1990, 1993, and 1997. Young also served as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee.

STEVE OWEN

Owen was a four-time All-NFL tackle who played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the NFL title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. But Owen made his greatest imprint on the sideline, where he coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owen had a coaching record of 153-100-17 and won eight division and two NFL titles. The 153 victories are still the Giants record. Some of his coaching innovations included the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1966.

JIM LEE HOWELL

Jim Lee Howell was the Giants' head coach from 1954-60. He quickly added two future Hall of Fame coaches to his staff, Vince Lombardi to lead the offense and Tom Landry, whom he converted from a player, to coach the defense. In Howell's seven seasons as head coach, the Giants played in three NFL Championship Games and defeated George Halas's Chicago Bears, 47-7, in 1956. Howell's regular season record was 53-27-4 record, a .630 winning percentage. He coached six future Pro Football Hall of Fame players in Huff, Robustelli, Brown, Tunnell, Gifford and Don Maynard. Howell stayed with the Giants as Director of Player Personnel until his retirement in 1981.

BILL PARCELLS

When Parcells began coaching the Giants in 1983, the team had finished with a winning record just once in the previous 10 seasons. Parcells led the Giants to the playoffs in his second and third seasons. In 1986, he coached one of the greatest teams in Giants history. That year, the Giants won their last 12 games and finished 17-2, including a 39-20 rout of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. Four years later, Parcells led the Giants to a 20-19 victory over the favored Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. He left the team after that season with a 77-49-1 regular season record. The 77 victories are the second-most in team history, behind Owen's 153. Parcells holds the Giants' record with eight postseason wins.

MEL HEIN

Hein joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons, a team record matched only by Simms and Strahan. He was named All-NFL eight consecutive years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. He joined the Giants after the team submitted the highest salary bid at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. He never missed a game in high school, college or the NFL. Hein took time out only in two games and was injured only once. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1938 after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the NFL Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the Polo Grounds. Hein was a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 1963.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

KEN STRONG

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants' career scoring leader with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 championship game over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career. Strong was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967.

TUFFY LEEMANS

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was personally scouted by Wellington Mara and was a second-round draft choice in the inaugural NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career. He was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978.

EMLEN TUNNELL

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948 and played 11 seasons for the team. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. Tunnell was the first African-American player signed by the Giants. Fifty-two years after playing his last game for the team, he still holds Giants records with 74 interceptions and 261 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kickoff returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls. Tunnell was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967.

FRANK GIFFORD

A Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee in 1977, Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history.

Gifford was the first choice in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. He rushed for 3,609 yards, caught 367 passes and scored 484 points. Gifford was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL history. He played in seven Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. Gifford holds the Giants record with 78 touchdowns. A true triple-threat back, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the half-back option. He retired after the 1960 season and returned in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including their victory in 1956.

ROSIE BROWN

Roosevelt Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was selected All-NFL eight consecutive seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the league title, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was a big, strong blocker who had the speed to make a block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, a position he held from 1971 until his death in 2004. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

SAM HUFF

Huff became an immediate star at middle linebacker after he was drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 following an All-America career at West Virginia. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, including Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. He was named the NFL's Outstanding Lineman in 1959. Huff anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. He was traded to the Washington Redskins prior to the 1964 season and has been a color analyst on the Redskins radio broadcasts for many years. Huff was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1982.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

Robustelli was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams championship teams. In 1956, Wellington Mara traded for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants' title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. He played in eight NFL championship title games and seven Pro Bowls. Robustelli was named All-NFL seven times, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career. He was the Giants' general manager prior to George Young. He was a 1971 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

Y.A. TITTLE

The Giants engineered one of the best trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern Division championship. Tittle played two seasons in the All-American Conference and 11 in the NFL before joining the Giants. In 1962, Tittle set an NFL record by throwing 33 touchdown passes and tied another mark with seven scoring throws in one game. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, when he led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes broke his own league mark and set a Giants record that still stands. Tittle's career totals include 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with more than 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957, when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the honor again in 1961 and 1963, as he took the Giants to Eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

HARRY CARSON

Carson played his entire career with the Giants from 1976-88. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL first team selection and was the sole captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions. Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully moved to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to the NFL All-Rookie team. Carson played 173 games in a Giants uniform — tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time — and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles. He was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

Taylor joined the Giants as the second overall selection of the 1981 NFL Draft and played his entire 13-year career for the team. When Taylor retired, he was the NFL's No. 2 all-time sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1981 and the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times (the award was established in 1984), as well as the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986 and September 1989. Taylor was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. He was a unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986, when he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 tackles, five passes defended and two forced fumbles. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

AL BLOZIS

Al Blozis played just three seasons for the Giants, 1942-44. He immediately made a favorable impression on the team after arriving in 1942 and quickly earned a starting assignment at tackle. Blozis played in the 1944 championship game against Green Bay. Immediately after the Giants' loss to the Packers, Blozis was sent overseas to fight in World War II. An Army lieutenant, he was killed in action in France just six weeks later. The Giants retired Blozis' No. 32 jersey.

CHARLIE CONERLY

Conerly is often called the best Giants player not in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He played his entire career with the Giants from 1948-61 and was a vital member of the 1956 NFL Championship team. Conerly was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1948, the league's Most Valuable Player in 1959 and a Pro Bowler in 1950 and '56. Conerly ranks third in franchise history in pass attempts (2,833), fourth in completions (1,418), third in yards (19,488) and third in touchdown passes (173).

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

DICK LYNCH

Lynch was traded to the Giants by the Washington Redskins following the 1958 season for a 1960 fourth-round draft choice. He played for the Giants from 1959-66, a period in which the team played in four NFL Championship Games. Lynch played in 97 regular season games for the Giants (109 in his career) and intercepted 35 passes. In both 1961 and 1963, he led the NFL with nine interceptions. In '63, he also led the league with 251 return yards and three touchdowns. Lynch scored seven career touchdowns, four on interception returns and three on fumble returns.

Although he had a great playing career, Lynch is best known to legions of Giants fans for his 40 years as the analyst on the team's radio broadcast. His last game in the booth was the Giants' epic Super Bowl XLII victory over New England. Lynch died nine months later. "Dick was such an important part of our organization for so many years that we really considered him part of the family," John Mara said.

JOE MORRISON

Morrison was a back and an end for the Giants from 1959 through 1972. A dominant figure during his 14-year career, he totaled 2,472 rushing yards and 18 touchdowns. He also caught 395 passes — the third-highest total in franchise history — for 4,993 yards and 47 scores. A versatile player, Morrison played six different positions: fullback, halfback, flanker, tight end, split end and defensive back. Morrison's No. 40 jersey has been retired by the franchise.

PETE GOGOLAK

Gogolak played for the Giants from 1966-74 and is the highest-scoring player in the history of the franchise with 646 points — 120 more than runner-up Brad Daluiso. He also owns the franchise records for field goals (126) and extra points (268). Beyond his prowess as a kicker, Gogolak is a significant figure in the history of pro football. When he moved from the Buffalo Bills to the Giants, Gogolak became the first prominent player to leave the upstart American Football League for the NFL. Wellington Mara signed him after watching rookie Bob Timberlake miss 13 consecutive field goal attempts. Gogolak was also pro football's first soccer style kicker. Prior to Gogolak, placekickers approached the ball straight on, with the toe making first contact with the ball. Gogolak, who was born and played soccer in Hungary, approached the ball at an angle and kicked it with his instep — the style all kickers use today.

Martin joined the Giants as an 11th-round draft choice in 1975, the 262nd overall pick. A long shot to survive his first training camp, Martin stayed with the Giants for his entire 14-year career. He played in 201 regular season games to become one of just three players in team history to cross the 200-games barrier (Strahan played in 216 games and Howard Cross played in 207). Martin was a leader and catalyst on the 1986 Super Bowl champions (he sacked John Elway for a safety in Super Bowl XXI). He had a knack for making the big play, scoring six touchdowns, a record for NFL defensive linemen since broken by Miami's Jason Taylor. Martin also caught a touchdown pass when he lined up as a tight end in 1980. He is perhaps happiest that he is joining his close friend Carson in the Ring of Honor.

PHIL SIMMS

Simms was George Young's first draft choice in 1979 and he played his entire 15-year with the Giants. He overcame a series of injuries early in his career to become the most productive quarterback in team history. Simms holds the Giants career records for pass attempts (4,647), completions (2,576), yards (33,462) and touchdowns (199). He was 95-64 (.597) as a regular season starter and 6-4 in the playoffs. But Simms is best remembered for his almost flawless performance in leading the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XXI. He completed 22 of 25 passes — including all 10 of his throws in the second half — for 268 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions in a 39-20 rout of the Denver Broncos. In one of the easiest votes in history, he was selected the game's Most Valuable Player.

MICHAEL STRAHAN

Few players in Giants history were as dependable and productive as Strahan. He seldom missed a practice and played in a franchise-record 216 regular season games. Beginning in 1996, he played in 136 consecutive games before tearing his pectoral muscle midway through the 2004 season. Strahan was selected to seven Pro Bowls, was named the 2001 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and was the Giants' Most Valuable Player that year and in 1998. He was a captain on the 2007 Super Bowl championship team. His 141.5 sacks are the highest official total in team history (Taylor had 142.0 but 9.5 as a rookie in 1981, the year before sacks became an official statistic) and the fifth-highest total in NFL history. He set the league's single-season sack record with 22.5 in 2001 and his NFL-best 18.5 sacks in 2003 made him the Giants' only two-time league leader in that category. Strahan's 868 tackles indicates he was also an excellent defender against the run.

JESSIE ARMSTEAD

Armstead, a five-time Pro Bowler, was the 207th player chosen in the 1993 draft, and the last of the Giants' seven selections (the first-round pick had been used on quarterback Dave Brown in the previous year's supplemental draft). Three of the seven players taken were linebackers: Marcus Buckley (No. 66) and Tommy Thigpen (No. 123), who never did much, and Armstead, who did it all. Armstead's draft was the last that had an eighth round. He was a special teams dynamo and top-flight reserve his first three seasons before becoming the starting weakside linebacker in 1996. Armstead had a team-high 114 tackles, the first of five consecutive seasons with more than 100. The next year, he had a career-best 134 stops, was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was a catalyst as the Giants won the NFC East title. In 2000 he had one of his best seasons and the Giants routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

AMANI TOOMER

Toomer joined the Giants in 1996 as a second-round draft choice from Michigan and played his entire 13-year career with the team. He played in 190 regular season games, the fourth-highest total in Giants history. He also played in 11 postseason games, scoring two touchdowns in the Giants' victory over the Cowboys in a 2007 NFC Divisional Playoff Game and finishing with a team-high six receptions in the Super Bowl XLII triumph over New England. Toomer holds franchise records for catches (668), receiving yards (9,497), touchdown catches (54) and 100-yard receiving games (22). He finished his career with 82 more receptions than runner-up Barber (586) and 4,063 more yards than former record-holder Gifford (5,434). Toomer caught at least one pass in a Giants-record 98 consecutive games before the streak ended in the 2005 season opener vs. Arizona. He holds the Giants' single-season record with 1,343 receiving yards in 2002. Toomer had the three highest single-season receptions totals in team history until Steve Smith shattered his former mark of 82 with 107 catches last year. Toomer also holds the Giants' postseason records for receptions (44), yards (608) and touchdowns (seven). No one else in Giants playoff history has more than three postseason touchdown catches. In addition, Toomer is second in Giants history with 10,924 total yards (Barber is first with 17,359). His total includes 1,060 yards on punt returns, 257 yards on kickoff returns and 110 yards rushing.

TIKI BARBER

Barber joined the Giants as a second-round draft choice in 1997. When he retired following his 10th season in 2006, his name was all over the franchise's record book. Barber owns the Giants marks for rushing attempts in a career (2,217) and in a season (357 in 2005) and rushing yards in a career (10,440), a season (1,860 in 2005) and a game (234 at Washington on Dec. 20, 2006 in his final regular season game). Barber has the top three and four of the top five single-season rushing totals in Giants history and the two highest game totals. His 38 100-yard games are twice as many as No. 2 Joe Morris and his nine 100-yard games in 2004 is another record. Barber has the longest run from scrimmage in Giants history (95 yards at Oakland on Dec. 31, 2005) and his 55 rushing touchdowns are another one of his records. Barber's 17,359 all-purpose yards give him another record. He owns the Giants' top five single-season total yardage figures. Another one of his records is 13 catches at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000. Barber is also second in franchise history with 586 career receptions. He was selected to three Pro Bowls (2004-06).

ALEX WEBSTER

Webster played his entire 10-year career (1955-64) for the Giants. He played in 109 games and 47 years after his retirement, he is fourth on the Giants' career lists with 4,638 rushing yards and 1,196 carries. He also caught 240 passes for 2,679 yards and scored 56 touchdowns (39 rushing, 17 receiving). Webster was the second-leading rusher and scorer and the third-leading receiver for the 1956 NFL champion Giants. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1958 and 1961, when he ran for a career-high 928 yards. Webster was the Giants' head coach from 1969-73. Webster passed away on March 3, 2012, just three months after being inducted into the Ring of Honor.

BRAD VAN PELT

Van Pelt played for the Giants from 1973-83, when the team had only one winning record, but he was one of the team's very best players. Van Pelt joined Carson, Brian Kelley and later Lawrence Taylor to form the famed group of linebackers known as the "Crunch Bunch." He was selected to play in the Pro Bowl every season from 1976-80. Van Pelt played in 143 games for the Giants in four home stadiums — Yankee Stadium, Yale Bowl, Shea Stadium and Giants Stadium — and for five head coaches — Bill Arnsparger, John McVay, Ray Perkins and Bill Parcells. He had 16 interceptions for the Giants. Van Pelt died on Feb. 17, 2009.

CARL BANKS

Banks was the third overall selection of the 1984 NFL Draft and played for the Giants through the 1992 season. He was one of the premier run-stoppers of his era, a standout on the teams that won Super Bowls XXI and XXV, a Pro Bowler in 1987 and a member of the NFL 1980's All-Decade Team. Banks played in 126 regular season games and had 36.0 sacks, three interceptions and approximately 500 tackles. Banks is still closely affiliated with the Giants; since 2007, he has been an analyst on the Giants' radio broadcasts.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

MARK BAVARO

Bavaro is one of the finest all-around tight ends in Giants history. An outstanding blocker, he is also 10th on the franchise's career list with 266 receptions and 15th with 3,722 yards. Bavaro was a starter on the Giants' 1986 and 1990 Super Bowl championship teams and a Pro Bowler in 1986 and '87. In the Giants' first Super Bowl season, Bavaro led the team with 66 catches — twice as many as any teammate — for 1,001 yards to become the only tight end in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

DAVE JENNINGS

Jennings is the most prolific punter in Giants history. A member of the team from 1974-84, Jennings holds the franchise records for punts (931) and yards (38,792). He was selected to play in the Pro Bowl in 1978, '79, '80 and '82. He punted a career-high 104 times in 1979, twice punted for more than 4,000 yards in a season and had a career-best 44.8-yard average in 1980.

CHRIS SNEE

Snee joined the Giants as a second-round draft choice in 2004 from Boston College. That preseason, he became the starter at right guard and stayed in that position for 10 years. Snee was a two-time Super Bowl champion, a four-time Pro Bowler and an All-Pro in 2010. He started all 141 regular-season games and 11 postseason games in which he played. From 2005-11, he started 101 consecutive regular-season games (plus seven postseason games) before missing a game with a concussion. Snee missed only 19 games in his 10 seasons, including 13 in 2013, his final year.

OSI UMENYIORA

Umenyiora was a member of the Giants Super Bowl XLII and XLVI championship teams. A second-round draft choice in 2003, he played 10 seasons for the Giants. Umenyiora was selected to two Pro Bowls and is fourth on the franchise's career list with 75.0 regular-season sacks. XLVI. He was the only member of the 2007 world champions to play in the Pro Bowl. That season, the Giants had an NFL-high 53 sacks, thanks largely to their three outstanding defensive ends. Umenyiora led the way with 13.0. Tuck, another two-time Pro Bowler, had 10.0, and Strahan had 9.0 in his final season. On Sept. 23, 2007, Umenyiora set the Giants' single-game franchise record with 6.0 sacks of Philadelphia's Donovan McNabb in Giants Stadium. In 10 postseason games, Umenyiora had 5.5 sacks, tying him with Tuck for fourth on that franchise list.

JOHN JOHNSON

Johnson joined the team as an athletic trainer in 1948. He retired at age 90 following the 2007 season, ending a remarkable 60-year career with the franchise. Johnson was on the Giants' sideline for 874 regular-season and 34 postseason games, and he attended thousands of practices. Johnson worked with 12 head coaches, from Steve Owen to Tom Coughlin, and helped keep the Giants running through those 908 games. Generations of players revered Johnson for his wisdom, his friendship and his unique ability to perfectly tape an ankle. Johnson passed away on Feb. 28, 2016, a month shy of his 99th birthday.

JACK LUMMUS

Lummus' entire Giants career consisted of nine games in 1941. He was a 6-3, 200-pound two-way end who that season caught one five-yard pass for a Giants team that finished 8-3 before losing to the Bears in the NFL Championship Game on Dec. 21, two weeks after the attack on Pearl Harbor. On Jan. 30, 1942, with the United States fully engaged in World War II, Lummus gave up his football career to enlist in the Marine Corps Reserves. He was killed in the Battle of Iwo Jima in 1945. He becomes the second member of the Ring of Honor who was killed in a World War II battle. Al Blozis, an Army lieutenant, lost his life in combat in France just six weeks after he played in the 1944 NFL Championship Game vs. Green Bay.

TOM COUGHLIN

Coughlin was the Giants' head coach from 2004-15. His signature achievements were the Giants' victories against the New England Patriots in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. Coughlin was just the second man to coach the Giants for at least 12 seasons. Only Hall of Famer Steve Owen, who reigned for 23 full seasons from 1931-53, led the team for a longer time period. With the Giants, Coughlin was 102-90 in the regular season, and 8-3 in the postseason. The 102 victories are second in franchise history to Owen's 151. Coughlin led the Giants to three NFC East titles and five playoff berths. His eight postseason triumphs tie him with Bill Parcells for the most ever by a Giants coach. Coughlin was the team's wide receivers coach from 1988-90, a tenure that ended with the team's victory in Super Bowl XXV.

ERNIE ACCORSI

Accorsi was the Giants' general manager from 1998-2006 after serving as an assistant under George Young for four seasons. In Accorsi's nine years as G.M., the Giants won two NFC East titles, earned four postseason berths, and advanced to Super Bowl XXXV. He was instrumental in hiring two-time Super Bowl-winning coach Tom Coughlin. Accorsi made the most significant trade in Giants history when he acquired Eli Manning in a draft day deal in 2004. Manning led the Giants to a pair of Super Bowl victories and is without peer among quarterbacks in Giants history. Accorsi also brought in several other key players to the team that won Super Bowl XLII, including Antonio Pierce, Osi Umenyiora, and Plaxico Burress.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

JUSTIN TUCK

A third-round draft choice from Notre Dame in 2005, Tuck played in 127 regular-season games with 90 starts in nine Giants seasons. He was a defensive catalyst on the teams that won Super Bowl XLII and Super Bowl XLVI, a two-time Pro Bowler, and four-time team captain. Tuck was credited with more than 500 tackles. His 60.5 sacks are officially the sixth-highest total in franchise history. Tuck also played in 10 post-season games. He had 5.5 sacks, including two sacks of Tom Brady in each of the Super Bowl victories, when a dominant defensive line was one of the vital components of the Giants' success.

GIANTS ALL-TIME ROSTER

This list is comprised of players who have been on the Giants' game-day active roster for at least one game. It does not mean they actually played in a game, but only that they were on the active roster on the day of the game, even if they were inactive for that particular game. It also includes players who were on injured reserve and the physically unable to perform list and did not appear in a game. This list was compiled with the assistance of John Berti.

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen would say later. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Bears out of the end zone. Hinkney Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain that set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara and the Giants.

* Victory clinched the NFL Championship- there was no Championship game in 1927.

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun...Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced a fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons that set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana that knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries.

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveziz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to Minnesota. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

For the first time in three Super Bowl appearances the Giants came up flat and lost to the Ravens. The Giants could not get untracked against Baltimore's highly-rated defense, gaining only 152 yards (66 on the ground) and picking up 11 first downs (2 rushing). Quarterback Kerry Collins struggled, completing only 15 of 39 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions. Brad Maynard punted a Super Bowl-record 11 times for a 38.4-yard average. The Giants defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards and 13 first downs. Baltimore took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 38-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Brandon Stokley. Matt Stover added a 47-yard field goal in the second period for a 10-0 halftime lead. The Ravens advantage grew to 17-0 when Duane Starks intercepted a Collins pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown early in the third period. The Giants responded with their only touchdown of the day, on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But Baltimore immediately scored on the next kickoff, as Jermaine Lewis returned it 84 yards for a score and a 31-7 lead. NFC Wild Card Game

Jan. 5, 2003 at Candlestick Park (66,318)

The Giants' season ended with a shocking and heartbreaking defeat as they wasted a 38-14 third-quarter lead and fell to the 49ers. Four touchdown passes by Kerry Collins — three to Amani Toomer and one to Jeremy Shockey — a touchdown run by Tiki Barber and Matt Bryant's field goal gave the Giants what seemed to be a commanding 24-point lead with 4:27 left in the third quarter. But the 49ers mounted a quick and complete comeback. Terrell Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia, who then ran 14 yards for another score. Jeff Chandler's 25-yard field goal pulled San Francisco to within 38-33. With 1:00 remaining, Garcia threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tai Streets. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Niners had a 1-point lead. The Giants had a chance to pull the game out. After Delvin Joyce's 32-yard kickoff return, the Giants drove from their own 48-yard line to the San Francisco 23. Matt Bryant lined up for what could have been the game-winning 41-yard field goal. But Trey Junkin's snap was low and wide. Holder Matt Allen took off and threw a desperation pass toward Rich Seubert, a guard who was an eligible receiver on the play. Seubert was interfered with by Chike Okefor, but the officials did not throw a flag and the game ended as a huge disappointment for the Giants.

NFC Wild Card Game

Jan. 8, 2006 at Giants Stadium (80,242)

The Giants lost a playoff game in Giants Stadium for just the third time when they fell to the Carolina Panthers, 23-0. Carolina dominated the game, holding big advantages in offensive plays (71-35), time of possession (42:45-17:15), first downs (23-9), total yards (335-132) and rushing yards (223-41). The Giants hurt themselves with five turnovers, including three Eli Manning interceptions on consecutive possessions in the second half (two by Marlon McCree and one by Ken Lucas). Manning also fumbled late in the game. The Giants converted just one of seven third-down opportunities. Steve Smith caught a touchdown pass and ran in for another score and John Kasay kicked three field goals for the Panthers. DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards on 27 carries, a 5.6-yard average that was reflective of the Giants' tackling difficulties throughout the game. Jake Delhomme completed 15 of 22 passes for 140 yards. Smith had 10 of those receptions. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 41 yards, or 75 yards less than his regular season average. Manning completed 10 of 18 passes for 113 yards and was sacked four times. Jeremy Shockey, Amani Toomer and Barber had three catches apiece. Smith scored the game's first points on a 22-yard touchdown reception. Later in the second quarter, a Carolina punt bounced off Gibril Wilson's leg and was recovered by the Panthers, setting up Kasay's 21-yard field goal. Smith scored on a 12-yard reverse immediately following Manning's first interception and Kasay added two fourth-quarter field goals.

David Akers' 38-yard field goal as time expired sent the Giants to a second Wild Card game defeat in as many seasons, 23-20, to the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Giants overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score, but couldn't prevent the Eagles from driving 46 yards in the final 5:04 for the game-winning score. Tiki Barber rushed for 137 yards in his final NFL game, Eli Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 161 yards and Plaxico Burress had two touchdown receptions. The Giants also got a pair of field goals from Jay Feely. The Eagles scored on a 49-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook, Jeff Garcia's 28-yard touchdown pass to Dante Stallworth and three Akers field goals. Akers' 48-yard field goal — the longest in Philadelphia postseason history — increased the Eagles' advantage to 20-10 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter. Feely's 24-yard field goal pulled the Giants to within 20-13 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. They tied the game at 20-20 when Eli Manning found Burress in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 5:04 remaining. Burress' second touchdown capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive in the rain that took 7:09 to complete. The Giants needed a stop so they could get the ball back and try to win a game. But they never owed the ball again. Westbrook's 13-yard run gave Philly a first down on the Giants' 19-yard line with 1:48 remaining. From there, the Eagles bled the clock until they called timeout with three seconds left. Akers then booted the game-winner.

NFC Wild Card Game

Jan. 6, 2008 at Raymond James Stadium (65,621)

Before the Giants opened postseason play in an NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay, Tom Coughlin had a simple message for his players: "Let's keep playing." So they did. Carrying their season-long road success into the playoffs, the Giants prevailed, 24-14, over the NFC South champion Buccaneers. They broke a four-game postseason losing streak that began in Super Bowl XXXV — in Raymond James Stadium, the home of the Bucs. The Giants also won their first playoff road game since the 1990 NFC Championship Game in San Francisco. They defeated Bucs quarterback Jeff Garcia, who had beaten them in the playoffs with the 49ers in 2002 and Philadelphia in 2006. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants, one on a five-yard reception, the other on an eight-yard run. Jacobs became the first Giants player in history with a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same postseason game. Amani Toomer caught a touchdown pass and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 25-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning completed 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, the two touchdowns and no interceptions as the Giants won a postseason game for the first time with him taking the snaps. The Giants entered the game with a minus-nine turnover differential, or minus-24 relative to the Bucs' plus-15. Yet they had three takeaways to none for the Bucs. The first, a fumble recovery by Corey Webster on the second-half kickoff, led to Tynes' field goal. The second, a Webster interception in the end zone, likely denied the Bucs points. The third, a pick by R.W. McQuarters with 1:53 remaining, sealed the deal. The Giants played without center Shaun O'Hara (knee) and cornerback Sam Madison (abdominal). But Grey Ruegamer and Webster filled in superbly (the corner holding Joey Galloway to one nine-yard reception). They were among a large cast of key contributors. Toomer had a game-high seven catches for 74 yards. Rookie Ahmad Bradshaw came off the bench to rush for a game-high 66 yards. Michael Strahan had a career postseason high of nine tackles (eight solo). Gerris Wilkinson, who started for Kawika Mitchell (knee) had seven tackles (five solo). Tank Daniels had two special teams tackles and forced the fumble that Webster recovered. Zak DeOssie also had two special teams tackles. The offensive line allowed only one sack. Tampa Bay took an early lead on Earnest Graham's one-yard run, but Jacobs' two touchdowns gave the Giants a 14-7 halftime advantage. The first score successfully concluded an eight-play, 53-yard drive that took 4:04 to complete. Manning completed five passes for 49 yards in the series. Toomer accounted for 40 yards on three catches. On their next series, the Giants drove 65 yards in seven plays. The biggest play of the series was Manning's 21-yard pass to Steve Smith on third-and-two. Tynes' field goal and Toomer's touchdown midway through the fourth quarter extended the Giants' lead to 24-7 before Tampa Bay added a late score. Toomer scored at the end of a 15-play, 92-yard drive that featured 38 yards rushing by Bradshaw and three Toomer receptions for 27 yards.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game

Jan. 13, 2008 at Texas Stadium (63,650)

The Giants avenged their only road defeat of the season, a 45-35 opening-night loss, with a 21-17 victory over the top-seeded Dallas Cowboys in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Texas Stadium. The Cowboys had defeated the Giants twice in the regular season. The Giants became the first team to beat the NFC's No. 1 seed in the divisional round since the current postseason format (six teams from each conference) was adopted in 1990. Amani Toomer scored a pair of touchdowns on receptions of 52 and four yards from Eli Manning. Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 13:29 remaining provided the Giants with the game-winning points. But the victory was not assured until R.W. McQuarters intercepted Tony Romo's pass for Terry Glenn in the end zone with nine seconds remaining. It was the game's only takeaway. Manning had a career-high 132.4 passer rating after completing 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards, the two scores to Toomer and no interceptions. The Giants played with a severely depleted secondary. Sam Madison (stomach) and Kevin Dockery (hip flexor) were inactive. A third cornerback, Aaron Ross, left the game for good in the third quarter with a shoulder injury. That left Corey Webster, McQuarters and Geoffrey Pope — who spent the entire regular season on the practice squad before joining on the active roster on Dec. 31 — as the only healthy corners. All played extensively in the second half. The secondary, aided by a relentless second-half pass rush, stayed strong throughout the game. The Cowboys scored on Tony Romo's five-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens and Marion Barber's one-yard run in the second quarter and Nick Folk's 34-yard field goal in the third. Romo completed 18 of 36 passes for 201 yards and his 64.7 rating was less than half of Manning's. Toomer turned a short Manning pass into a 52-yard touchdown on the Giants' fifth offensive play. After Dallas took a 14-7 lead, Manning led the Giants on a 71-yard drive in the final minute of the half that ended with a four-yard scoring pass to Toomer and a 14-14 halftime tie. Folk gave the Cowboys a 17-14 lead before Jacobs' touchdown on the third play of the fourth quarter gave the Giants the lead for good. But the Cowboys had one last chance when they took possession at the Giants' 48-yard line with 1:50 remaining. Dallas soon faced second-and-11 at the 23. Two incomplete passes left them staring at a fourth down with the seasons of both teams hanging in the balance. Owens was double covered, so Romo threw to the center of the end zone for Terry Glenn. But McQuarters stepped up and picked off the pass, sending the Giants to the NFC Championship Game.

NFC Championship Game

Jan. 20, 2008 at Lambeau Field (72,740)

The coldest game in Giants history was also one of the most memorable and satisfying the franchise has ever played. The Giants overcame the elements — and the Packers — to defeat Green Bay in overtime, 23-20, in the NFC Championship Game in frigid Lambeau Field. Lawrence Tynes provided the game-winning points when he kicked a 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed in overtime. Tynes had missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final play of regulation. It was the first time in the history of Lambeau that a visiting player had kicked a field goal of more than 40 yards in a postseason game. The score was set up by Corey Webster's interception on the second play of overtime. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with winds of 12 miles-an-hour — a numbing wind chill of minus-23. In terms of temperature alone, this was the third-coldest NFL game on record. At the famed Ice Bowl between the Packers and Dallas Cowboys in Lambeau on Dec. 31, 1967, it was 13 below zero at kickoff. In the 1981 Chargers-Bengals AFC Championship Game in Cincinnati, it was nine below. Brandon Jacobs (one-yard run) and Ahmad Bradshaw (four-yard run) scored touchdowns and Tynes added a 29-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning set career postseason highs with 40 passes, 21 completions and 251 yards. Plaxico Burress established a franchise postseason record with 11 catches, for 151 yards. The old mark of 10 was set by Ike Hilliard in the 2000 NFC Championship Game victory over Minnesota. Defensively, the Giants held Green Bay to 28 rushing yards, forced Favre into two late interceptions and limited the Packers to one successful third down conversion on 10 tries. The Giants dominated the game statistically, outgaining Green Bay (380-264), rolling up 11 more first downs (24-13) and owning the ball for 40:01 to just 22:34 for the Packers. The Packers scored on Driver's 90-yard catch-and-run and Favre's 12-yard touchdown pass to Donald Lee, plus field goals by rookie Mason Crosby of 36 and 37 yards. Crosby's second field goal, with 11:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, tied the score at 20-20. The Giants had a chance to prevent the score when R.W. McQuarters intercepted a Favre pass at the eight-yard line. But McQuarters was hit by Ryan Grant and fumbled and the ball bounced right to Packers tackle Mark Tauscher, who plucked it out of the air at the 19. It was the Giants' first turnover of the postseason... In overtime, Favre threw a pass to Driver, but Webster stepped up and picked off the ball, returning it nine yards to the Green Bay 34-yard line. Ahmad Bradshaw gained five yards on two runs before Manning's pass for Steve Smith fell incomplete. Tynes then sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with one of the biggest field goals in franchise history.

WORLD CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XLII had a perfect ending, but the unexpected twist was that it belonged to the Giants. Eli Manning engineered a fourth quarter comeback drive for the ages and concluded perhaps the greatest postseason run in NFL history as the underdog Giants upset the previously undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14, in Super Bowl XLII in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants won their third championship of the Super Bowl era — the first in 17 years — and seventh overall in what will surely be remembered as one of the most exciting title games in NFL history. It was the first of 42 Super Bowls in which the lead changed hands three times in the fourth quarter. Plaxico Burress scored the game-winning points with only 35 seconds remaining on a 13-yard pass from Manning. The score concluded a 12-play, 83-yard drive that commenced immediately after New England had taken a 14-10 lead with less than three minutes remaining. Manning, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, two touchdowns and an interception, which deflected off Steve Smith's hands. David Tyree scored the Giants' first touchdown and made an unbelievable catch on the game-winning drive. Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs combined for 87 rushing yards. Amani Toomer caught six passes for 84 yards and Smith added five for 50 yards.

Lawrence Tynes kicked a 32-yard field goal, which ultimately proved to be the deciding points. The Giants' defense was magnificent. New England averaged almost 37 points a game in the regular season. The Patriots held them to 14. The Patriots averaged 411.3 yards a game, but totaled only 274 in the Super Bowl. The Patriots rushed for only 45 yards and did not have a run longer than nine yards. Tom Brady was sacked five times. Brady's six-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss gave the Pats a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining. Cornerback Corey Webster slipped on the play and New England reached the end zone at the end of a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Manning responded by completing five of nine passes for 77 yards on the game-winning drive. The one everyone will long remember came on a third-and-five from the Giants' 44. Manning, seemingly about to be sacked, escaped, steadied himself and fired a pass down the middle of the field for Tyree, who was closely covered by safety Rodney Harrison. Both players jumped for the ball, which somehow landed on top of Tyree's helmet. But the receiver wrestled the ball away from Harrison for what may well be the greatest catch in Super Bowl history. The 32-yard gain gave the Giants a first down at the New England 24. Three plays later, Smith picked up a huge first down and Manning followed with the game-winning throw to Burress.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
January 11, 2009 at Giants Stadium

The Giants picked a bad day to have a bad day and saw their championship reign come to an end in a 23-11 home loss to the Philadelphia Eagles. The Giants lost just two home games in the 2008 season - both to Philadelphia. They outgained the Eagles, 307-276, including 138-59 on the ground, but were doomed by an inability to take advantage of opportunities in close. The Giants advanced as far as Philadelphia's 17-yard line three times - and had a first down on the 11 on their initial possession - but settled for field goals each time. The Giants converted only three of 13 third down opportunities. Their last five possessions ended, in order, with a missed field goal, twice on downs, an interception and a fumble. The Giants scored on John Carney field goals of 22, 34 and 36 yards and a safety when Donovan McNabb was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. Carney also missed field goal attempts of 46 and 47 yards. Philadelphia got a one-yard touchdown run from McNabb, a one-yard scoring pass to tight end Brent Celek and David Akers field goals of 25, 35 yards and 20 yards. Brian Westbrook was held to 36 rushing yards and 10 receiving yards (on two catches).

The Giants used a smothering defense and an opportunistic, big-play offense to rout the Falcons, 24-2, their first postseason victory since Super Bowl XLII and their first home playoff win since the 2000 NFC Championship Game triumph over Minnesota. Eli Manning threw three touchdown passes - four and 72 yards to Hakeem Nicks and 27 yards to Mario Manningham. The Giants also got a 22-yard field goal from Lawrence Tynes. Manning completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards. Brandon Jacobs ran for a career postseason high 92 yards and Ahmad Bradshaw added 63 as the Giants ran for 172 yards, 50 more than their previous high total in the 2011 season. The Giants' 442 net yards was their third-highest total in a postseason game. The defense was even more dominant. The unit did not allow a point - the Falcons' only score was on a safety. Atlanta rushed for only 64 yards, including 41 on 15 carries by Michael Turner, who ran for 1,340 yards in the regular season. The Giants stopped the Falcons on 10 of 14 third down attempts and all three of their fourth-down conversion tries, including a pair of fourth-and-one quarterback sneaks by Matt Ryan.

For the second time in five seasons, the Giants traveled to Wisconsin in January and stunned a higher-seeded Green Bay Packers team. They rode a terrific defensive effort and three Eli Manning touchdown passes to defeat the top-seeded, 15-1, defending Super Bowl Champion Packers, 37-20, an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Lambeau Field. It was the third time the Giants eliminated the defending Super Bowl champions from the playoffs. In 1985, the defeated the 49ers in an NFC Wild Card Game in Giants Stadium, 17-3 and five years later, they beat the Niners in San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game. The defense held a Packers team that had averaged 40.1 points at home to half its average and forced four turnovers. Manning completed 21 of 33 passes for a career postseason-high 330 yards and three touchdowns – 66 and 37 yards to Hakeem Nicks and four yards to Mario Manningham. The 37-yarder to Nicks was a Hail Mary on the final play of the second quarter. Brandon Jacobs scored on a 14-yard run and Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 31, 23 and 35 yards. The Packers scored on Aaron Rodgers touchdown passes of eight yards to fullback John Kuhn and 16 yards to wide receiver Donald Driver, plus Mason Crosby field goals of 47 and 35 yards.

NFC Championship Game

The Giants again showed they know how to play exciting NFC championship games. More importantly, they know how to win them. Just as they did four years earlier, the Giants advanced to the Super Bowl with a thrilling overtime victory on the road in the conference title game. In rainy and windy Candlestick Park, Lawrence Tynes kicked a 31-yard field goal with 7:54 elapsed in the extra period to give the Giants a 20-17 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. The game-winning kick was set up by an overtime takeaway when Devin Thomas recovered a Kyle Williams fumble on a punt return that was forced by Jacquian Williams. In the fourth quarter, Thomas had recovered a Kyle Williams fumble on a punt, setting up Eli Manning's 17-yard touchdown pass to Mario Manningham. The officials originally ruled that Williams didn't touch the ball and that Thomas had merely downed it. Tom Coughlin challenged the ruling and after review, referee changed the call to a fumble and a recovery. Manning threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns while setting Giants postseason records with 58 passes and 32 completions. The other touchdown was scored by Bear Pascoe, his first as a professional. Tynes kicked another 31-yard field goal. Victor Cruz had 10 receptions for 142 yards, including eight for 125 in the first half. Ahmad Bradshaw totaled 126 yards from scrimmage, including 74 on the ground. Chase Blackburn had a team-high seven tackles (five solo). Jason Pierre-Paul had six tackles (five solo), a half-sack and deflected a pass. The 49ers scored on Alex Smith touchdown passes of 73 and 28 yards to tight end Vernon Davis and David Akers' 25-yard field goal.

WORLD CHAMPIONS

History happily repeated itself for the Giants in Super Bowl XLVI. Ahmad Bradshaw's scored on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining in the game and the defense withstood one final assault from Tom Brady as the Giants defeated the Patriots, 21-17, in Lucas Oil Stadium. The Giants won their fourth Super Bowl and eighth championship in franchise history in a game that was eerily similar to their victory over the same opponent in Super Bowl XLII four years before. Eli Manning completed his first nine passes and 30 of 40 overall for 296 yards and a touchdown to win his second Pete Rozelle Trophy as the game's Most Valuable Player. He was at his best in the fourth quarter, when he hit 10 of 14 passes for 118 yard, including a pinpoint 38-yarder to Mario Manningham to start the game-winning 88-yard, nine-play masterpiece that was completed in 2:49. In addition to Bradshaw's touchdown, the Giants scored on Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Victor Cruz, Lawrence Tynes field goals of 38 and 33 yards and a safety when Brady was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. New England's points came on Brady touchdown passes of four yards to Danny Woodhead and 12 yards to Aaron Hernandez and Steve Gostkowski's 29-yard field goal.

Playing their first postseason game since their dramatic Super Bowl XLVI victory against New England five years earlier, the Giants lost to the Green Bay Packers, 38-13, in an NFC Wild Card Game in Lambeau Field. None of the Giants' five losses in the 2016 regular season were by more than 14 points. Despite being sack five times, Green Bay quarterback Aaron Rodgers threw for 362 yards, and became the first Giants opponent to throw four touchdown passes in a playoff game. Randall Cobb scored on three of them, another record, including one on a Hail Mary on the final play of the first half. Davante Adams caught Rodgers' other touchdown pass. Aaron Ripkowski scored on a one-yard run and Mason Crosby kicked a 32-yard field goal for Green Bay's other points. The Giants took an early 6-0 lead on Robbie Gould field goals of 26 and 40 yards. Their only other score was Eli Manning's 41-yard touchdown pass, which pulled the Giants to within 14-13 in the third quarter. But the Packers scored the game's final 24 points.
